them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an ^a excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him ^b over the whole realm.

4 ¶ Then the presidents and princes ^d sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, ^f King Dā-rī'ūs, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, ⁱ according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Dā-rī'ūs signed the writing and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber ^m toward Jerusalem, he ⁿ kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and ^o prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 Then they ^q came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the ^e children of the captivity of Judah, ^e regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, ^g Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own ^h signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 ¶ Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night ^k fasting: neither were instruments of musick brought before him: and his ^l sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the ^p living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God ^r hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had ^aaccused Daniel, and they ^bcast them into the den of lions, them, ^ctheir children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 ¶ Then king Dä-rī'ūs wrote unto ^dall people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; ^ePeace be multiplied unto you.

26 ^gI make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and ⁱhis kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

28 So this Daniel ^uprospered in the reign of Dä-rī'ūs, and in the reign of ^rCyrus the Persian.

CHAPTER 7

IN the first year of ⁱBēl-shāz'zār king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and ^uvisions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the ^bfour winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts ^ccame up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was like a lion, and had ^deagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted

5 And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ^ften horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them ^hanother little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and ^ka mouth speaking great things.

9 ¶ I beheld till the thrones were ²cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was ^mwhite as snow, and the ⁿhair of his head like the pure wool: his ^pthrone was like the fiery flame, and his ^qwheels as burning fire.

10 ^sA fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ^uministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the ^yjudgment was set, and ^zthe books were opened.

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till ^athe beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, ^uone like ³the Son of man

DANIEL 8

^a came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a ^b kingdom, that ^d all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head ^e troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the ^h interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But ⁱ the saints of the ^k most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the same horn ^a made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and ^r judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that ^s the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And ^c he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and ^e think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a ^f time and times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but ⁱ I kept the matter in my heart.

CHAPTER 8

IN the third year of the reign of king ^m Bēl-shāz-zār a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a ⁿ vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at ^o Shū-shān in the palace, which is in the province of ^p Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ū-lāi.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but ^t he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the ¹four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth ^ma little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the ²⁰pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, ^reven to the host of heaven; and ^sit cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he ^tmagnified himself even to the ^xprince of the host, and by him ³the ^ydaily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 ⁴And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, ^cand prospered.

13 ¶ Then I heard ^eone saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, ^gHow long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and ⁱthe transgression of ^ldesolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be ^acleansed.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me ^ras the appearance of a man.

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a ^fdeep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he ^gtouched me, and set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the ^hindignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of ^kMē²di-ā and ^lPersia.

21 And the rough goat is the king of ⁿGrē²çi-ā: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the ^pfirst king.

22 ^qNow that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors ^uare come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding ^zdark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty, ^abut not by his own power: and he ^bshall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people.

25 And ^dthrough his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall ^fmagnify himself in his heart, and ^{5h}by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the ^kPrince of princes; but he shall be broken ^mwithout hand.

26 And the ⁿvision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore ^oshut thou up the vision; for ^pit shall be for many days.

27 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

CHAPTER 9

IN the first year of ^bDā-rī'ūs the son of Ā-hās-ū-ē'rūs, of the seed of the ^dMedes, which was made king over the realm of the Chāl-dē'āns;

2 In the first year of his reign I Daniel ^eunderstood by books the ⁱnumber of the years, whereof ^kthe word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish ^lseventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with ⁿfasting, and ^osackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and ^pmade my confession, and said, O Lord, ^qthe great and ^rdreadful God, ^skeeping the covenant and ^tmercy to ^uthem that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and ^zhave rebelled, even ^aby departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:

6 Neither have we hearkened unto ^dthy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, ^frighteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us ^gconfusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, ^kthrough all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, ^oand to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 ¶ To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;

10. ^sNeither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, ^tto walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

Daniel maketh confession of sins

11 Yea, all Israel ^ahave transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; ^ctherefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath ^ethat is written in the law of ^fMoses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And ^hhe hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As it is written ^min the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD ^xwatched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for ^ythe LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that ^bhast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and ^chast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶ O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, ^eI beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, ^hthy holy mountain: ⁱbecause for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a ^lreproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and ^mcause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is ⁿdesolate, for the Lord's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; ^popen thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and ^rthe city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy ^ugreat mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, 24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy ^sholy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and ^{*}to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to ^zseal up the vision and ^bprophecy, and to ^banoint the ^emost Holy.

CHAPTER 10

IN the third year of ^bCyrus king of ^cPersia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called ^dBēl-tē-shāz'zār; and the thing was true, ³but the ^stime appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and ^hhad understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

3 ¹I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I ^manoint myself at all, till ⁿthree whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the ^ofirst month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is ^pHid² dē-kēl;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and ^rbehold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of ^uU'phāz:

6 His body also was like the ^uberyl, and his face as the appearance of ^ylightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to ^apolished brass, and the ^dvoice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me ^esaw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a ^hdeep sleep ⁱon my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 ¶ And, behold, an hand ^ktouched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man ^lgreatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and ^astand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood ^btrembling.

12 Then said he unto me, ^dFear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and ^eto chasten thyself before thy God, ^fthy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me ^hone and twenty days: but, lo, ^kMichael, one of the ^mchief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people ^qin the latter days: for yet ^rthe vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became ^sdumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men ^ttouched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, 19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: ^upeace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of ^yGrē-ḥi-ā shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but ^zMichael your prince.

CHAPTER 11

ALSO I in the first year of ^eDā-rī'ūs the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in ^jPersia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of ²ⁱGrē-ḥi-ā.

3 And a ^lmighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and ⁿdo according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, ^ohis kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the ^pfour winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

8 And shall also ^{*}carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall ³continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, ^ahis heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much ^ariches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and ^bcast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the ⁱglorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the ³ⁿisles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his estate a ^{4p}raiser of taxes in the glory of the 21 And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come ^{2a}in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by ^bflatteries.

22 And with the arms of a ^cflood shall they be overflowed from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall work ^cdeceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the ^ffattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but ^kit shall not prosper: for yet the ^lend shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be ^magainst the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

30 ¶ For the ships of ^oChittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall ^apollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the ^bdaily sacrifice, and they shall place the ^cabomination that maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but ^dthe people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And ^ethey that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by ^fthe sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to ^gpurge, and to make them white, even to the ^htime of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall ⁱexalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall ^jspeak marvellous things against the ^kGod of gods, and shall ^lprosper ^mtill the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall ⁿmagnify himself above all.

38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and ⁱI will avenge ^mthe blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and ⁿwill cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the ^bvalley of Jezreel.

self with her ^bearrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and ^cforgot me, saith the LORD.

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and ^dbring her into the wilderness, and speak ^{2f}comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the ^hvalley of Ā' chôr for a door of hope: and she shall ³sing there, as in the days of ^kher youth, and as in the day ⁱwhen she came up out of the land of Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me ⁴Īsh'î; and shalt call me no more ⁵Bā'ā-li.

17 For ^oI will take away the names of Bā'ā-līm out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make ^qa covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and ^rI will break the bow and the ^ssword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down ^usafely.

19 And I will ^{*}betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies.

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and thou ^cshalt know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, ^dI will ⁶hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

22 ^fAnd the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear ^{7h}Jezreel.

23 And ^kI will sow her unto me in the earth; ^mand ⁿI will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and ^qI will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and ^sthey shall say, ^tThou art my God.

CHAPTER 3

THEN said the LORD unto me, ^{*}Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the ^alove of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who ^alook to other gods, and love ^{ad}flagons of wine.

2 So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, ^gand for an ^hhō-mēr of barley, and an half homer of barley:

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Israel ^oshall abide many days ^bwithout a king, and without a prince, and ^awithout a sacrifice, and without an ^{ss}image, and without an ⁱē-phōd, and without ^utēr-ā-phīm:

5 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and ^yseek the LORD their God, and ^aDavid their king; and ^cshall fear the LORD and his ^agoodness in the ^elatter days.

CHAPTER 4

^aHEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a ⁱcontroversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is ⁱno truth, nor mercy, ^mnor knowledge of God in the land.

2 By ⁿswearing, and ^olying, and ^bkilling, and stealing, and ^acommitting adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore shall ^rthe land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, ⁱthe fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are ^aas they that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are destroyed ^dfor lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that ^ethou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast ^aforgotten the law of thy God, I will also ^bforget thy children.

7 ^aAs they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore ^fwill I change their glory into shame.

8 ⁱThey eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, ^klike people, like priest: and ⁱI will punish them for their ways, and ^mreward them their doings.

10 For they shall ⁿeat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have ^rleft off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom and wine and new wine ^atake away the ^hheart.

12 ¶ My people ask counsel at their ^zstocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the ^bspirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice ^fupon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under ^hoaks and poplars and elms, because the ^kshadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with ^sharlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and ^ucome not ye unto ^aGilgal, neither go ye up to ^yBeth-aven, ^znor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel slideth back as a ^bbacksliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 E-phrā-im is ^cjoined to idols: let him alone.

18 Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: ⁵her ^frulers with shame do love, Give ye.

CHAPTER 5

^fHEAR ye this, O ^gpriests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is ^atoward you, because ye have been a ^bsnare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon ⁱTabor.

2 And the ^krevolters are profound ^ato make slaughter, though I have been a rebuker of them all.

3 ⁿI know E-phrā-im, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the ^rspirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they ^thave not known the LORD.

5 And the ^upride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and E-phrā-im fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 ^zThey shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 ^bThey have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now shall a ^dmonth devour them with their ^eportions.

8 Blow ye the cornet in ^eGibeah, and the ^gtrumpet in ^hRamah: cry aloud at ⁱBeth-aven, after thee, O ^kBenjamin.

9 E-phrā-im ⁿshall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them ^rthat remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 E-phrā-im is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the ^rcommandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto E-phrā-im as a ^vmoth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.

13 When E-phrā-im saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the ^aAssyrian, and sent to ^cking Jareb: yet ^dcould he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

God's judgments against the priests

14 For I will be unto E-phrā-im ^eas a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 ^gI will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and ⁱseek my face: ^min their affliction they will seek me early.

CHAPTER 6

COME, and ^olet us return unto the LORD: for ^bhe hath torn, and ^qhe will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 After two days will he ^srevive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 Then shall we know, if we follow on ^tto know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us ^vas the rain, as the ^alatter and ^aformer rain unto the earth.

4 ^gO E-phrā-im, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the ^cearly dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them ^dby the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and ^jthy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For ⁱI desired mercy, and ^mnot sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

7 But they like ^omen have ^ptransgressed the covenant: there have they ^qdealt treacherously against me.

8 ^sGil-ē-ād is a city of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood.

9 And as ^ttroops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of ^upriests murder in the way ^bby consent: for they commit ^xlewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the ^zwhoredom of E-phrā-im, Israel is defiled.

WHEN I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they ^fcommit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the ^htroop of robbers spoileth without.

2 And they consider not in their hearts that ⁱI remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; ⁿthey are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

5 ^aIn the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

14 And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when ^ethey howled upon their beds: they ⁱassemble themselves for corn and wine, and ^kthey rebel against me.

15 Though I have ^{2m}bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the ^omost High: they are like a ^pdeceitful bow: their princes shall fall ^qby the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision ^sin the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 8

SET ^zthe trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come ^bas an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have ^ctransgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 ^aIsrael shall cry unto me, My God, ^{*}we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them ^eidols, that they may be cut off.

5 ¶ ⁱThy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them; ^khow long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore ⁿit is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For ^qthey have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the ^rstrangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as ^va vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For they are ^zgone up to Assyria, a ^a wild ass alone by himself: E'phrā-īm hath hired lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes.

11 Because E'phrā-īm hath ^a made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but ^mthe LORD accepteth them not; now will he remember their iniquity, and ^ovisit their sins: ^pthey shall return to Egypt.

14 For ⁱIsrael hath forgotten his ^{*}Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will ^zsend a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

CHAPTER 9

REJOICE not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast ^bgone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a ^creward upon every ^ecornfloor.

2 The floor and the ^fwinepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in ^gthe LORD's land; but E'phrā-īm shall ^hreturn to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things ^kin Assyria.

4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, ^mneither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the ⁿbread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up; ^{3q}Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, ^rnettles shall possess them: ^sthorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The ^udays of visitation are come,

The distress and captivity of Israel

the days of recompence are come; ^bIsrael shall know it: ^cthe prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The ^dwatchman of E'phrā-īm was with my God: but the prophet is a ^fsnare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply ^gcorrupted themselves, ^has in the days of ⁱGibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will ^kvisit their sins.

10 ⁱI found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the ⁿfirstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to ^qBā'al-pē'ôr, and ^rseparated themselves unto ^sthat shame; and ^ttheir ^uabominations were according as they loved.

11 As for E'phrā-īm, ^vtheir glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I ^abereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!

13 E'phrā-īm, as I saw ^dTyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in ⁱGilgal: for there I ^jhated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are ^orevolvers.

16 E'phrā-īm is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will cast them away, because ^pthey did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of ^o Gibeah: there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should ^a chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, ⁶ when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And E'phrā-im is as an ^s heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 ^{*} Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; ^y break up your fallow ground: for it is time to ^a seek the LORD, till he come and ^d rain righteousness upon you.

13 Ye have ^b plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as ^e Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was ⁱ dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall ⁱ Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

CHAPTER 11

^b WHEN Israel was a child, then ^r I loved him, and ^s called my son out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto ^u Bā-ā-līm, and burned incense to graven images.

3 ^a I taught E'phrā-im also to go, ^b taking them by their arms; but they knew not that ^c I healed them.

4 ^a I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and ^a I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

5 ^g ^k He shall not return into the land of Egypt, ^m but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

6 And ⁿ the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to ^b backsliding from me: though they called them to ^r the most High, none at all would exalt him.

8 How shall I give thee up, E'phrā-im? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as ^s Admah? how shall I set thee as ^t Zē-bō'im? ^u mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy E'phrā-im: for ^z I am God, and not man; ^b the Holy One ^c in the midst of thee: and I will not ⁷ enter into the city.

10 ^a They shall walk after the LORD: he shall ^d roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird ^b out of Egypt, and ⁱ as a dove ^k out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 E-phrā-im compasseth me about with ^o lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: ² but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

CHAPTER 12

E-PHRĀ-IM feedeth on wind, and followeth after the ^b east wind: he daily increaseth ^a lies and desolation; and they do ^r make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried ⁱ into Egypt.

2 The LORD hath also a ^u controversy with Judah, and will ^v punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 ¶ He took his brother by the heel ² in the womb, and ^a by his strength he had power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: ^e he found him in ^f Beth-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his ⁱ memorial.

CHAPTER 1

THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pē-thū-ēl.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. ^a Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 ^c Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpillar eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the ^b new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For ^d a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, ^e whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid ^g my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8 ¶ Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9 The ^bmeat offering and the ^cdrink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, ^fthe LORD's ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, ^hthe land mourneth; for ⁱthe corn is wasted: the ^knew wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11 ^mBe ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the ^ppomegranate tree, the ^qpalm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because ^sjoy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 ^uGird yourselves, and ^vlament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the ^zaltar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14 ¶ ^cSanctify ye a fast, call a ^esolemn assembly, gather the ^felders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD, 15 Alas for the day! for ^hthe day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the ⁱAlmighty shall it come.

16 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The ^useed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are ^kperplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the ^mfire hath devoured the ⁿpastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field ^acry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 2

^dBLOW ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my ^eholy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the ^fday of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

2 A ⁱday of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: ⁿa great people and a strong; ^othere hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A ^rfire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the ^tgarden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and ^vnothing shall escape them.

4 ^aThe appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the ^bnoise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a ^dflame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: ^eall faces shall ^ggather blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and ^hwhen they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, ⁱthey shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: ^othe sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

rejoice: for ^bthe LORD will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for ^dthe tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the ^aformer rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the ⁱlatter rain in the first month.

24 And the ^ffloors shall be full of wheat, and the ^ofats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 And I will restore to you the years that the ^slocust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall ^zeat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people ^cshall never be ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am ^ein the midst of Israel, and that ^fI am the LORD your God, and ^gnone else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 ¶ ^mAnd it shall come to pass afterward, that ⁿI will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall ^qdream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

30 And I will shew ^uwonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of ^xsmoke.

31 ^yThe sun shall be turned into darkness; and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

32 And it shall come to pass, that ^awhosoever ^bshall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for ^din mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the ^fremnant whom the LORD shall call.

CHAPTER 3

FOR, behold, in those days, and in that time, ^awhen I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 ^cI will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the ^evalley of Jě-hōsh'-ā-phāt, and ^fwill plead with them there for my people and for ^hmy heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted ^kmy land.

3 And they have ⁱcast lots for my people; and have ⁿgiven a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O ^bTyre, and ^qZidon, and all the ^rcoasts of ^sPalestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily ^xwill I return your recompence upon your own head;

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things:

6 ^gThe children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the ^jGrecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and ^kthey shall sell them to the ^mSā-bē'āns, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ^qProclaim ye this among the Gentiles; ^{2a}Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:

10 ^rBeat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the ^tweak say, I am strong.

11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the ^bvalley of Jě-hōsh'-ā-phāt: for there will I sit to ^djudge all the heathen round about.

13 Put ye in the sickle, for the ^eharvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the ⁱpress is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the ^mday of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

15 The ^asun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 The LORD also ^tshall roar out of Zion, and ^uutter his voice from Jerusalem; and ^vthe heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the ^zhope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

17 ^aSo shall ye know that I am the LORD your God ^bdwelling in Zion, ^cmy holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall ^eno strangers pass through her any more.

18 ^qAnd it shall come to pass in that day, that ^sthe mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and ^ha fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of ⁱShittim.

19 ^tEgypt shall be a desolation, and ⁿEdom shall be a desolate wilderness, ^ofor the violence against the children of Judah, because they have ^bshed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Judah shall dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

21 For I will ^scleansed their blood that I have not cleansed: for the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

CHAPTER 1

THE words of ^aAmos, who was among the ^bherdmen of ^cTē-kō'ā, which he saw concerning Israel ^din the days of Ūz-zī'āh king of Judah, and in the days of Jēr-ō-bō'am the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the ^eearthquake.

2 And he said, The LORD ^fwill roar from Zion, and ^gutter his voice from Jerusalem; and the ^hhabitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of ⁱCarmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^jDamascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; ^k"because they have threshed ^lGil'ē-ād with threshing instruments of iron:

4 But I will send a fire into the house of ^mHazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

5 I will break also the ⁿbar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of ^oEden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto ^pKir, saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^qGaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; ^r"because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom:

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from ^sAshdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from ^tĀsh'kē-lon, and I will turn mine hand against ^uEkron: and the ^vremnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord God.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^wTyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^xEdom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; ^y"because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

12 But I will send a fire upon ^z Teman, which shall devour the palaces of ^{aa}Bozrah.

13 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the children of ^{ab}Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ^{ac}ripped up the women with child of Gil'ē-ād, that they might enlarge their border:

14 But I will ^{ad}kindle a fire in the wall of ^{ae}Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

15 And their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 2

THUS saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^{af}Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime:

2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of ^{ag}Kir'ī-ōth: and Moab shall die with ^{ah}tumult, with shouting, and with the ^{ai}sound of the trumpet:

3 And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; ^{aj}"because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and ^atheir lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked:

5 But ^bI will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because ^cthey sold the righteous for silver, and the ^dpoor for a pair of shoes;

7 That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and ^eturn aside the way of the meek: and ^fa man and his father will go in unto the same maid, ^gto profane ^hmy holy name:

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes ⁱlaid to pledge by every altar, and they ^jdrink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

9 ¶ Yet destroyed I the ^kAmorite before them, whose height was like the height of the ^lcedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his ^mroots from beneath.

10 Also ⁿI brought you up from the land of Egypt, and ^oled you ^pforty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for ^qNazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

12 But ^rye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, ^ssaying, Prophecy not.

13 Behold, ^tI am pressed under you, as a cart ^uis pressed that is full of sheaves.

14 ^vTherefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself:

15 ^wNeither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.

16 And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 3

HEAR this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family ^awhich I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,

2 You only ^bhave I known of all the families of the earth: therefore ^cI will punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together, except they ^dbe agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a ^etrumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? ^fshall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?

7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but ^ghe revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? ^hthe Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?

9 ¶ Publish in the palaces at ⁱAshdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For ^jthey know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD; ^kAs the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in ^lSamaria in the corner of a bed, and ^min Damascus in a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, 14 That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him ^a I will also visit the altars of ^b Beth-el: and the ^c horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the ^e winter house with the ^e summer house; and the ^h houses of ivory shall perish, and the ⁱ great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

HEAR this word, ⁱ ye kine of ^m Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which ^o oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord GOD ^q hath sworn ^r by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away ^s with hooks, and your posterity ^t with fishhooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall ² cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Come to ² Beth-el, and transgress; at ^b Gilgal multiply transgression; ^d and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years:

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving ^f with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

6 ¶ And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: ^h yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

7 And also I have ⁱ withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

9 I have smitten you with ^r blasting and mildew: when your ^t gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

10 I have sent among you the ^d pestilence ^f after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the ^k stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

11 I have overthrown some of you, ⁿ as God overthrew Sodom and Gōmōr'rah, and ye were ^p as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and ^u createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that ^v maketh the morning darkness, and ^w treadeth upon the high places of the earth, ^c The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

CHAPTER 5

HEAR ye this word which I ⁱ take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The ^e virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

4 ¶ For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, ^k Seek ye me, and ye shall ⁱ live:

5 But ^m seek not ⁿ Beth-el, nor enter into ^o Gilgal, and pass not to ^p Beersheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall ³ come to nought.

6 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out ^q like fire in the ^s house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

7 Ye who ^a turn judgment to ^b worm-wood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

8 Seek him that maketh the ^{2d} seven stars and O-ri'on, and turneth the ² shadow of death into the morning, and ^h maketh the day dark with night: that ⁱ calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: ^m The LORD is his name:

9 That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 ^a They hate him that rebuketh ^b in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch therefore as your ^a treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have ^a built houses of ⁱ hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ^u ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For ^z I know your manifold transgressions, and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they ^b take a ^c bribe, and they ^j turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent shall ^h keep silence in that time; for ^k it is an evil time.

14 ⁿ Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

15 ^b Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: ^q it may be that the LORD God of hosts ^r will be gracious unto ^a the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and ^v such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be ^a wailing: for ^b I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

18 Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is ^j darkness, and not light.

19 As if a man did ^c flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a ^e serpent ^f bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 ^g I hate, I despise your feast days, and ⁱ I will not smell in your ⁿ solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy ^r viols.

24 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a ^{3x} mighty stream.

25 ^v Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness ^a forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne the ^a tabernacle of your ^d Mō-lōch and ^e Chī'ūn your images, the star of your god, ^g which ye made to yourselves.

27 Therefore ⁱ will I cause you to go into captivity beyond ⁱ Damascus, saith the LORD, ^m whose name is The God of hosts.

CHAPTER 6

WOE to them ^a that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, ^b which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!

2 Pass ye unto ⁱ Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to ^u Hā-māth the great: then go down to ^x Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

3 ^z Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;

4 ^c That lie upon beds of ^d ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the ^e calves out of the midst of the stall;

5 That ^e chant to the sound of the ^aviol, and invent to themselves ^binstruments of musick, like David;

6 That drink wine in ^cbowls, and ^aanoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the affliction of ^fJoseph.

7 ¶ ^aTherefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

8 The Lord God ^ahath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor ^athe excellency of Jacob, and ^mhate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, ⁿif there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and ^phe that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, ⁿHold thy tongue: for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

11 For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and he will smite the ^agreat house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 ¶ Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ^yye have turned judgment into ^zgall, and the fruit of righteousness into ^{3b}hemlock:

13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?

14 But, behold, ^aI will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of ^fHemath unto the river of the ^{4h}wilderness.

they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord God, ^dforgive, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

3 The LORD ^arepented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord God called to contend by fire, and it devoured the ^kgreat deep, and ³did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord God, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

6 The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.

7 ¶ Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a ^oplumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.

8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, ^qwhat seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel: ^rI will not again pass by them any more:

9 And the ^shigh places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will ^urise against the house of Jër-ö-bö'äm with the sword.

10 ¶ Then Äm-ä-zî'äh the priest of Beth-el sent to ^xJër-ö-bö'äm king of Israel, saying, Amos hath ^aconspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jër-ö-bö'äm shall die by the sword, and Israel shall ^bsurely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Äm-ä-zî'äh said unto Amos, O thou ^cseer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there ^eeat bread, and ⁱprophecy there:

13 But prophesy not again any more at ^kBeth-el: ⁱfor it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

14 ¶ Then answered ⁿAmos, and said to Äm-ä-zî'äh, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was an ^oherdman, and a gatherer of ^psycomore fruit:

15 And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

16 ¶ Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and ^b drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall ^c fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

CHAPTER 8

THUS hath the Lord GOD ^a shewed unto me: and ⁱ behold a basket of ^k summer fruit.

2 And he said, ⁱ Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, ^b The end is come upon my people of Israel; ^c I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And ^c the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be ^d many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth ^e with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make ^b the poor of the land to fail,

5 Saying, When will the ^a new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the ^f sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ^g ē^l-phāh small, and the ^h shē-kēl great, and ^k falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may ^m buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD ^b hath sworn by the ^q excellency of Jacob, Surely ^r I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and ^u it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that ^v I will

4 ¶ But the LORD ^asent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

5 Then ^cthe mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us ^bcast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an ^hHebrew; and ⁱI fear the LORD, the ^jGod of heaven, ^mwhich hath made the sea and the ⁿdry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous.

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and ^klay not upon us innocent blood: for ^lthou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men ^afeared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and ^cmade vows.

17 ¶ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And ^dJonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

CHAPTER 2

THEN Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly, heard me; ^aout of the belly of ²hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the sea; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and ^cthy waves passed over me.

4 Then I said, ^dI am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again ^etoward ^fthy holy temple.

5 The waters compassed me about, ^geven to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the ^hweeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou ⁱbrought up my life from ³corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When ^jmy soul fainted within me ^qI remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that observe lying ^rvanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will ^ssacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have ^tvowed. ^uSalvation is of the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

CHAPTER 3

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nin⁴-ē-vēh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto ^zNin⁴-ē-vēh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of ^bthree days' journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet ^cforty days, and Nin⁴-ē-vēh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So ^dthe people of Nin⁴-ē-vēh ^ebelieved God, and ^fproclaimed a fast, and put on ^gsackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nin⁴-ē-vēh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and ^asat in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nin-^ē-vêh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, ^alet them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 ^aWho can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and ^hGod repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

CHAPTER 4

BUT it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore ⁱI fled before unto ⁱTār-^śshish: for I knew that thou art a ^kgracious God, and ^kmerciful, ^mslow to anger, and of great kindness, and ⁿrepentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore now, O LORD, ⁱtake, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry?

5 ^bSo Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the ^cshadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a ²gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God ^fprepared a vehement ^aeast wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

11 And should not I spare ⁱNin-^ē-vêh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

down, and ^atread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be ^bmolten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? ^his it not Samaria? and what are the ^khigh places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as ^ban heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and ^dI will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the ^fgraven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the ^ghires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will wail and howl, ^hI will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the ^{2m}dragons, and mourning as the ³ⁿowls.

9 For her ^owound is incurable; for it is come unto Judah; he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

10 ¶ Declare ye it not at ^aGath, weep ye not at all: in ^bthe house of Aphrah ⁷ⁱroll thyself in the dust.

11 Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Sā-phīr, having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of Zā-ā-nān came not forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waited carefully for good: ^ubut evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.

13 O thou inhabitant of ^zLā-^{ch}ish, bind the chariot to the ^aswift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the ^bdaughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou give presents to ^aMō-rēsh-ēth-gath: the houses of ^aĀch-zib shall be ^alie to the kings of Israel.

15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of ^zMā-rē-shāh: he shall come unto ^aĀ-dūl-lām the glory of Israel.

16 ^hMake thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the ³eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

CHAPTER 2

WOE to them ⁿthat devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is ^ain the power of their hand.

2 And they ^ccovet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they ^coppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: ^hfor this time is evil.

4 ¶ In that day shall one ^ttake up a parable against you, and ⁱlament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! ^tturning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall ^bcast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 ^{6r}Prophesy ye not, ^ssay they to them that prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.

7 ¶ O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirit of the LORD ^{8w}straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to ^ahim that walketh uprightly?

8 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because ^cit is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man walking in ^athe spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be ^tthe prophet of this people.

12 ¶ I will surely ^kassemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the ⁱremnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of ^mBozrah, as the ^oflock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; ⁱIs it not for you to know judgment?

for hire, and the prophets thereof divine ^bfor money: ^cyet will they lean upon the LORD, ^dand say, Is not the LORD among us? ^enone evil can come upon us.

12 ^aTherefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and ^bJerusalem shall become ⁱheaps, and ^kthe mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

BUT in ⁿthe last days it shall come to pass, that ^othe mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and ^qpeople shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and ^slet us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the ^sGod of Jacob; and ^the will teach us of his ways, and ^uwe will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And ^zhe shall judge among many people, and ^brebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall ^cbeat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

4 But ^athey shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and ⁱnone shall make them afraid: for ^kthe mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For ^mall people will walk every one in the name of his god, and ^owe will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, ^rwill I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted ^ta remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and ^uthe LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

8 ¶ And thou, O ³²tower of the flock, the strong hold of the ^bdaughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? ^cis there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee ^das a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for ^enow shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall ⁱredeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ Now also ^kmany nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.

12 But ⁿthey know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for ^phe shall gather them as the sheaves into the ^qfloor.

13 ^rArise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will ²ⁱconsecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the ^uLord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5

NOW gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they ^yshall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 ^aBut thou, ^bBeth-lehem ^cĒphrā-tāh, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee ^fshall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, ⁴from everlasting.

3 ⁱTherefore will he give them up, ^kuntil the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the ^mremnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And ⁿhe shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now ^oshall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people ^oas a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

2 ^aHear ye, O mountains, the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for ^bthe LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

5 ¶ Yea also, because ⁴he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who ⁿenlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a ^pparable against him, and a ^qtaunting ^rproverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! ⁱhow long? and to him that ladeth himself with ⁹thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall ²bite thee, and awake that shall ³vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 ^{*}Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; ⁹because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 ¶ Woe to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he ^bmay set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and ^chast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 ¶ ^dWoe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves ^c for very vanity?

14 For ^d the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 ¶ Woe unto him ^e that giveth his neighbour drink, that ^f putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

16 Thou art filled with shame for glory: ^g drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, ^h because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 ¶ ⁱ What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb ^j idols?

19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But the LORD is in his ^k holy temple: ^l let all the earth keep silence before him.

A ^m PRAYER of Hă-bāk-kūk the prophet upon Shġ-î-ô'-nôth.

2 O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and ⁿ was afraid: O LORD, ^o revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

3 ^p God came from ^q Teman, and the Holy One from mount ^r Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Hāg'gāi the prophet, saying,

4 ^aIs it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houses, and ^bthis house lie waste?

5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^aConsider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and ^hbuild the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and ^kI will be glorified, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 2

IN the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet ^aHāg'gāi, saying,

2 Speak now to ^bZē-rūb'bā-bēl the son of Shē-āl-ti-ēl, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jōs'ē-dēch, the high priest, and to the ^cresidue of the people, saying,

3 ^dWho is left among you that saw this house ^ein her first glory? and how do ye see it now? ^fis it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?

4 Yet now ^gbe strong, O Zē-rūb'bā-bēl, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Jōs'ē-dēch, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for ^hI am with you, saith the LORD of hosts:

5 ⁱAccording to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so ^jmy spirit remaineth among you: ^kfear ye not.

6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^lYet once, it is ^ma little while, and ⁿI will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

7 And I will shake all nations, and the ^odesire of all nations ^pshall come: and ^qI will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.

8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 ^rThe glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give ^speace, saith the LORD of hosts.

10 ¶ In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of ^tDā-rī'ūs, came the word of the LORD by Hāg'gāi the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^uAsk now the priests concerning the law, saying, 12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said Hăg'-gâi, If one that is ^bunclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Hăg'-gâi, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, ^cconsider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: ^fwhen one came to the ^hpressfat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 I smote you with ⁱblasting and with mildew and with ^khail in all the labours of your hands; ^lyet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

IN the eighth month, in the second year of ^cDă-rī'ūs, came the word of the LORD unto ^dZēch'-ă-rī'āh, the son of Bēr-ē-chī'āh, the son of Īd'dō the prophet, saying,

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Dă-rī'ūs, came the word of the LORD unto Zēch'-ă-rī'āh, the son of Bēr-ē-chī'āh, the son of Īd'dō the prophet, saying,

8 ^lI saw by night, and behold ^ma man riding upon ⁿa red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white.

9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And ^bthe angel that talked 11 And they answered the ^bangel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, ^fall the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these ^kthreescore and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with ^ogood words and comfortable words.

CHAPTER 4

AND ^cthe angel that talked with me came again, and ^ewaked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep, 2 And said unto me, ^fWhat seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a ⁱcandlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his ^mseven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

3 And two ^oolive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto ^uZē-rūb'-bā-bēl, saying, ^xNot by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou, ^aO great mountain? before Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the ^bheadstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl ^dhave laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also ^efinish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts ^hhath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the ⁱday of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the ^kplummet in the hand of Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl with those ^mseven; they are the ⁿeyes of the LORD, which ^prun to and fro through the whole earth.

11 ¶ Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two ^solive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

14 Then said he, These are the two ^banointed ones, that stand by the ^cLord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5

THEN I turned, and ^alifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying ^froll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then said he unto me, This is ^kthe curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for ^levery one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall ⁿenter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that ^psweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

5 ¶ Then ^rthe angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ^éphāh that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of ^ulead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ^éphāh.

8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ^éphāh; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a ^vstork: and they lifted up the ^éphāh between the earth and the heaven.

2 In the first chariot were ^ered horses; and in the second chariot ^hblack horses;

3 And in the third chariot ⁱwhite horses; and in the fourth chariot grised and ^jbay horses.

4 Then I answered and said unto the ^mangel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four ^sspirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before ^othe Lord of all the earth.

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into ^qthe north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grised go forth toward the south country.

CHAPTER 7

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of king ^aDā-rī-ūs, that the word of the LORD came unto ^zZēch-ā-rī-āh in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in ^bChis-lēu;

2 When they had sent unto the house of God Shēr-ē-zēr and Rē-gēm-mēl-ēch, and their men, ^ato pray before the LORD,

3 And to speak unto the priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in ^fthe fifth month, ^aseparating myself, as I have done these so many years?

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and ^kseventh month, even those ^lseventy years, did ye at all ⁿfast unto me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

7 Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried by the ^qformer prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her,

Sin the cause of the captivity when men inhabited the ^asouth and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zēch-ā-rī-āh, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, ^dExecute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And ^goppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the ^hstranger, nor the ⁱpoor; and ^klet none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But ^lthey refused to hearken, and ⁿpulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they ^pmade their hearts as an adamant stone, ^qlest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent ²ⁱin his spirit by the former prophets: ^atherefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and ^aI would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:

14 But ^aI scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus ^cthe land was desolate after them, ^dthat no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

CHAPTER 8

AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I was ^hjealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and ⁱwill dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a ^mcity of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the ^oholy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There shall yet ^pold men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it be marvellous in the eyes of the ^bremnant of this people in these days, ^dshould it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will save my people ^ffrom the east country, and from the west country;

8 And ^hI will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and ⁱthey shall be my people, and I will be their God, ^min truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of ^bthe prophets, which were in the day that ^qthe foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For ^athe seed shall be prosperous; the ^vvine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their ^zdew; and I will cause the ^aremnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that ^cas ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ^eye shall be a blessing; ^ffear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^hAs I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I ^mrepented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 ¶ These are the things that ye shall do; ^bSpeak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; ^qexecute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

17 And ^alet none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no ^cfalse oath: for all these are things that ^eI hate, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,

19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The fast of the ^afourth month, and the fast of the ⁱfifth, and the fast of the ^kseventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful ⁿfeasts; therefore love the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities:

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily ^rto pray before the LORD, and ^sto seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also.

22 Yea, ^tmany people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold ^uout of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you.

CHAPTER 9

THE ^{2b}burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hā-drāch, and ^dDamascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.

2 And ^aHā-māth also shall border thereby; ⁱTyrus, and ^kZidon, ^tthough it be very wise.

3 And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and ⁿheaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite ^oher power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 ^rAsh-kē-lon shall see it, and fear; ^sGaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and ^aEkron; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And a ^cbastard shall dwell in ^dAshdod, and I will cut off the pride of the ^fPhilistines.

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his ^habominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a ²¹governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jēb⁴ū-sīte.

8 And ^mI will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no ⁿoppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶ Rejoice greatly, O ^adaughter of Zion; ^sshout, O daughter of Jerusalem: ^ubehold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is ^vjust, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ^zass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

10 And I will ^bcut off the chariot from E⁴phrā-im, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the ^dbattle bow shall be cut off: and ^fhe shall speak peace unto the heathen: and ⁿhis dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant ⁿI have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit ^owherein is no water.

12 ¶ Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that I will ^rrender double unto thee;

13 When I have bent Judah for me, filled ^athe bow with E⁴phrā-im, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O ^uGreece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his ^zarrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord GOD shall blow the ^btrumpet, and shall go with ^cwhirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall ^ddefend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they

CHAPTER 10

ASK ye of the LORD rain in the time of the ^olatter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and ^pgive them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

2 For the ^{3r}idols have spoken vanity, and the ⁱdiviners have seen a lie, and have told ^afalse dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was ^ano shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled ^cagainst the shepherds, and I punished the ^egoats: for the LORD of hosts hath ^gvisited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the ⁴ⁱcorner, out of him the ^knail, out of him the ⁱbattle bow, out of him every ^{5m}oppressor together.

5 ¶ And they shall be as mighty men, which ^ptread down their enemies in the ^qmire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will ⁱbring them again to place them; for I ^shave mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for ^vI am the LORD their God, and ^awill hear them.

7 And they of E⁴phrā-im shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 I will ^ehiss for them, and gather them; for I have ^aredeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased.

9 And I will ^dsow them among the people: and they shall ^fremember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

10 I will bring them again also ^hout of the land of Egypt, and gather them ^kout of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of ^mGil-^ē-^{ād} and Lebanon; and ⁿplace shall not be found for them.

11 And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up: and the ^bpride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the ^asceptre of Egypt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and ^rthey shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 11

OPEN thy doors, ^{*}O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy ^zcedars.

2 Howl, ^afir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye ^boaks of Bashan; for the ²forest of the vintage is come down.

3 ¶ There is a ^dvoice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the ^epride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God; ^fFeed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and ^ghold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for ⁱI am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For ^mI will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And ^{so}I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O ^ppoor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called ^bBeauty, and the other I called ^cBands; and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also ^eI cut off in one month; and ^gmy soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that ⁱthat dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest ^leat every one the flesh of another.

10 ¶ And I took my staff, even ^oBeauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they ^sweighed ^tfor my price ^uthirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was prized at of them. ^vAnd I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even ^cBands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still: but he shall ^heat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 Woe to the ^{3k}idol ^lshepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

CHAPTER 12

THE ⁴ⁿburden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, ^qwhich stretcheth forth the heavens, and ^rlayeth the foundation of the earth, and ^aformeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a ^acup of trembling ^aunto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: ^ball that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though ^call the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, ^kI will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider ^lwith madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the ^{2a}governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 ¶ In that day will I make the governors of Judah ^blike an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and ^cJerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall the LORD ^ddefend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, ^eas the angel of the LORD before them.

9 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And ²I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and ^athey shall look upon me whom they ^bhave pierced, and they shall mourn for him, ^cas one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, ^bas the mourning of Hā-dād-rim²mon in the valley of ^cMē-gid²don.

12 And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and ^ftheir wives apart; the family of the house of ^gNathan apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shīm²ē-i apart, and their wives apart;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

IN that day there shall be ^aa fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness.

2 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will ^ocut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the ^qprophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for ^sthou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a ^{3u}rough garment to deceive:

5 But he shall say, ^vI am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

CHAPTER 14

BEHOLD, the ^bday of the LORD cometh, and ^sthy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee:

2 For I will ^ugather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and ^xthe city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the ^ywomen ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that ^fthe light shall not be clear, nor dark:

7 But it shall be one day ^gwhich shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that ^hat evening time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that ⁱliving waters ^jshall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the ^kformer sea, and half of them toward the ^lhinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And ^athe LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be ^bone LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be turned as ^aa ^{2d}plain from ^cGeba to ^dṚimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be ^hlifted up, and inhabited in her place, from ⁱBenjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the ⁿcorner gate, and from the ⁿtower of Hān-ā-nēel unto the king's ^owinepresses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and ^qthere shall be no more ^{3r}utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall be ⁱsafely inhabited.

12 ^qAnd this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 ^qAnd it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem ^jshall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the ^hfeast of tabernacles.

17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them ^mshall be no rain.

18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

20 ¶ In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, "HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and see the therein: and in that day there shall be "no more the Cā'nā-ān-ite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

MALACHI

CHAPTER 1

THE ^{2c}burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

2 ^dI have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not ^eEsau / Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: ^fyet I loved Jacob,

3 And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas ^gEdom saith, We are unpoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation ^hfor ever.

5 And ⁱyour eyes shall see, and ye shall say, "The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel.

6 ¶ ^jA son honoureth ^khis father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O ^lpriests, that despise my name. And ^mye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

7 Ye offer ⁿpolluted bread upon mine ^oaltar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The ^ptable of the LORD is contemptible.

8 And ^qif ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he ^awill be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: ^bwill he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 ^cWho is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I ^daccept an ^eoffering at your hand.

11 For ^ffrom the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same ^gmy name shall be great among the Gentiles; ^hand in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 ¶ But ye have ⁱprofaned it, in that ^jye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, ^kBehold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for ^lI am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is ^mdreadful among the heathen.

CHAPTER 2

AND now, O ye ⁿpriests, this commandment is for you.

2 ^oIf ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, ^pi to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even ^asend a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and ^dspread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that ^fmy covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My covenant was with him of life and ^hpeace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he ⁱfear'd me, and was afraid before my name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he ^mwalked with me in peace and equity, and did ⁿturn many away from iniquity.

7 ^oFor the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should ^qseek the law ^sat his mouth: for he is the ^t'messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are ^u'departed out of the way; ^vye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore ^yhave I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ^z'ye have not kept my ways, but ^a'have been partial in the law.

10 ^b'Have we not all one father? hath not one God ^c'created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ^d'Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an ^e'abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath ^f'married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an ^g'offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the ^h'altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 ^d'Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because ^e'the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the ^f'wife of thy covenant.

15 And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a ^g'godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith that ^k'he hateth ^l'putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 ^m'Ye have ⁿ'wearied the LORD with your words. ^o'Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

CHAPTER 3

^a BEHOLD, ^aI will send my messenger, and ^bhe shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But ^c'who may abide ^d'the day of his coming? and ^e'who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:

3 And he shall sit ^f'as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and ^g'purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an ^h'offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, ⁱ'as in the days of old, and as in former years.

5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a ^j'swift witness against the ^a“sorcerers, and against the ^b“adulterers, and against ^c“false swearers, and against those that oppress ^d“the hireling in his wages, the ^e“widow, and the fatherless, and that ^f“turn aside the stranger from his right, and ^g“fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For ^h“I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob ⁱ“are not consumed.

7 ¶ Even ^j“from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and ^k“have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will ^l“return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. ^m“But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

8 ¶ Will a man rob God? Yet ye have ⁿ“robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? ^o“In tithes and ^p“offerings.

9 Ye are ^q“cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring ye all the ^r“tithes into the ^s“storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the ^t“windows of heaven, and ^u“pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke ^v“the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And ^w“all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a ^x“delight-some land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 ¶ Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and ^y“what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?

16 ¶ Then ^j“they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a ^k“book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MATTHEW

CHAPTER 1

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2^f Abraham begat ^s Isaac; and Isaac begat ^h Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And ⁱ Judas begat ^k Phâr'ēs and ⁱ Zara of ^m Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat ^ā min'ā-dāb; and ⁿ Aminadab begat ^ō Nā-ās'sōn; and Naasson begat ^p Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat ^q Bō'ōz of ^r Rā-chāb; and Booz begat ^t Obed of ^u Ruth; and Obed begat ^x Jesse;

6 And Jesse begat ^z David the king; and David the king begat ^a Solomon of her that had been the wife of U-rī'ās;

7 And Solomon begat ^c Rō-bō'ām; and Roboam begat ^e Ā-bī'ā; and Abia begat ^g Asa;

8 And Asa begat ⁱ Jōs'ā-phāt; and Josaphat begat ^k Joram; and Joram begat ^l Ō-zī'ās;

9 And Ō-zī'ās begat ^m Jō'ā-thām; and Joatham begat ⁿ Ā-chāz; and Achaz begat ^o Ēz-ē-kī'ās;

10 And Ēz-ē-kī'ās begat ^p Mā-nās-sēs; and Manasses begat ^q Amon; and Amon begat ^r Josias;

11 And Josias begat ^s Jēch-ō-nī'ās and his brethren, about the time they were ^t carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jēch-ō-nī'ās begat ^u Sā-lā-thī-ēl; and Salathiel begat ^x Zō-rōb-ā-bēl;

13 And Zō-rōb-ā-bēl begat ^ā bī'ūd; and Abiud begat ^c Ē-lī'ā-kīm; and Eliakim begat ^d Ā'zōr;

14 And Ā'zōr begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat ^e Ā'chīm; and Achim begat ^f Ē-lī'ūd;

15 And Ē-lī'ūd begat ^g Ēl-ē-ā'zār;

c. 7 B.C.

and Eleazar begat Māt'thān; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat ^b Joseph the husband of ^d Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called ^e Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was ^r espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child ^y of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then ^b Joseph her husband, being a ^d just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded ^f to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the ^h angel of the Lord appeared unto him ⁱ in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and ⁿ thou shalt call his name JESUS: for ^p he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, ^r that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 ^t Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER 2

NOW when Jesus was born in ^aBethlehem of Judæa ^bin the days of Herod the king, behold, there came ^cwise men ^dfrom the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born ^eKing of the Jews? for we have seen his ^fstar in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and ^gscribes of the people together, he ^hdemandeth of them where ⁱChrist should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 ^mAnd thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary ^jhis mother, and fell down, and ^kworshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, ^lthey presented unto him gifts; gold, and ⁿfrankincense, and ^omyrrh.

12 And being warned of God ^pin a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the ^qangel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying,

Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: ^rthat it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, ^sOut of Egypt have I called my son.

16 ¶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 ^tThen was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, 18 In Rama was there ^ua voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth ^vin a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for ^wthey are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archē-lā'ūs did reign in Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God ^xin a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called ^yNazareth: ^zthat it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

CHAPTER 3

IN those days came ^aJohn the Baptist, preaching in the ^bwilderness of Judæa,

2 And saying, ^aRepent ye: for ^athe kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For ^bthis is he that was spoken of by the prophet E-sai-as, saying, ^dThe voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same John had his ^eraiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was ⁱlocusts and wild ^khoney.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, ^bconfessing their sins.

7 ¶ But ^awhen he saw many of the ^rPharisees and ^sSadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O ^ugeneration of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the ^vwrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits ^ymeet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, ^aWe have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore ^devery tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 ¶ I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: ^hhe shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:

12 Whose ⁱfan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly ^kpurge his floor, and ^lgather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up ^mthe chaff with ⁿunquenchable fire.

13 ¶ Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 ^rBut John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, ^cthe heavens were opened unto him, and he saw ^ethe Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

17 And lo ^fa voice from heaven, saying, ^hThis is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAPTER 4

¹THEN was Jesus ^mled up of the spirit into the wilderness ⁿto be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted ^oforty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, ⁱIf thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, ^zMan shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil ^btaketh him up into the ^choly city, and setteth him on a ²pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, ^eHe shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, ^gThou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, ^bSatan: for it is written, ^qThou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, ^sangels came and ministered unto him.

12 ¶ Now when Jesus had heard that ^tJohn was cast into prison, he ^udeparted into Galilee;

CHAPTER 5

13 And leaving ^aNazareth, he came and dwelt in ^bCă-pěr-nă-um, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Ză-bū-lon and Nēph-thă-lim:

14 ^dThat it might be fulfilled which was spoken by ^eE-sai-as the prophet, saying,

15 ^fThe land of Ză-bū-lon, and the land of Nēph-thă-lim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles;

16 ^hThe people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

17 ^jFrom that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, ^kRepent: for ^lthe kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 ^mAnd Jesus, walking by ⁿthe sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, ^oSimon called Peter, and ^pAndrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, ^qFollow me, and I will make you ^rfishers of men.

20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, ^sJames the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 ^tAnd Jesus went about all Galilee, ^uteaching in their synagogues, and ^vpreaching the gospel of the kingdom, and ^whealing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all ^xSyria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were ^ylunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 ^zAnd there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from ^{aa}Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judæa, and from beyond Jordan.

AND seeing the multitudes, he ^awent up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 ^cAnd he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the ^epoor in spirit: for ^htheir's is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are ⁱthey that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the ^lmeek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst ⁿafter righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the ^qmerciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the ^upure in heart: for they shall ^ysee God.

9 Blessed are the ^zpeacemakers: for they shall be called the ^achildren of God.

10 Blessed are they which are ^dpersecuted for righteousness' sake: for ^etheir's is the kingdom of heaven.

11 ^fBlessed are ye, ^gwhen men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 ^hRejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is ⁱyour reward in heaven: for ^kso persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ^jYe are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 ^lYe are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 ^mNeither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, ⁿthat they may see your good works, and ^oglorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 ^pThink not that I am come to destroy ^zthe law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but ^ato fulfil.

18 ^bFor verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall ^ain no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break ^bone of these ^cleast commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever ^dshall do and teach them, the same shall be called ^egreat in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your ⁱrighteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye ^kshall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, ^mThou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But ^oI say unto you, That ^pwhosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, ^qRā-cā, shall be in danger of the ^rcouncil: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of ^shell fire.

23 Therefore ^tif thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 ^uAgree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, ^vThou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, ^wThou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That ^xwhosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

TAKE heed that ye do not your ³ alms before men, ² to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

7 But when ye pray, ⁱ use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

for ^c your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 ^d After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father ^f which art in heaven, ^g Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. ⁱ Thy will be done in earth, ^k as it is in heaven.

11 ^m Give us this day our ⁿ daily bread.

12 And ^p forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And ^q lead us not into temptation, but ^r deliver us from ² evil: For ^s thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 ^t For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 ^u But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover ^v when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, ^w anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where ^x moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves ^y break through and steal: ^z eat away

20 ^a But ^f lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 ^h The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But ^k if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ ^m No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold

[15 Sunday of the Trinity] to the one, and despise the other.

^aYe cannot serve God and mammon.

25 ^bTherefore I say unto you, ^cTake no thought for your life, ^dwhat ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet ^eyour heavenly Father feedeth them. ^fAre ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his ^gstature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the ^hlilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even ⁱSolomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, ^jO ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for ^kyour heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But ^lseek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and ^mall these things shall be added unto you.

34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAPTER 7

ⁿJUDGE not, that ye be not judged.

2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and ^owith what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou ^ghypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 ¶ ^hGive not that which is holy unto the ⁱdogs, neither cast ye your ^jpearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 ¶ ^kAsk, ^land it shall be given you; ^mseek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore ⁿall things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for ^othis is the law and the prophets.

13 ¶ ^pEnter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is ^qthe way, which leadeth unto life, and ^rfew there be that find it.

15 ¶ Beware of ^sfalse prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ^travelling wolves.

16 ^uYe shall know them by their fruits. ^vDo men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 ^wEvery tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 ¶ Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 ¶ Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

leper WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ And when Jesus was entered into Că-pěr-nă-um, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee.

And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

14 ¶ And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by E-sai-as the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

Two who would follow Christ, two possessed whose evil spirits are dressed into swine Christ stilleth the tempest.

ST. MATTHEW 9

18 ¶ Now ^awhen Jesus saw great multitudes about him, ^bhe gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 ^cAnd a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master; I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The ^dfoxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the ^eSon of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, ^fsuffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, ^gsave us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, ^hO ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 ¶ And when he was come to the other side into the country of the ⁱGēr-gē-sēnes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, ^jWhat have we to do with thee, Jesus, ^kthou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us ^lbefore the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many ^mswine feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

CHAPTER 9

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into ¹his own city.

2 ²And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus ³seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; ⁴thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, ⁵This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus ⁶knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the ⁷Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) ⁸Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and ⁹glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named ¹⁰Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, ¹¹Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ And it came to pass, as Jesus ¹²sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And ¹³when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

ST. MATTHEW 10

13 But go ye and learn ^a what that meaneth, ^b I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, ^d but sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of ^f John, saying, Why do we and the ^g Pharisees ^h fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the ⁱ children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the ^k bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and ^m then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old ^{2a} bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶ While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and ^s worshipped him, saying, My daughter is ^t even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶ And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an ² issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched ^b the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; ^g thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the ^{3h} minstrels and the people making a noise, 24 He said unto them, Give place: for ^k the maid is not dead, but sleeping. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But ^l when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and ^m the maid arose.

Christ raiseth Jairus' daughter

26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 ¶ And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou ^e son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, ⁱ According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, ⁿ See that no man know it.

31 ^o But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with ^a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, ^u teaching in their synagogues, and ^v preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and ^w healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 ¶ But when he saw the multitudes, he was ^e moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, ^d as sheep having no shepherd.

38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, ^a Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Al-phæ-us, and Lēb-bæ-us, whose surname was Thād-dæ-us;

4 Simon the ²Cā-nā-ān-ite, and Judas Iscariot, ^e who also betrayed him.

5 ^f These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, ^h Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the ⁱ Samaritans enter ye not.

6 But ^k go rather to the ^l lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 And as ye go, ^o preach, saying, ^p The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, ^e shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, ^f It shall be more tolerable for the land of ⁱ Sodom and Gō-mōr-rhā in the ^k day of judgment, than for that city.

16 ¶ Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise ⁿ as serpents, and ^p harmless as doves.

17 ^q But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the ^s councils, and ^t they will scourge you in their synagogues;

18 And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, ^b for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.

19 But when they deliver you up, ^c take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 For it is not ye that speak, ^d but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

21 ^e And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 And ^f ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake; but ^g he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

23 But when they ^h persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the ⁱ Son of man ^j be come.

24 ^k The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. ^l If they have called the master of the house ^m Bē-ēl-zē-būb, how much more shall they call them of his household?

26 Fear them not therefore: for ⁿ there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

27 ^o What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.

28 And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him ^p which is able to destroy both soul and body in ^q hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without ^r your Father.

also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But ^awhosoever shall deny me before men, ^bhim will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 ^aThink not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

36 ^aAnd a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 ^aHe that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

38 ^bAnd he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me is not worthy of me.

39 He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

40 ^aHe that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's ^areward.

42 ^aAnd whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

CHAPTER 11

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

T 2 ^aNow when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou ^ahe that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

Concerning John the Baptist

5 The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have ^athe gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

7 ^aAnd as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? ^ayea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he, of whom ^ait is written, ^bBehold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding ^mhe that is ²least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 ^aAnd from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For all ^bthe prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is ^aE-li'as, which was for to come.

15 ^aHe that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 ^aBut whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The ^aSon of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a ^afriend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her ^achildren.

20 ¶ Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 ^aWoe unto thee, Chō-rā-zin! woe unto thee, Bēth-sā-i-dā! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in ^dTyre and ^fSidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ^aashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the ⁱday of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, Cā-pēr-nā-ūm, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to ²hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be ^bmore tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 ¶ At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, ⁱLord of heaven and earth, because thou hast ^uhid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast ^arevealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 ^aAll things are delivered unto me of my Father: and ^bno man knoweth the Son, but the Father; ^cneither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son ^ewill reveal him.

ciples do that which is ^anot lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read ^bwhat David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the ^ashewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but ^bonly for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the law, ^khow that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is ^mone greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known ⁿwhat this meaneth, ^aI will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the ^aSon of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

9 ^aAnd when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 ¶ And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, ^aIs it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, ^aWhat man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 ^aHow much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then the Pharisees went out, and ⁱheld a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew it, he ⁿwithdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And ^bcharged them that they should not make him known:

17 ^aThat it might be fulfilled which was spoken by E-sai-as the prophet, saying,

18 ^aBehold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 ^e And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ ^g Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the ⁱ son of David?

24 But ^k when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Bē-ēl-zē-būb the prince of the devils.

25 ^m And Jesus ⁿ knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Bē-ēl-zē-būb cast out devils, ^t by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils ^u by the Spirit of God, then ^v the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind ^w the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 ^c He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

31 ¶ ^e Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy ^g against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speak-

33 ^b Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O ^c generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for ^d out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 ^f A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the ^h day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ ⁱ Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, ^o we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and ^h adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet ^q Jonas:

40 For as Jonas was ^r three days and three nights in the whale's belly; ^s so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 ^{*} The men of Nīn-ē-vēh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they ^z repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, ^a a greater than Jonas is here.

42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for ^d she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of ^f Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

43 ^h When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and ^b the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

46 ¶ ^d While he yet talked to the people, behold, his ^e mother and his ^g brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

50 For whosoever ^k shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

ⁱ THE same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea side.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he ⁿ went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And ^r when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and ^s the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some ^t an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 ^a Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given ^c unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 ^f For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And ^h in them is fulfilled the prophecy of E-sai-as, which saith, ⁱ By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 ^m But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, That ^o many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ ^p Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth ^q the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by ^u he ² is offended.

22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and ^d the care of this world, and ^e the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, * Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ ^v Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a ^u grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and ^d lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ ^e Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was ^b leavened.

34 ^c All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 ^f That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, ^g I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter ^h things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, ⁱ Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the ^k Son of man;

38 The field is the world; the good seed are the ^l children of the kingdom; but the tares are the ^m children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the ³ⁿ end of the world; and the reapers are the ^o angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man ^p shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom ^q all things that offend, and ^r them which do iniquity;

42 And shall cast them into a ^s furnace of fire: there shall be ^t wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 ^u Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto ^z treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath ^a found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly ^c pearls:

46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is ^alike unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and ^cgathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the ^{2f}end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth ^bout of his treasure things ⁱnew and old.

53 ¶ ^kAnd it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 And when he was come into his own country, ⁱhe taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that ^mthey were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 Is not this the carpenter's son? is not ^phis mother called Mary? and ^qhis brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they were ^aoffended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And he did not many mighty works there ⁱbecause of their unbelief.

in prison for Hē-rō⁴dī-ās' sake, ^bhis brother Philip's wife.

4 For John said unto him, ^dIt is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he ^efeared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's ^abirthday was kept, the daughter of Hē-rō⁴dī-ās danced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And ⁿhis disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 ¶ ^oWhen Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and ^rwas moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; ^ugive ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and ^alooking up to heaven, ^dhe blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about ^cfive thousand men, beside women and children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus ^econstrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart ^kto pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the ^mfourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, ^athey were troubled, saying, It is a ³spirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; ^rbe not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was ^scome down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, ⁹Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, ^oO thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and ^bworshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the ^cSon of God.

34 ¶ And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gēnēs'ā-rēt.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out

CHAPTER 15

¶ THEN came to Jesus scribes and ^gPharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgress the ^htradition of the elders? for ^rthey wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God ⁱby your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, ⁿHonour thy father and mother: and, ^oHe that curseth father or mother, let him ²die the death.

5 But ye say, ^pWhosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye ^shypocrites, ^rwell did E-sā-l'ās prophesy of you, saying,

8 ^uThis people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 ¶ And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 ^aNot that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, ^eEvery plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, ^fshall be rooted up.

The people's opinion of Christ

19 And I will give unto thee ^a the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and ^b whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then charged he his disciples that they should ^c tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 ¶ From that time forth began Jesus ^d to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, ^e Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou ^f savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, ^g if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 ^h For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and ⁱ then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily I say unto you, ^j There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, ^k till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

CHAPTER 17

^a AND after six days Jesus ^f taketh A Peter, James, and John his brother, and ^b bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,

2 And was ^c transfigured before them: and ^d his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and E-li'ās talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for E-li'ās.

5 While he yet spake, behold, a ^a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold ^f a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they ^h fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and ^h be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 ^m And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, ⁿ Tell the vision to no man, until the ^o Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that ^r E-li'ās must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, E-li'ās truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, That E-li'ās is come already, and they knew him not, but ^s have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 ¶ And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is ^t lunatick, and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O ^y faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 ^a And Jesus said unto them, ^b Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, ^c If ye have faith as ^d a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and ^e nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 ¶ And while they abode in Galilee, ^f Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 ¶ And when they were come to ^g Că-pěr'nă-üm, they that received ^h tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAPTER 18

^a AT the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and ^b become as little children, ye ^c shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

ST. MATTHEW 18

Christ teacheth to avoid offences

4^a Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, ^b the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5^d And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

6^f But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a ^h mill-stone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7^g Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but ⁱ woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8^j Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into ^o everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven ^s their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 ^u For ^{*} the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12^v How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be ^z gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so ^b it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15^g Moreover ^c if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast ^d gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in ^e the mouth of two or three wit-

18 Verily I say unto you, ^g Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching ^k any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together ^m in my name, ⁿ there am I in the midst of them.

21^g Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? ^p till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until ^{3a} seventy times seven.

23^g Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would ^t take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand ^u talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord ^a commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down; and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred ⁵ pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying,

Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O ^bthou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wrath, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should ^dpay all that was due unto him.

35 ^aSo likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

CHAPTER 19

^aAND it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came ⁱinto the coasts of Judæa beyond Jordan;

2 And great multitudes followed him; and ⁱhe healed them there.

3 ¶ The ^mPharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them ^smale and female,

5 And said, ⁱFor this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. ^aWhat therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

9 And ^aI say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and who-so marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 ¶ His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they ^cto whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. ^fHe that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ ^gThen were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for ^kof such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man ^dshall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but ^ewith God all things are possible.

27 ¶ Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, ^fwe have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye which have followed me, in the ^gregeneration when the ^hSon of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, ⁱjudging the ^jtwelve tribes of Israel.

29 And ^kevery one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an ^lhundredfold, and shall ^minherit everlasting life.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his ^asteward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house, 12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and ^bheat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, ^cFriend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

14 Take ^dthat thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to 20 ¶ ^a Then came to him ^b the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, ^c worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may ^d sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, ^e Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of ^h the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, ⁱ Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is ^j prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 ⁿ But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles ²⁰ exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but ^p whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister;

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

AND when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Beth'phā-gē, unto the ^s mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

4 All this was done, ^k that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 ^m Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

^a My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ^b ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he ^c healed them.

15 ^e And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, ^g Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 ¶ And he left them, and ^h went out of the city into ⁱ Bethany; and he lodged there.

18 ^k Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and ^l found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, ^q If ye have faith, and ^r doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

22 And all things, ^u whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 ¶ ^z And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things?
 and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; ^d we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 ¶ But what think ye? ^f A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not:
 but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ^m the publicans and the harlots ⁿ go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For John came unto you ^o in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but ^p the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 ¶ ^q Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which ^r planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a ^u winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and ^s went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and ^b stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves,

^aThis is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They say unto him, He will ^amiserably destroy those wicked men, and will ^flet out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, ^aThe stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, ⁱThe kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but ^mon whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

AND Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 ^vThe kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made ^aa marriage for his son,

3 And ^asent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: ^dmy oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and ^bentreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and ^cdestroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were ^dnot worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, ^hboth bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on ^ka wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, ⁱFriend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and ⁿcast him into outer darkness; ^othere shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 For many are ^pcalled, but few are chosen.

15 ¶ ^qThen went the ^rPharisees, and took counsel ^show they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him ^ttheir disciples with the ^uHē-rō-dī-āns, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest ^xthe way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto ^bCæsar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye ^chypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny.

therefore unto Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they ^b marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ The same day came to him the ^c Sadducees, ^f which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, ^h Moses said, ⁱ If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, ^b not knowing the scriptures, nor ^a the power of God.

30 For ^s in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 ^b I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were ^d astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ ^g But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was ^k a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jesus said unto him, ^m Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

The first and great commandment

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, ^a Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 ^c On these two commandments hang all ^d the law and the prophets.

41 ¶ ^g While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of ^{2k} Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The ^l son of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 ^m The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If David then call him Lord, ⁿ how is he his son?

46 ^o And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

CHAPTER 23

^r THEN spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, The scribes and ^u the Pharisees sit in ^u Moses' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever ^x they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for ^y they say, and do not.

4 ^z For they bind ^a heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But ^c all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their ^e phylacteries, and enlarge ^f the borders of their garments,

6 ^h And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and ⁱ the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 But ^l be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

^g AND Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, ^k There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the ^m mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, ⁿ Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be ^o the sign of thy coming, and of ^{2a} the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, ^r Take heed that no man deceive you.

7 For ^z nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be ^b famines, and ^c pestilences, and ^d earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of ^{3f} sorrows.

9 ^h Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ⁱ ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

15 When ye therefore shall see ^e the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the ^j elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

tion of those days shall the ^asun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30 And then shall ^aappear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall ^fsee the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 And he shall ^hsend his angels with a great sound of a ⁱtrumpet, and they shall gather together ^khis elect from the ⁱfour winds, ^mfrom one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is ^oyet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that ³it is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, ^gThis generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 ^rHeaven and earth shall pass away, but ^tmy words shall not pass away.

36 ¶ But of that day and hour ^yknoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, ^zbut my Father only.

37 ^aBut as the days of ^bNōē were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the ^aflood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until ^ethe day that Nōē entered into the ark, 39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 ^gThen shall ^htwo be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 ^kTwo women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ¶ ^mWatch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 ⁿBut know this, that if the good-man of the house had known in what ^owatch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be ^{2b}broken up.

44 Therefore be ye also ^cready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

45 Who then is a ^efaithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46 ^gBlessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, That ^hhe shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, ⁿMy lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow-servants, and to ^peat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

51 And shall ^qcut him asunder, and appoint him ^shis portion with the ^rhypocrites: ^xthere shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their ⁵lamps, and went forth to meet the ^cbridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all ^fslumbered and slept.

6 And at ⁱmidnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and ^jtrimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

ST. MATTHEW 25

The parable of the talents

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and ^athey that were ready went in with him to ^bthe marriage: and ^cthe door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, ^dLord, Lord, open to us.

12 But ^ehe answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 ^fWatch therefore, for ^gye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 ^hFor the kingdom of heaven is as a man ⁱtravelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; ^jto every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and ^kreckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliverest unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and ^lfaithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, ^mI will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliverest unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, ^c and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let ^e this cup pass from me: nevertheless ^f not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 ^h Watch and pray, ^k that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, ^o thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for ^a their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed ^s the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, ^y the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ ^g And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall ^a kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, ^h Friend, ⁱ wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And, behold, ^m one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his ^p sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for ^aall they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he ^cshall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But ^ehow then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? ⁱI sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that ^kthe scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶ ^mAnd they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Cai'â-phās the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 ⁿBut Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the ^ocouncil, sought ^pfalse witness against Jesus, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came ^rtwo false witnesses, 61 And said, This fellow said, ^sI am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

63 But ^tJesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I ^uadjure thee by ^vthe living God, that thou tell us whether thou be ^wthe Christ, the ^xSon of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man ^ysitting on the right hand of power, and ^zcoming in the clouds of heaven.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, ^bHe is guilty of death.

67 ^cThen did they ^espit in his face, and buffeted him; and others ^fsmote him with the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

69 ¶ ^gNow Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus ^hof Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, ⁱBefore the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAPTER 27

¹WHEN the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death:

2 ^aAnd when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius ^bPilate the governor.

3 ¶ Then ^cJudas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the ^dthirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and ^ehanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the ^atreasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The ^afield of blood, unto this day.

9 ^aThen was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, ^aAnd they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 ^aAnd Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou ^athe King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, ^ahe answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate unto him, ^aHearst thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 ^aNow at ^athat feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that ^afor envy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set down on the ^ajudgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that ^bjust man: for I have suffered many things this day in ^aa dream because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ^aask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? ^bThey all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and ^fwashed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, ^hHis blood be on us, and on our children.

26 ¶ Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had ^kscourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 ^mThen the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the ⁿcommon hall, and gathered unto him the whole ^{2p}band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a ^qscarlet robe.

29 ¶ And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And they ^aspit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32 ^aAnd as they came out, they found a man of ^yCy-rē-nē, Simon by name: him they ^{3a}compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Göl-gō-thā, that is to say, a place of a skull, 34 ¶ They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and ^fparted his garments, casting lots:

²that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they ^acast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And they that passed by reviled him, ^owagging their heads,

40 And saying, ^sThou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. ^bIf thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be ^othe King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 ^bHe trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 ^aThe thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was ^sdarkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, ^tsaying, Eli, Eli, lä-mä sä-bäch-thä-ni? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for ^sĒ-lī-ās.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Ē-lī-ās will come to save him.

50 ¶ Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And, behold, ^athe veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and ^bthe earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into ^bthe holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 ^cNow when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, ^dTruly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there beholding afar off, ^fwhich followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him:

56 Among which was ⁱMary Magdalene, and ^kMary the mother of James and Joses, and ^lthe mother of Zebedee's children.

57 ^mWhen the even was come, there came ⁿa rich man of Ār-īm-ā-thā-ā, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had ^rhewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of ^uthe preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver ^vsaid, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, ^zlest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have ^ca watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, ^a sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

3 ^k His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment ⁱ white as snow:

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, ^m Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he is risen, ⁿ as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he ^p goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

The office of John the Baptist

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell ^b my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ Now when they were going, behold, some of ^d the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, ⁱ His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 ¶ Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.

17 And ^e when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, ^q All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19 ¶ ^r Go ye therefore, and ^s teach all nations, ^t baptizing them in ^u the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judæa, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, ^g confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat ^b locusts and wild honey; day he entered into the synagogue, and ^a taught.

22 And they were ^c astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone; ^e what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? ^h I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit ^k had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, inso-much that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what ⁿ new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 ^s And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and ^s Andrew, with ^s James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 ^u And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

ST. MARK 2

36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

40 ^b And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

45 ^d But ^e he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAPTER 2

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he ⁱ preached the word unto them.

3 ^k And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? ^a who can forgive sins but God only?

8 And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and ^c glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 ^f And as he passed by, he saw ^g Levi the son of Al-phæ'ūs sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

CHAPTER 4

^b AND he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that ^d he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, ^k He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto ^l them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 ⁿ That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 ^o And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 ¶ The sower soweth the word.
15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, 19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 ^g For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: ^h with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 For ⁱ he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 ^c And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 And the same day, when the even was come, ^d he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 ^e And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

CHAPTER 5

^k AND they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gādā-rēneš.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

ST. MARK 5

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the ^amost high God? I ^dadjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and ^atell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in ^bDecapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 ^eAnd, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jā-i-rūs by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the ^fpoint of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment.

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them. Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Tāl-i-thā cū'mī; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And ^k he charged them straitly that no man ^m should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAPTER 6

^a AND he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him ^r were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 ^a Is not this the carpenter, the ^b son of Mary, the brother of ^c James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And he ^e could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And he ^f marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching.

7 ^g And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, ^h save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse:

9 But be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet ⁱ for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gō-mōr-rhā in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached ^j that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, and ⁿ anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 ^o And king ^p Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 Others said, That it is E-lī-ās. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Hē-rō-dī-ās' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Hē-rō-dī-ās had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Herod ^bfeared John, knowing that he was a ^cjust man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he ²did many things, and ^cheard him gladly.

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday ^fmade a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Hē-rō-dī-ās came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, ^gunto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

34 ^d And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ^hranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 ^j And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bêth-sâ'i-dâ, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the ^afourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For ^cthey considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

53 ^dAnd when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gën-nêš-â-rêt, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, 55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

CHAPTER 7

^aTHEN came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, ^bwhich came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands ²oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brassen vessels, and of tables.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath E-sâi-âs prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, ^bThis people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ^cye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, ^fHonour thy father and thy mother; and, ^gWhoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, ^ha gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 ^jAnd when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand:

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he was ^a entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the ² draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an ^g evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ ⁱ And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of ^k Tyre and ^l Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a ³ Greek, a Sÿrō-phē-nīc⁴-i-ān by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the ^m dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ ⁿ And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of ^o Decapolis.

CHAPTER 8

^h IN those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of ^a Dāl-mā-nū-thā.

11 ^b And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he ^c sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 ^d And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of ^e the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bēth-sā-i-dā; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he ^k took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had ^l spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, ^c nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ ^d And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cæsarea Phil⁴pi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, E-li⁵as; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 ^h And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ ⁱ And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

CHAPTER 9

AND he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ ^cAnd after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding ^dwhite as snow; so as no ^efuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them E-li'ās with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for E-li'ās.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 ¶ And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that E-li'ās must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, E-li'ās verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, That E-li'ās is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ ^bAnd when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

18 And whosoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22 And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, ^eall things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

28 And ^ewhen he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ ^hAnd they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But ⁱthey understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ ^mAnd he came to Că-pēr-nā-ūm: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, 37 ^rWhosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ ^tAnd John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils ^uin thy name, and he followeth not us: and ^vwe forbid him, because he followeth not us.

CHAPTER 10

AND he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judæa by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 ^yAnd they said, Moses suffered to 5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

7 ^b For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ^f And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and ^a give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ^g And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them ^d that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 ^g Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, 30 But he shall receive an hundred-fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 ^h But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 ^g And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

35 ¶ ^aAnd ^eJames and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with ^fthe baptism that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 ⁱBut Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ ^aAnd they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bār-ti-mā'ūs, the son of Tī-mā'ūs, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou ^bson of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

CHAPTER 11

^gAND when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bēth-phā-gē and Bethany, at the ^hmount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway ²he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; ^a Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10 Blessed be ²the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.

11 ^b And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto ^d Bethany with the twelve.

12 ¶ ^f And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ ^h And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, ⁱ My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was ^k astonished at his doctrine.

CHAPTER 12

A.D. 33

AND he began to speak unto them ^aby parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the ^bwinefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they ^ccast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be our's.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture; ^eThe stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the ^hHērōdī-āns, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cæsar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cæsar's.

17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, ^dIf a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, ²how in ^gthe bush God spake unto him, saying, ⁱI am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 ¶ ^a And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, ^e Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And ^g thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, ^h Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and ^k there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, ^l is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. ^o And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 ¶ ^q And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the ^r son of David?

36 For David himself said ^s by the Holy Ghost, 'The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people ^u heard him gladly.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two ^f mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

10 And the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost.

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ^aye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶ But when ye shall see the ^babomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judæa flee to the mountains:

15 ^cAnd let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be affliction, ^fsuch as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 ¶ But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

32 ¶ But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, ^dbut the Father.

33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Son of man is as a man ^etaking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

3 ¶ ^a And being in ^b Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an ²alabaster box of ointment of ^{3c} spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

12 ¶ ⁱ And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the pass-over?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the ^dpassover.

17 ^e And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ ^f And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ ^h And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 ^a And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed ^b that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, ^c Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ^f And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.

46 ^g And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And they all forsook him, and fled.

b Jno. 12. 27

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ^h And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

e Mt. 26. 59, 61, Acts 6. 11, 13

55 And the chief priests and all the council sought for ⁱ witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to ^b spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilæan, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

CHAPTER 15

AND straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 ^a And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.

4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6^a Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16^d And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called ^e Præ-tôr-î-ûm; and they call together the whole ²band.

17 And they clothed him with ^e purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did ⁱ spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him,

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with ^d myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, ^h And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days,

30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, E^llō-ī, Eloi, lā⁴mā sā-bāch⁴thā-nī? which is, being interpreted, ⁱ My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

39 ¶ And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and ^e Salome;

41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.

42 ¶ And now when the even was come, because it was the ^g preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

43 Joseph of Ar⁴-im-ā-thā⁴-ā, an ⁱ honourable counsellor, which also ^k waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

2 And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, ^khe appeared first to Mary Magdalene, ^lout of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And ^oshe went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, ^rbelieved not.

The preface of Luke to his whole gospel

12 ¶ After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward ^bhe appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, ^cGo ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16 ^dHe that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; ^eIn my name shall they cast out devils; ^fthey shall speak with new tongues;

18 ^gThey shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall ^hlay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 ¶ So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he ^mwas received up into heaven, and ⁿsat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and ^ppreached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word ^qwith signs following. Amen.

things from the very first, to write unto thee ^ain order, ^bmost excellent

^cThē-ōph-ē-lūs,

4 ^dThat thou mightest know the ^ecertainty of those things, wherein thou hast been ^finstructed.

5 ¶ THERE was in the days of ^hHerod, the king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zāch-ā-rī-ās, of the course of ⁱĀ-bī-ā: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 And they were both ^arighteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord ^cblameless.

7 And ^dthey had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was ^eto burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying ^gwithout at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an ^hangel of the Lord standing on the right side of ⁱthe altar of incense.

12 And when Zäch-ä-rî'äs saw him, he was troubled, and ^kfear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, ^m"Fear not, Zäch-ä-rî'äs: for ⁿthy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and ^othou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and ^pshall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and ^qhe shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even ^afrom his mother's womb.

16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And ^bhe shall go before him in the spirit and power of E-lî'äs, ^cto turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zäch-ä-rî'äs said unto the angel, ^fWhereby shall I know this? for ^hI am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am ^kGabriel, ⁱthat stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, ⁿthou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, ^buntil the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zäch-ä-rî'äs, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, ^fas soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, ⁱto take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named ^bNazareth, 27 To a virgin ^cespoused to a man whose name was ^dJoseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was ^eMary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art ^hhighly favoured, ⁱthe Lord is with thee: (^{2z}blessed art thou among women.)

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast ^dfound favour with God.

31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and ^eshalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the ^gSon of the Highest: and the Lord God ⁱshall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob ^mfor ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the ⁱinn.

8 And there were in the same country ^lshepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the ⁿangel of the Lord came upon them, and ^othe glory of the Lord shone round about them: and ^pthey were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, ^rFear not: for, behold, I bring you ^sgood tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David ^aa Saviour, which is ^zChrist the Lord.

12 And this shall be a ^bsign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and ^csaying, 14 ^gGlory to God in the highest, and on earth ^{2h}peace, good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary ^a kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, ^d glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 And when ^e eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, ^g his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when ^h the days of her purification according to ⁱ the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was ^l just and devout, ^m waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the ⁿ Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was ^o revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should ^p not see death, before he had seen ^q the Lord's Christ.

27 And ^r he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

3 And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the ^vremission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Ē-sāi-ās the prophet, saying, ^aThe voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have ^gAbraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

30 But he ^k passing through the midst of them went his way,

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

40 ¶ Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the ^fSon of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 ^g And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

^k AND it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gën-nēs-ā-rêt,

2 ^l And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were ^mwashing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, ^p Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

The miraculous draught of fishes

5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, ^a we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, ^c they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship; that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, ^d Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also ^e James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 ⁿ But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and ^o prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and ^a doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judæa, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ ^b And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down ^c through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? ^d Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, ^f glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were ^g filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ ^h And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 ¶ And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is ⁱ better.

CHAPTER 6

^e AND it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the ⁱ shew-bread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 ^a And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But ^c he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 ⁱ And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain ^k to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,

15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Al-phæ-ūs, and Simon called Zē-lō-tēs, 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judæa and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

Christ chooseth the twelve apostles

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ ^b And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for your's is the kingdom of God.

21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed are ye, when men shall ^d hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 ^e Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, ^f your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 But ^g woe unto you that are rich! for ^h ye have received your consolation.

25 Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the ⁱ false prophets.

27 ¶ ^m But I say unto you which hear, ⁿ Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, 28 ^o Bless them that curse you, and ^p pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 ^q And unto him that ^r smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 ^s And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 And ^u if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the ^c children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

36 ^d Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 ^e Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

38 ^g Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For ^h with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them, Can ^k the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 ⁱ The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.

41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

43 ^m For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.

45 ⁿ A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER 7

ⁱ NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Că-pěr² nă-üm.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found ^a the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nāzin; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, ^b the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, ^c Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, ^e Arise.

15 And ^f he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he ^g delivered him to his mother.

16 And ^h there came a fear on all: and they ⁱ glorified God, saying, That ^j a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That ^m God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judæa, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ^b And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard;

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, ^a Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the ^k publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 ⁿ But the Pharisees and lawyers ^o rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And ^bhe went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, 38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and ^ganointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was ⁿa certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath ^pwashed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 ^aThou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

CHAPTER 8

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, ^fpreaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And ^hcertain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, ⁱout of whom went seven devils,

3 And ^kJoanna the wife of Chû-ză ^lHerod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ ^mAnd when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, ^oHe that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 ¶ Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶^b No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17^d For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

19 ¶^f Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶^g Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them,

^h Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶^a And they arrived at the country of the Gād'ā-rēneš, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God^c most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gād-ä-rēneš round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ ^c And, behold, there came a man named Jā-i'z-rūs, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one ^d only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanch'd.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; ⁱ go in peace.

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, ^a Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, ^b arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAPTER 9

^e THEN he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And ^f he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, ^g neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet ^h for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ ⁱ Now ^k Herod the tē-trārch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that E-li-ās had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ ^a And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bēth-sā'i-dā.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 ¶ ^g And it came to pass, as he was alone ^h praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, E-li'ās; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, ^k The Christ of God.

21 ^l And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ ^b And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 ^c For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ ^d And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and E-li'ās:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him ^e were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they ^f saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for E-li'ās: ⁱ not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared ^m as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, 48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbid him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as E-li-ās did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

2 ^bTherefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 ^aGo your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, ^hPeace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the ⁱlabourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you,

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 ⁿBut I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 Woe unto thee, Chō-rā-zin! woe unto thee, Bēth-sā-i-dā! for if the mighty works had been done in ^qTyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.

15 And thou, Cā-pēr-nā-ūm, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 ^uHe that heareth you heareth me; and ^vhe that despiseth you despiseth me; and ^ahe that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld ^cSatan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you power ^eto tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names ⁱare written in heaven.

21 ¶ ^kIn that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ ^mAnd he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ ^pAnd, behold, ^qa certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering said, ^rThou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing ^sto justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain ^aSamaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, ^epouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an ^finn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named ^kMartha ^lreceived him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called ^kMary, which also ^msat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, ⁿthou art careful and troubled about many things:

42 But ²one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

^a AND it came to pass, that, ^bas he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, ^cHallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, ^gbecause he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 ^hAnd I say unto you, ⁱAsk, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Bē-ēl'zē-būb.

19 And if I by Bē-ēl'zē-būb cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, ⁱ a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he ^m had not first washed before dinner.

39 ⁿ And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

43 ^c Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 ^e Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 ^h And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 ^k Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

CHAPTER 12

IN the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, ^a Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 ^f For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 ^g Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 And I say unto you ⁱ my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 ^o And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.

11 ^a And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For ^r the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and ^abeware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up ^ffor many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and ⁱbe merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that ^mlayeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

22 ¶ ^o And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ^rravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that ^uSolomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 ¶ But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, ^blittle flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure ^eto give you the kingdom.

33^d Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a ^etreasure in the heavens that faileth not, ^gwhere no thief approacheth, ^hneither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35^k Let your loins be girded about, and ^lyour lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the ⁿwedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37^p Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that ^qhe shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third ^swatch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39^t And this know, that if the good-man of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 ¶ Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise ^xsteward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But ^ahe that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him ^fshall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 ¶ I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled?

50 But ^hI have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished!

51 ⁱ Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division:

52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 ¶ ^m And he said also to the people, ⁿ When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.

blow, ye say, There will be ^a heat; and it cometh to pass.

56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time?

57 Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right?

58 ¶ ^b When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

CHAPTER 13

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the Galilæans, whose blood ^c Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilæans ^e were sinners above all the Galilæans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in ^g Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and ^k found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: ^l cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and ^c not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, ^f doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a ^h daughter of Abraham, whom ⁱ Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ ^m Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

CHAPTER 14 ^m P.T.

AND it came to pass, ^v as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, ^c Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, ^d Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked ^e how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 ^f When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For ^h whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and ^h he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call ^m the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for ⁿ thou shalt be recompensed at ^o the resurrection of the just.

16 ^b Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them, 34 ¶ Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?

CHAPTER 15

¶ THEN drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.

2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath ^ddevoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAPTER 16

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a ^fsteward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the ^achildren of this ²world are in their generation wiser than the ^bchildren of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mām'mon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He that is ^cfaithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mām'mon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 ¶ ^eNo servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mām'mon.

14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which ^gjustify yourselves before men; but ^hGod knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is ⁱabomination in the sight of God.

16 ^kThe law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 ^lAnd it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

24 And he cried and said, ^m Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for ⁿ I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime ^b receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saith unto him, They have ^s Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAPTER 18

AND he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought ^jalways to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which ^kfeared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 ^lYet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she ^mweary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God ⁿavenge his own ^oelect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, ^pand despised others:

10 Two men ^qwent up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee ^rstood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 ^a I fast twice in the week, I give ^b tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but ^c smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that ^d exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that ^e humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 ^f And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child ^h shall in no wise enter therein.

18 ⁱ And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, ^m Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and ^o distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich

Children brought to Christ man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 ¶ ^g Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And ^k they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ ^l And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou ⁿ son of David, have mercy on me.

39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

CHAPTER 19

AND Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zăc-chă'ūs, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And ^che sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a ^esycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zăc-chă'ūs, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone ^fto be guest with a man that is ^ga sinner.

8 And Zăc-chă'ūs stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods ⁱI give to the poor; and if I have ^ktaken any thing from any man by false accusation, I ^lrestore him fourfold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a ^mson of Abraham.

10 ⁿFor the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because ^othey thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 ^qHe said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been ^afaithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou laydest not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, ^hOut of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, That ^bunto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and ^cslay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, ^ahe went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 ^b And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bēth'phā-gē and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, Blessed be ⁱ the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: ^kpeace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 ^l And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ ^m And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and ⁿwept over it, 42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall ^pcast a

45 ^f And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, It is written, ^gMy house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

CHAPTER 20

AND it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 ^o Then began he to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be our's.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, ^bThe stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 ^aWhosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 ^aAnd they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cæsar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which be Cæsar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him, 28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, ^aIf any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, ^dThe children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be ^aaccounted worthy to obtain ^fthat ²world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the ^hchildren of God, being the children of the resurrection.

38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all ^alive unto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 ^b And he said unto them, How say they that Christ is ^cDavid's son?

42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, ^dThe LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

CHAPTER 22

^a NOW ^b the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good-man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the ^p passover.

14 ^q And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 ^b For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 ^k And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in ^p my temptations:

29 And I appoint unto you a ^q kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That ^r ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones ^s judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath ² desired to have you, that he may ³ sift you as wheat:

32 But ^y I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, ^z strengthen thy brethren.

34 And ^e he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, ^d When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that ^f this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And ^g he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, ^h here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the ⁱ mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

40 ^l And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and ^m kneeled down; and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared ⁿ an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And ^o being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow.

46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 ^d And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilæan.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. /And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 ^f And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilæan.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto ^a Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

8 ¶ And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he ^ahoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day ^cPilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 ^b And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a ^cCy-rē-ni-ān, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them said, ^dDaughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, ^eBlessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 ^fThen shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 For if they do these things in ^ga green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 ⁱAnd when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 ¶ Then said Jesus, ^jFather, forgive them; ^kfor they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be ⁿChrist, the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the ^oking of the Jews, save thyself.

38 And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ¶ ^pAnd one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in ^dparadise.

44 ^e And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, ^g into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 ^h Now when the centurion saw what was done, he ⁱ glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, ⁱ smote their breasts; and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ ⁿ And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a ^p just:

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Ar-im-ā-thā'ā, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ^a ointments; and ^b rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.

CHAPTER 24

^c NOW upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, (and certain others with them.)

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, ^f two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 ^k Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And ^m they remembered his words, 9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and ^o Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, ^q which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and ^r they believed them not.

12 ^s Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ ^t And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Ēm-mā'ūs, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Clē'ō-pās, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a ^e prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and ^l slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

26 ^m Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at ⁿ Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they ^a constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he ^b sat at meat with them, he took bread, and ^c blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And ^d their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, ^f Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, ^g Peace be unto you.

37 But ^h they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: ⁱ handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he ^k shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that ^o all things must be fulfilled, which were

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN

CHAPTER 1

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and ^ethe world knew him not.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor E-li'as, neither that prophet?

CHAPTER 2

AND ^athe third day there was a marriage in ^eCana of Galilee; and ^fthe mother of Jesus was there: 2 And both ^bJesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, ^bafter the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

7 ^h Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 ²ⁱ The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, ^m How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a ^o master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, ^b We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ^b ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And ^o no man hath ascended up to heaven, ^b but he that ^y came down from heaven, even the ^a Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ^q And ^b as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man ^o be lifted up:

15 That whosoever ^j believeth in him should not perish, but ⁱ have eternal life.

16 ^q For ^k God so loved the world, ^o that he gave his ^m only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should ^o not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For ^q God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; ^b but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ^q He that believeth on him is ^y not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that ^b light is come into the world, and ^o men loved darkness rather than light, because ^a their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, ^j lest his deeds should be reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ^q After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them, and ^k baptized.

23 ^q And John also ⁱ was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 ⁿ For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 ^q Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about ^q purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, ^r to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and ^s all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, ^u A man can receive nothing, ^z except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, ^c I am not the Christ, but that ^d I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride is the ^g bridegroom: but ^h the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 ⁿ He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 ^b He that cometh from above is above all: ^r he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven ⁱ is above all.

32 And ^{*} what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and ^z no man receiveth his testimony.

CHAPTER 4

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and ^m baptized more disciples than ⁿ John,

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Judæa, and departed ^a again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go through Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sÿ^{ch}âr, near to the ^r parcel of ground that ^s Jacob gave to his son ^u Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's ^{*} well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh ^z a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? ^e for the Jews have no dealings with the ^f Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee ⁱ living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 ^l Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him ^c shall never thirst; ^e but the water that I shall give him shall be ^g in him a well of water springing up into ⁱ everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, ^l give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art ^p a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in ^q this mountain; and ye say, that ^t in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, ^v the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 ^a Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for ^b salvation is of the Jews.

23 But ^c the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall ^d worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 ^g God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that ^h Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, ^k I that speak unto thee am he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

ST. JOHN 5

28 The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

29 Come, see a man,^b which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is ^fto do the will of him ^gthat sent me, and ^hto finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for ^kthey are white already to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth ⁱreceiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, ^mOne soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And ^qmany more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the ^sSaviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after ^ttwo days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Jesus himself testified, that ^ua prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilæans received him,

Christ's second miracle, in Cana

^a having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into ^cCana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at ^dCā-pēr'-nā-ūm.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, ^eExcept ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, ⁱcome down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, ⁿand his whole house.

54 ^oThis is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judæa into Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

AFTER this there was a ^pfeast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the ^rsheep ²market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, ³waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another step-peth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, ^fRise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: ⁱ it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for ⁿ Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: ^q sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, ^u because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews ^a sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, ^d making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^e The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For ^a the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him ^b greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and ^c quickeneth them; even so ^d the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but ^e hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father.

^g He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, ^h hath everlasting life, and ^k shall not come into condemnation; but ^l is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^m The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son ^a to have life in himself;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the ^p Son of man.

28 ^r Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto ^s the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto ^t the resurrection of ^u damnation.

30 ^x I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and ^y my judgment is just; because ^z I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father ^b which hath sent me.

31 ^c If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 ^aYe sent unto John, and ^bhe bare witness unto the truth.

34 But ^cI receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 ^fHe was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me ^hto finish, ⁱthe same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, ^khath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, ^mnor seen his shape.

38 And ⁿye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 ¶ ²⁰Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and ^bthey are they which testify of me.

40 And ^aye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 I receive not honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not ^rthe love of God in you.

43 I am come ^sin my Father's name, and ye ^treceive me not: ^uif another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 How can ye believe, ^vwhich receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from ³God only?

45 ^wDo not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, ^zin whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for ^ahe wrote of me.

47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

ain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 And the ^dpassover, a ^efeast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 ¶ When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto ^gPhilip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, ⁱAndrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth ^bthat prophet that should come into the world.

15 ¶ ^cWhen Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward ^fCă-pě-ră-ŭm. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 ¶ When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Că-păr-nă-üm, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 ¶ Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save ^a he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 ^c Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread ^d which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is ^f my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore ^g strove among themselves, saying, ^h How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and ^m drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, ^q dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As ^r the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Că-për-nă-ûm.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is ^a an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ^c ascend up where he was before?

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and ^b who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that ^c no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast ⁱ the words of eternal life.

69 And we believe and are sure that ^k thou art ² that Christ, the Son of the living God.

CHAPTER 7

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he ^r would not walk in Jewry, because ^t the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now ^u the Jews' ^v feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 ^w His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, ^z shew thyself to the world.

5 For neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, ^b My time is not yet come: but your time is always ready.

7 The world cannot hate you; but ^d me it hateth, because I testify of it, that ^f the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews ^bsought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much ^dmurmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him ^efor fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, ^hhaving never learned? the Scriptures

16 Jesus answered them, and said, ⁱMy doctrine is not mine, but ^jhis that sent me.

17 ^kIf any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, ^lwhether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He that speaketh of himself ^mseeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 ⁿDid not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, ^oThou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, ^pI have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 ^qMoses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but ^rof the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumsise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit ^ewe know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me ^fis true, ^gwhom ye know not.

29 But ^hI know him: for ⁱI am from him, and ^khe hath sent me.

30 Then ^lthey sought to take him: but ^mno man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And ⁿmany of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, "Yet a little while am I with you, and then ^aI go unto him that sent me.

34 ^bYe shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the ^{2a}dispersed among the ^{3b}Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 ^cIn the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, ^dIf any man thirst, ^elet him come unto me, and drink.

38 ^fHe that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, ^gout of his belly shall flow rivers of ^hliving water.

39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, ⁱwhich they that believe on him should receive: ^a for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; ^b because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is ^d the Prophet.

41 Others said, This is ^e the Christ. But some said, ^f Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

42 ^h Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of ⁱ the seed of David, and out of the town of ^k Beth-lehem, where David was?

43 So there was ^l a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, ⁿ Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Phari-sees, Are ye also deceived?

48 ^o Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 ^p Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

51 Doth our law judge any man, ^q before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for ^r out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, ^c that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, ^e tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him ^m first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and ^q sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, ^r I am the light of the world: he that ^s followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, ^t Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 ^z Ye judge after the flesh; ^a I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my ^c judgment is true: for ^d I am not alone, but I and the Father ^e that sent me.

17 It is also written in your law, that ^g the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and ^h the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, ^aYe neither know me, ^bnor my Father: ^cif ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in ^ethe treasury, as he taught in the temple: and ^gno man laid hands on him; ^hfor his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, ^kI go my way, and ^lye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, ⁿWill he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, ^qYe are from beneath; ^rI am from above; ^sye are of this world; ^tI am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that ^xI am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but ^ahe that sent me is true; and ^bI speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 ^dThey understood not that ^ehe spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have ^flifted up the ^gSon of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I ⁱdo nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me: ^lthe Father hath not left me alone; for ^mI do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, ⁿmany believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, ^oIf ye continue in my word, ^pthen are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall ^rknow ^sthe truth, and the truth shall ^tmake you free.

in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^dWhosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is ^jour father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, ^kWe be not born of fornication; ^lwe have one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for ^mI proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that 50 And ^f I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^h If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

53 ^m Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, ^z who did sin, this man, or ^a his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: ^c but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

(^w) A man born blind receiveth sight

4 ^b I must work the works of ^c him that sent me, ^d while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as ^e I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, ^g he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, ⁱ wash in the pool of ^k Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ^j The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, ⁿ Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ^j They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And ^r it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, ^x This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And ^y there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, ^b He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, ^abecause they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be ^eput out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, ^aGive God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but ⁱwe are Moses' disciples.

29 ^kWe know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that ⁱGod heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and ^pdoeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 ^aIf this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, ^rThou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, ^aDost thou believe on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and ^bit is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jesus said, ^dFor judgment I am come into this world, ^fthat they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ^hye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

CHAPTER 10

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This ^mparable spake Jesus ⁿunto them: but ^uthey understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the door: by me if any man

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and ^dto kill, and to destroy: ¹I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

✓ 11 ¹I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd ¹giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and ^oleaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and ¹know my sheep, and ²am known of mine.

15 ¹As the Father knoweth me, even so ¹know I the Father: and ¹I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And ²other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be ^{3c}one fold, and one shepherd.

17 ¹Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have ⁴power to lay it down, and I have power ⁵to take it again. ¹This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ ¹There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, ¹He hath a devil, and ²is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. ^oCan a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 ¶ And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the ¹dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple in ¹Solomon's ²porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

30 ¹I and my Father are one.

31 Then the Jews ¹took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for ^ablasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, ^bmakest thyself God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, ^dI said, Ye are gods?

CHAPTER 11

NOW a certain man was sick, named ^bLazarus, of ^cBethany, the town of ^dMary and her sister ^eMartha.

2 (It was that Mary which ^fanointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, ^hbut for the glory of God, that the Son of God ^kmight be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still ^min the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judæa again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? ^sIf any man walk in the day, ^the stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man ^vwalk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus ^zsleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said ^aThomas, which is called ²Did'ŷ-mūs, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

that he had lain in the grave ^afour days already.

18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off:

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, ^gLord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, ⁱGod will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again ^lin the resurrection at ⁿthe last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, ^oI am the resurrection, and ^pthe life: ^qhe that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me ^rshall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art ^uthe Christ, ^xthe Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, ^bLord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he ^agroaned in the spirit, and was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 ^cJesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, ^dwhich opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and ^fa stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead ⁱfour days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see ^mthe glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus ⁿlifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And ^rI knew that thou hearest me always: but ^sbecause of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe ^tthat thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, ^vbound hand and foot with grave-clothes: and his face was bound about with a ^znapkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then ^amany of the Jews which came to Mary, and ^chad seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 ¶ Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a ^hcouncil, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named ^bCāi' ā-phās, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied ^athat Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should ^bgather together in one the ^hchildren of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they ^ktook counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore ^lwalked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called E'phrā'im, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And ^othe Jews' ^ppassover was nigh at hand: and ^qmany went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, ^rto purify themselves.

56 Then ^ssought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAPTER 12

^bTHEN Jesus six days before the ^cpassover came to ^dBethany, where ^eLazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they ^fmade him a supper; and ^gMartha ^hserved: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took ⁱMary a pound of ointment of ^jspikenard, very costly, and ^kanointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, ^a Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and ^d given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For ^t the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 Because that by reason of him ^b many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of ^y palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: ^a Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 ^a Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things ^e understood not his disciples at the first: but ^g when Jesus was glorified, ^h then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall ⁱ the prince of this world ^k be cast out.

32 And I, ⁱ if I be lifted up from the earth, ^m will draw all men unto me.

33 This he said, ⁿ signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that ^o Christ ^p abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, ^q The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, ^r Yet a little while ^a is the light with you. Walk ^b while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for ^c he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the ^d children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and ^e did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, ^f yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of ^g E-sai'ās the prophet ^h might be fulfilled, which he spake, ⁱ O Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that ^j E-sai'ās said again, 40 ^k He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said ^l E-sai'ās, ^m when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless ⁿ among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but ^o because of the Pharisees ^p they did not confess him, lest they should be ^q put out of the synagogue:

43 For ^r they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jesus cried and said, ^s He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on ^t him that sent me.

45 And he that ^u seeth me seeth him that sent me.

46 ^v I am come alight into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, ^w I judge him not: for ^x I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in ^y the last day.

49 For ^z I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he ^{aa} gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

Jesus washeth the disciples' feet

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAPTER 13

NOW before the feast of the passover, when Jesus ^a knew that ^b his hour was come that he ^c should depart out of this world unto the Father, ^d having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 ^e And supper being ended, ^f the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;

3 Jesus knowing that ^g the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was ^h come from God, and went to God;

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and ⁱ took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began ^j to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, ^a He that is washed needeth not save ^b to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ^c ye are clean, but not all.

11 For ^d he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 ^e Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For ^aI have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^eThe servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, ^fhappy are ye if ye do them.

21 ^uWhen Jesus had thus said, ^vhe was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was ^wleaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, ^xwhom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 ^yAnd after the sop ^zSatan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he ^{aa}should give something to the poor.

31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the ^bSon of man glorified, and ^cGod is ^dglorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, ^eyet a little while I am with you. ^fYe shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 ^gA new commandment I give unto you, ^hThat ye love one another; ⁱas I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, ^jwhither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, ^kthou canst not follow me now; but ^lthou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 ^mPeter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 ⁿJesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAPTER 14

^rLET not your heart be troubled: ^sye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many ^tmansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. ^uI go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, ^vI will come again, and receive you unto myself; that ^wwhere I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 ^xThomas saith unto him, Lord, ^ywe know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am ^zthe way, the truth, and ^{aa}the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

ST. JOHN 15

(7-14 Syn. Conf. 1, 15 p. 71)

Christ promiseth the Holy Ghost

7^a If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8^a Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, ^jand yet hast thou not known me, Philip? ^hhe that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and ⁱhow sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that ⁱI am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you ⁿI speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for ^pthe very works' sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and ^rgreater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13 And ⁱwhatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, ^uthat the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. ye will 15 ^jIf ye love me, ^ekeep my commandments.

16 And ^bI will pray the Father, and ^ahe shall give you another ^zComforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

17 Even the ^eSpirit of truth; ^fwhom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you ^acomfortless: ⁱI will come to you.

19 ^mYet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: ⁿbecause I live, ye shall live also.

20 ^pAt that day ye shall know that ^rI am in my Father, and ^sye in me, and I in you.

21 ^uHe that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me ^vshall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

22 ^bJudas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou ^cwilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, ^eIf a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and ^gwe will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and ^kthe word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's ^mwhich sent me.

27^a Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. ^sLet not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how ^zI said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father ^ais greater than I.

CHAPTER 15

I AM ^othe true vine, and my Father is ^qthe husbandman.

2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit ^the taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now ^xye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4^z Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep your's also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin.

23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

27 And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER 16

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these

ST. JOHN 16

The disciples comforted things unto you, ^asorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the ^{2c} Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, ^aI will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, ^ehe will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 Of judgment, because the ⁱ prince of this world ^{*}is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ^mye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, ^othe Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

14 ^{*}He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 ^{*}All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? ^bwe cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ^jye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but ⁱyour sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail ^bhath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but ^jI will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And ^ein that day ye shall ask me nothing. ⁱVerily, verily, I say unto you, ^hWhatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ⁱask, and ye shall receive, ^athat your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in ^{3p}proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and ⁱI say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 ^{}For the Father himself loveth you, ^ubecause ye have loved me, and ^{}have believed that I came out from God.

28 ^yI came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.

30 Now are we sure that ^athou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe, that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, ^ethe hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ^dye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet ^eI am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that ^ein me ye might have peace. ^hIn the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; ^kI have overcome the world.

CHAPTER 17

THESE words spake Jesus, and ^blifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, ^ethe hour is come; ^gglorify thy Son, that thy Son also ^hmay glorify thee:

2 ^kAs thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give ⁱeternal life to as many ^mas thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternal, ⁿthat they might know thee ^othe only true God, and Jesus Christ, ^awhom thou hast sent.

4 ⁱI have glorified thee on the earth: ^{*I} have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had ^awith thee ^abefore the world was.

6 ^cI have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For ^jI have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and ^hhave known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 ^mI pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And ^pall mine are thine, and thine are mine; and ^qI am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and ^rI come to thee. ^uHoly Father, ^vkeep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, ^zthat they may be one, ^aas we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and ^dnone of them is lost, ^ebut the son of perdition; ^fthat the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have ^amy joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and ^cthe world hath hated them, ^dbecause they are not of the world, ^feven as I am not of the world.

23 ^gI in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that ⁱthe world may know that thou hast sent me, and ^khast loved them, ^las thou hast loved me.

25 O righteous Father, ^sthe world hath not known thee: but ^{*I} have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And ^bI have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and ^cI in them.

CHAPTER 18

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, ^ghe went forth with his disciples over the brook ^hCē-drōn, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples.

3^c Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, ^aknowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, ^eWhom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 ⁱThat the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then ⁱSimon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Măl'chūs.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the ⁿcup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12^o Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, 13 And led him away to ^bAnnas first; for he was father in law to ^qCăi'ă-phās, which was the high priest that same year.

14^r Now Căi'ă-phās was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ^gAnd Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16^a But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the ^bdamsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ^gThe high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, ^sI spake openly to the world; ^hI ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, ^kAnswerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now Annas had sent him bound unto Căi'ă-phās the high priest.

25^m And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

28 ^gThen led they Jesus from Căi'ă-phās unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into ^sthe judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29^r Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, ^dsignifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou ^ethe King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 Jesus answered, My kingdom ⁱis not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. ^mTo this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. ⁿEvery one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, ^oI find in him no fault at all.

39 ^pBut ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19

THEN Pilate therefore took Jesus, and ^sscourged him.

of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a ^apurple robe,

3 And said, Hail, ^bKing of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I ^cfind no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. ^fPilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law ^ghe ought to die, because ^hhe made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the ^kjudgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, ^lSpeakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsar's friend: who-soever maketh himself a king speaketh against ^qCæsar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the ^rjudgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gāb'-bā-thā.

14 And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him.

Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar.

16 Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 ^d And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: ⁿ that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, ^p They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ Now there stood by the cross of Jesus ^s his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clēō-phās, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, ^w whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, ^z Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus ^d knowing that all things were now accomplished, ^a that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, ^b I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon ^c hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, ^e It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, ^f that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out ^g blood and water.

35 And ^h he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, ^k that the scripture should be fulfilled, ^l A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, ^m They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ And after this Joseph of Arim-ā-thæ'ā, being a disciple of Jesus, but ^q secretly ^r for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also Nic-ō-dē'ē-mūs, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and ^t brought a mixture of ^u myrrh and ^v aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and ^a wound it in ^b linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus theretore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAPTER 20

THE first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, ^awhom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 ^gPeter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the ⁱlinen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

7 And the ^anapkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶ But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,

12 And seeing ^ytwo angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

z Cf. Lk. 24. 4

14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and ^asaw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? ^bwhom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rāb-bō'ni; which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to ^amy brethren, and say unto them, ^jI ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene ^hcame and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ Then the same day at evening, being ^kthe first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled ^lfor fear of the Jews, ^mcame Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, ⁿPeace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, ^phe shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then ^qwere the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: ^ras my Father hath sent me, ^seven so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, ^tReceive ye the Holy Ghost:

23 ^uWhose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But ^vThomas, one of the twelve, called Did'y-mūs, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: ^b blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ And ^d many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 But ^e these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is ^f the Christ, the ^g Son of God; and that believing ye might ^h have life through his name.

CHAPTER 21

AFTER these things Jesus ^k shewed himself again to the disciples at the ^m sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and ^o Thomas called ^a Did-ŷ-mūs, and ^b Nathanael of ^c Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night ^r they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, "Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore that disciple ^x whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now ^z when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land ^c full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 ⁱ This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, ^j after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to ⁿ Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him ^s Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, ^t thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, ^v thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

CHAPTER 1

^bTHE former treatise have I made, O ^cThē-ōph⁴i-lūs, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until ^dthe day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost ^ehad given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 ^fTo whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things ⁱpertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And, being assembled together with them, ^kcommanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for ^mthe promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 For ^pJohn truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized ^qwith the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, ^twilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for you ^uto know the times or the seasons, ^vwhich the Father hath put in his own power.

that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall ^abe witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, ^gtwo men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Which also said, ^hYe men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, ⁱshall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then ⁿreturned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called ^oŌlī-vēt, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an ^rupper room, where abode both ^sPeter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Al-phā⁴ūs, and Simon Zē-lō⁴tēs, and ^xJudas the brother of James.

with the women, and ^aMary the mother of Jesus, and with his ^bbrethren.

15 ¶ And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of ^dthe ²disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty.)

16 Men and brethren, ^hthis scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning ⁱJudas, which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For ^mhe was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ⁿministry.

18 Now this man ^opurchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and ^pfalling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as ^qthat field is called ^rin their proper tongue, A-cēl'-dā-mā, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, ⁱLet his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and ^uhis ⁴bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companioned with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called ⁱBār'-sā-bās, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And ^kthey prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, ⁱwhich knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take part of this ministry and ^mapostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And ⁿthey gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2

AND when the ^eday of Pentecost was fully come, they were all ^ewith one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a ^frushing mighty wind, and ^git filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them ³cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all ^kfilled with the Holy Ghost, and began ⁱto speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak ⁵Galilæans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Pār'-thi-āns, and ^{*}Medes, and ^yElamites, and the dwellers in ^zMēs-ō-pō-tā'-mī-ā, and in Judæa, and ^aCāp-pā-dō-čī-ā, in ^aPontus, and ^bAsia, 11 ^hCretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judæa, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But ^athis is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

17 ^bAnd it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man ^aapproved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the ^bdeterminate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ^cye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 ^dWhom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, ^eI foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that ^cGod had sworn with an oath to him, that ^dof the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;

31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, ^eneither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof ^fwe all are witnesses.

33 Therefore ^gbeing by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father ^hthe promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath ⁱshed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, ^kThe LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel ^lknow assuredly, that ^mGod hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and ⁿChrist.

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, ^qthey were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, ^rwhat shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, ^uRepent, and ^vbe baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ ^yfor the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

39 ^aFor the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to ^ball that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this ^cuntoward generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word ^dwere baptized: and the same day ^ethere were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 And they ^fcontinued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in ^abreaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And ^bfear came upon every soul: and ^cmany wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and ^dhad all things common;

45 And ^esold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord ^fin the temple, and breaking bread ^gfrom house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 ^hPraising God, and ⁱhaving favour with all the people. And the Lord added ^jto the church daily ^ksuch as should be saved.

CHAPTER 3

NOW Peter and John went up together ^linto the temple at the hour of prayer, being ^mthe ninth hour.

2 And a certain man ⁿlame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Peter, ^ofastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: ^pin the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

8 And he ^qleaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And ^rall the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And ^sthey knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the ^aporch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 ¶ And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 ^bThe God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, ^chath glorified his ^dSon Jesus; whom ye ^edelivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied ^fthe Holy One and ^gthe Just, and ^hdesired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And ⁱkilled the ^jPrince of life, ^kwhom God hath raised from the dead; whereof ^lwe are witnesses.

16 And ^mhis name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that ⁿthrough ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, ^owhich God before had shewed ^pby the mouth of all his prophets, that ^qChrist should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶ Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he shall send ^rJesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 ^sWhom the heaven must receive until the times of ^trestitution of all things, ^uwhich God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets ^vsince the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, ^wA prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 ^xAnd it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from ^bSamuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of ^dthe covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And ^ein thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 Unto you ^gfirst God, having raised up his ²Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, ^hin turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

CHAPTER 4

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the ⁱcaptain of the temple, and the ^mSadducees, came upon them,

2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus ^othe resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and ^bthe number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and ^relders, and scribes,

6 And ⁱAnnas the high priest, and ^uCai-ā-phās, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, ^yBy what power, or by ^zwhat name, have ye done this?

8 Then Peter, ^afilled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of ^cthe good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that ^dby the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, ^ewhom ye crucified, ^ewhom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, ^awhich is become the head of the corner.

12 ^cNeither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were ^funlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had ⁱcommanded them to go aside out of ^kthe council, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed ⁿa notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and ^qcommanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, ^sWhether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For we cannot but speak the things ^twhich we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men ^bglorified God for that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God ^fwith one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, ^a which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant
 David hast said, ^c Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For of a truth against thy ^d holy ² child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, ^e both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, ^f were gathered together,

28 For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel ^g determined before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all ^h boldness they may speak thy word,

30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that ⁱ signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.

31 ¶ And ^o when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and ^q they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of ^s one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but ^t they had all things common.

33 And ^u with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and ^y distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed ^z Barnabas, (which is,

The sin of Ananias and Sapphira being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of ^b Cyprus,

37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER 5

BUT a certain man named An-ā-nī'ās, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And ^e kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Peter said, An-ā-nī'ās, why hath ^h Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And An-ā-nī'ās hearing these words ^m fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great ⁿ fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, ^p wound him up, and ^r carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her,
 Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together ^{*} to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost:
 and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

 apostles were many ^a signs and won-

15 ^fInsomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, ⁱbringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ^gThen the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the ^bSadducees,) and were filled with indignation,

18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and ^uput them in the common prison.

19 But the ^zangel of the Lord by night ^bopened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all ^dthe words of ^ethis life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered ^ginto the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called ^kthe council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the ⁿcaptain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

THE ACTS 5

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for ^dthey feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, ^gDid not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend ^hto bring this man's blood upon us.

29 ^jThen Peter and the other apostles answered and said, ^kWe ought to obey God rather than men.

30 ^lThe God of our fathers ^mraised up Jesus, ⁿwhom ye slew and ^ohanged on a tree.

31 ^qHim hath God exalted with his right hand to be a ^rPrince and a ^sSaviour, for ^tto give repentance to Israel, and ^xforgiveness of sins.

32 And ^ywe are his witnesses of these things; and ^zso is also the Holy Ghost, ^awhom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ^bWhen they heard that, they ^cwere cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named ^dGä-mä-li-ël, a ^edoctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and ^fcommanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For ^gbefore these days rose up Theu'däs, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the ^htaxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; ^blest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and ^fbeaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, ⁱreioicing that they were counted worthy ^kto suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily ^min the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach ²Jesus ⁿChrist.

CHAPTER 6

AND in those days, ^bwhen the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the ^{3a}Grecians against the ^rHebrews, because their ^swidows were neglected in the ^udaily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, ^zlook ye out among you seven men ^aof honest report, ^bfull of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and ⁱPhilip, and Pröch²-ö-rüs, and Ni-cä²-nör, and Timon, and Pär²-mē-nās, and Nicolas a ⁿproselyte of An²-ti-öch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and ^bwhen they had prayed, ^athey laid their hands on them.

7 And the ^rword of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company ⁴of the priests were obedient to ^uthe faith.

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did ^agreat wonders and miracles among the people.

9 ¶ Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Lib²-ēr-tines, and ^cQy-rē²-nī-āns, and Alexandrians, and of them of ^dCi-liç²-i-ā and of ^eAsia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And ^sthey were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they ^hsuborned men, which said, We have heard him ⁱspeak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the ^ocouncil,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth ⁱshall destroy this place, and shall ^xchange the customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, ^ysaw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

CHAPTER 7

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, ^cbrethren, and fathers, hearken; ^dThe God of glory ^eappeared unto ^four father Abraham, when he was in ^gMēs-ö-pö-tä²-mī-ā, ^hbefore he dwelt in ⁴ⁱChär²-rān,

3 And said unto him, ^kGet thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and ^mcome into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chäl²-dä²-āns, and dwelt in Chär²-rān: and from thence, ^owhen his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet ^she promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, ^xwhen as yet he had no child.

20 In which time ^aMoses was born, and was ^cexceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And when he was cast out, Phâr-aoḥ's daughter took him up, and ^enourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was learned in all the ^gwisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

23 And ⁱwhen he was full ^kforty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And ^tthe next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ^vye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then ^bfled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, ^dwhere he begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, ^fthere appeared to him in the wilderness of ^hmount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a ^jbush.

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, ^a"I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, ^c"Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer ^c by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He ⁱ brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land ^l of Egypt, and ^m in the Red sea, and ⁿ in the wilderness forty years.

37 ¶ This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, ^a A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.

38 This is he, that was in the ³ church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: ^u who received the lively ^x oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers ^y would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts ^b turned back again into Egypt,

40 Saying unto Aaron, ^d Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And ^h they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned, and ^m gave them up to worship ⁿ the host of heavens; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, ^q have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Mō^l-löch, and the star of your god ⁴⁵ Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the ^x tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it ^z according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with ^{2a} Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, ^b whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David;

46 ^c Who found favour before God, and ^d desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

47 But Solomon ^f built him an house.

48 Howbeit the ^e most High dwelleth not ⁿ in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet,

49 ^k Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

51 ¶ Ye ^b stiffnecked and ^u uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do ^r always resist the Holy Ghost: ^s as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 ^t Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of ^z the Just One; ^a of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

53 Who have received the law ^c by the disposition of angels, and have not ^e kept it.

54 ¶ When they heard these things, ^f they were cut to the heart, and they ^g gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he, being ⁱ full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the ^k glory of God, and Jesus standing ^l on the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, I see the ^o heavens opened, and the ^p Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, 58 And cast him out of the city, and ^r stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes ^t at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen, ^u calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.

60 And he ^v kneeled down, and ^w cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he ^b fell asleep.

CHAPTER 8

AND Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great ^apersecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and ^cthey were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.

3 As for ^bSaul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore ⁱthey that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 Then ^kPhilip went down to the city of Samaria, and ^lpreached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and ⁿseeing the miracles which he did.

7 For ^ounclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city ^sused sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, ²This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Philip ^{*preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ,} ^zthey were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, ^bprayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost:

16 (For ^das yet he was fallen upon none of them: only ^ethey were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)

17 Then ^jlaid they their hands on them, and they ^greceived the Holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them ^hmoney, ^{*the apostles}

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the ^mgift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 ^pRepent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in ^qthe gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, ^rPray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the ^tSamaritans.

26 And the ^uangel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto ^vGaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a ^aman of Ethiopia, an ^beunuch of great authority under Cān-dā-cē queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and ^chad come to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read E-sāi'ās the prophet.

29 Then ^athe Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet E-sai-as, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, ^dHow can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, ^eHe was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and ^kbegan at the same scripture, and ⁱpreached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; ^mwhat doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 ^aAnd Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and ^bhe baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, ^rthe Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

mascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of ^bthis way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 ^cAnd as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven: ^{(brighter than the sun (26: 13))}

4 And ^ehe fell to the earth, and ^fheard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? ^(Hebrew)

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: ^git is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.)

6 ^hAnd he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, ^hhearing a voice, ⁱbut seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ^jAnd there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named ^aÄn-ä-ni-as; and ^oto him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, ^qof Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Än-ä-ni-as coming in, and ^sputting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Än-ä-ni-as answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, ^uhow much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind ^xall that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for ^zhe is ^aa chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name ^bbefore the Gentiles, and ^ckings, and the children of Israel:

16 For ^aI will shew him how great things ^bhe must suffer ^cfor my name's sake.

17 And An-ā-ni'ās went his way, and entered into the house; and ^fputting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, ⁱthat thou mightest receive thy sight, and ^kbe filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and ⁿwas baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were ^pat Damascus.

20 And straightway he ^qpreached Christ ^rin the synagogues, ^sthat he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and ^zconfounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving ^{aa}that this is very ^aChrist.

23 ¶ And ^cafter that many days were fulfilled, the Jews ^dtook counsel to kill him:

24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him ^fby night, and ^glet him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And ^hwhen Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But ⁱBarnabas took him, and ^kbrought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had ⁿpreached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at ^fLydda.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and ^jSaron saw him, and ^kturned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at ^lJoppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called ^mDorcas: ⁿthis woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an ^oupper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter ⁱput them all forth, and ^mkneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. ^oAnd she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

THE ACTS 10

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and ^amany believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one ^cSimon a tanner.

CHAPTER 10

THERE was a certain man in ¹Cæsarea called Cornelius, a centurion of ²the band called the Italian band,

2 A ^hdevout man, and one that ⁱfeared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

3 ^{*}He saw in a vision evidently about the ^lninth hour of the day an ^mangel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, ⁿhe was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, ^oThy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to ^qJoppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:

6 He lodgeth with one ^rSimon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the ^xhousetop ^yto pray about the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into ^za trance,

11 And saw ^aheaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the

Peter's vision. He goeth to Cæsarea four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And ^bthere came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for ^dI have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, ^eWhat God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done ^gthrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Peter thought on the vision, ^pthe Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, ^sa just man, and one that feareth God, and ^tof good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after, they entered into Cæsarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in,

Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and ^aworshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, ^cStand up; ^dI myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that ⁱit is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but ^tGod hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, ^ra man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God,

34 ¶ Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that ^dGod is no respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation he that feareth him, and ^eworketh righteousness, is ^faccepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, ^hpreaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is ⁱLord of all:)

37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judæa, and ⁱbegan from Galilee, after the ⁿbaptism which John preached;

38 ^oHow God anointed Jesus of Nazareth ^pwith the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were ^boppressed of the devil; for God was with him.

39 And ^ewe are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; ^jwhom they slew and ^ghanged on a tree:

40 Him ^hGod raised up the third day, and ^kshewed him openly;

41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, ^mwho did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And ⁿhe commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God ^oto be the Judge of quick and dead.

43 ^bTo him give all the prophets witness, that through his name ^awho-soever believeth in him shall receive ^sremission of sins.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, the ^tHoly Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And ^uthey of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that ^von the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them ^yspeak with tongues, and ^zmagnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 ^aCan any man forbid water, ^bthat these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized ^cin the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

CHAPTER 11

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judæa heard that ^gthe Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, ^kthey that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, ^mThou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter

THE ACTS 11

from the beginning, and expounded it ^a by order unto them, saying,

5 ^c I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cæsarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, ³ nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and ^r all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, ^t the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, ² how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; ^d what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and ^g glorified

The disciples first called Christians

God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles ^b granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ Now ^d they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as ^e Phē-nī-çē, and ^f Cyprus, and Ān-ti-ōch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and ^g Çy-rē-nē, which, when they were come to ^h Ān-ti-ōch, spake unto the ²ⁱ Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and ^k a great number believed, and ^l turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth ^m Barnabas, that he should go as far as Ān-ti-ōch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the ⁿ grace of God, was glad, and ⁿ exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and ^o full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and ^p much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to ^q Tarsus, for to seek Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Ān-ti-ōch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called ^s Christians first in Antioch.

27 ¶ And in these days came ^u prophets from Jerusalem unto Ān-ti-ōch.

28 And there stood up one of them named ^x Āg-ā-būs, and ^y signified by the Spirit that there should be great ^a dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of ^b Claudius Cæsar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined ^c to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judæa:

30 ^e Which also they did, and sent it to the ^f elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAPTER 12

NOW about that time ^a Herod the king stretched forth his hands ^c to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed ^d James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the ^f days of unleavened bread.)

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him ^g in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but ⁱ prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, ^j bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, the ⁿ angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; ^r which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath ^s sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of ^b John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a ^c damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, ^h It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, ^k beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto ^m James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and ^o commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judæa to Cæsarea, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod was highly displeased with them of ^p Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because ^q their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his ^{2s} throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord ^t smote him, because he ^u gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But ^v the word of God grew and multiplied.

THE ACTS 13

25 And ^aBarnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had ^bfulfilled their ministry, and took with them ^cJohn, whose surname was Mark.

CHAPTER 13

NOW there were in the church that was at ^aĀn-ti-ōch certain ^fprophets and ^gteachers; as ^hBarnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and ⁱLucius of ^mČy-rē-nē, and Mān-ā-ēn, which had been brought up with ⁿHerod the tē-trārch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and ^ofasted, the ^rHoly Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto ^pI have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and ^qprayed, and ^slaid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto ^tSē-leu-čī-ā; and from thence they sailed to ^uCyprus.

5 And when they were at ^vSāl-ā-mīs, they preached the word of God ^win the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also ^xJohn to their ^yminister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto ^zPā-phōs, they found a certain ^{aa}sorcerer, a ^{ab}false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the ^{ac}deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But ^{ad}Ēl-ŷ-mās the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) ^{ae}filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all ^{af}subtily and all mischief, thou ^{ag}child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, ^{ah}the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some ^{ai}to lead him by the hand.

Paul preacheth at Antioch in Pisidia

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from ^{aj}Pā-phōs, they came to Perga in ^{ak}Pamphylia: and ^{al}John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Perga, they came to ^{am}Ān-ti-ōch in ^{an}Pi-sid-i-ā, and went ^{ao}into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And after the ^{ap}reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and ^{aq}beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and ^{ar}ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel ^{as}chose our fathers, and exalted the people ^{at}when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an ^{au}high arm ^{av}brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of ^{aw}forty years ^{ax}suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed ^{ay}seven nations in the land of Čhā-nā-ān, he ^{az}divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that he ^{ba}gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until ^{bb}Samuel the prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a king: and ^{bc}God gave unto them ^{bd}Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And ^{be}when he had removed him, ^{bf}he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, ^{bg}I have found David the son of Jesse, ^{bh}a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 ^aOf this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel ^ba Saviour, Jesus:

24 When John had first preached before his coming ^cthe baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? ^dI am not he. But, behold, ^ethere cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, ^fto you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because ^gthey knew him not, nor yet ^hthe voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them ⁱin condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should ^jbe slain.

29 And ^kwhen they had fulfilled all that was written of him, ^lthey took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But ^m*God raised him from the dead:

31 And he was seen many days of them ⁿwhich came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are ^ohis witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that ^pthe promise which was made unto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, ^q'Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, ^r*I will give you the sure mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, ^s'Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, ^tfell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you ^athe forgiveness of sins:

39 And by him ^ball that believe are justified from all things, ^cfrom which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets;

41 ¶ Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and ^dreligious ^eproselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, ^fpersuaded them to continue in ^gthe grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But ^hwhen the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and ⁱblaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas ^jwaxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should ^kfirst have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves ^lunworthy of everlasting life, lo, we ^mturn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, ⁿ'I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the ^oGentiles heard this, they were glad, and ^pglorified the word of the Lord: and as many as ^qwere ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

THE ACTS 14

50 But the Jews stirred up the ^adevout and ^dhonourable women, and the chief men of the city, and ^eraised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they ^fshook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto ^hI-cō'-nī-ūm.

52 And the disciples were filled ^kwith joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER 14

AND it came to pass in ⁱI-cō'-nī-ūm, that they went both together ⁿinto the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But ^sthe unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they ^zspeaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto ^zthe word of his grace, and granted ^asigns and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, ^cto use them despitefully, and to ^cstone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled unto ^fLystra and Dēr'-bē, cities of Lŷ-cā-ō'-nī-ā, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And there ^gsat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who ^kstedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he ^mleaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lŷ-cā-ō'-nī-ā, ^r'The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

Paul healeth a cripple, and is stoned

12 And they called ^bBarnabas, ^cJupiter; and Paul, ^cMēr-cū'-rī-ūs, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, ²which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and ^gwould have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they ⁱrent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? ^mWe also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should ^oturn from these ^pvaniities unto the ^qliving God, ^rwhich made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who in times past ^usuffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless he ^vleft not himself without witness, in that he did good, and ^wgave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from ^bAn'-ti-ōch and I-cō'-nī-ūm, who persuaded the people, and, having ^dstoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Dēr'-bē.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to I-cō'-nī-ūm, and An'-ti-ōch, 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and ^hexhorting them to continue in the ⁱfaith, and that we must ^lthrough much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordained them ⁿelders in every church, and ^ohad prayed with ^pfasting, they ^qcommended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pi-sid'-i-ā, they came to ^sPamphylia.

END OF 15th Missionary Journey
CHAPTER 15

AND ⁿcertain men which came down from Judæa taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised ^oafter the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and ^aBarnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, ^tshould go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and ^uelders about this question.

3 And ^vbeing brought on their way by the church, they passed through ^zPhē-ni'cē and Samaria, declaring ^athe conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and ^bthey declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, ^sthat the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

hearts, bare them witness, ^agiving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 And ^eput no difference between us and them, ^fpurifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore ^gwhy tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, ^hwhich neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be ⁱsaved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what ^mmiracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, ^pJames answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

14 ^rSimeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, ^sto take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 ^xAfter this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, ^zsaith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works ^afrom the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which ^dfrom among the Gentiles are turned to God:

20 But ^ethat we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, ^fbeing read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to ^hĀn'ti-ōch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed ^kBarsabas, and ^a Silas, chief men among the brethren:

THE ACTS 16

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Ān-ti-ōch and Syria and Āi-liç-i-ä:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that ^f certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled ⁱ with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men ^m that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, ^r to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 ^t That ye abstain from ^u meats offered to idols, and ^v from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Ān-ti-ōch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being ^e prophets also themselves, ^f exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, ⁱ they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 ^b Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Ān-ti-ōch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after Paul said

Paul and Barnabas part asunder unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren ^b in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them ^c John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, ^a who departed from them from ^g Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto ^h Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose ^k Silas, and departed, ⁱ being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through ⁿ Syria and Āi-liç-i-ä, ^o confirming the churches.

CHAPTER 16

THEN came he to Dēr-bē and ^p Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named ^q Ti-mōth-ē-ūs, ^s the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

2 Which was ^a well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and ^z I-cō-ni-ūm.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and ^a took and circumcised him ^b because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them ^c the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and ^d elders which were at Jerusalem.

5 And ^e so were the churches established in ^h the faith, and ⁱ increased in number daily.

6 Now when they ^k had gone throughout ^m Phryg-i-ä and the region of ⁿ Galatia, and were forbidden ^o of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in ^q Asia,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into ^r Bithyn-i-ä: but ² the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia came down to ^s Trō-ās.

9 And a ^avision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of ^bMacedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately ^dwe endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Trōās, we came with a ^hstraight course to Sām-ō-thrā'čī-ā, and the next day to Nē-ā'pō-lis;

12 And from thence to ^kPhī-lip'pī, which is ³the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And ^mon the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of ^bThy-ā-tī-rā, ^qwhich worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she ^swas baptized, and ^ther household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, ^xcome into my house, and abide there. And she ^yconstrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a ^{4z}spirit of divination met us, ^awhich brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the ^amost high God, which shew unto us ^ethe way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee ^jin the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And ^hwhen her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and ⁱSilas, and ^kdrew them into the marketplace unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the ²magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, ^cdo exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude ^erose up together against them: and the magistrates ^jrent off their clothes, and commanded to ^gbeat them.

23 And when they had laid many ⁱstripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner ^lprison, and made their feet fast in ⁿthe stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great ^oearthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all ^rthe doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and ^uwould have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, ^bwhat must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, ^cBelieve on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was ^gbaptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with ^lall his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the ²serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, ^ebeing Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and ^ethey feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER 17

NOW when they had passed through Ām-phīp^l-ō-lis and Āp-ōl-lō^l-nī-ā, they came to ^mThēss-ā-lō-nī^c-cā, where was a ⁿsynagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them ^oout of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and ^qrisen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is ^sChrist.

4 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and ^tSilas; and of the ^udevout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But ^vthe Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of ^zJason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they ^adrew Jason and certain brethren

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas ^fby night unto ^hBē-rē^l-ā: who coming thither ⁱwent into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thēss-ā-lō-nī^c-cā, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and ^ksought the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of ^lhonourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thēss-ā-lō-nī^c-cā had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Bē-rē^l-ā, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and ^pTi-mōth^l-ē-ūs abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto ^rAthens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Ti-mōth^l-ē-ūs for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city ^xwholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Ēp-i-cū-rē^l-āns, and of the Stō^l-icks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babblers say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto Ār-ē-ōp-ā-gūs, saying, May we know what this ^cnew doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are ²too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God that ^kmade the world and all things therein, seeing that he is ^mLord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in ^otemples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, ^qas though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and ^rbreath, and all things;

26 And ^thath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath ^udetermined the times before appointed, and ^vthe bounds of their habitation;

27 That they ^zshould seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, ^bthough he be not far from every one of us:

28 For ^jin him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of ^hyour own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 ^lForasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, ^mwe ought not to think that the ⁴Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And the times of this ignorance ^bGod winked at; but now ^qcommandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness ^aby that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that ^bhe hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the ^dresurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, ^eWe will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Di-ō-nýs-i-ūs the Ār-ē-ōp-ā-gíte, and a woman named Dām-ā-ris, and others with them.

CHAPTER 18

AFTER these things Paul departed from ^jAthens, and came to ^gCorinth;

2 And found a certain Jew named ^hAquila, born in Pontus, lately come from ⁱItaly, with his wife ^hPriscilla; (because that ^lClaudius had commanded all Jews to depart from ⁿRome:) and came unto them.

3 And ^pbecause he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 And he reasoned ^sin the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And when ^sSilas and ^yTi-mōth-ē-ūs were come from Macedonia, Paul was ³pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was ^aChrist.

6 And ^cwhen they opposed themselves, and ^dblasphemed, he ^cshook his raiment, and said unto them, ^gYour blood be upon your own heads; ⁱI am clean: from henceforth ^kI will go unto the Gentiles.

7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, ⁿone that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 And ^oCrispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord ^rwith all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were ^sbaptized.

9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night ^a by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

THE ACTS 19

10 For ^c I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gāl'li-ō was the ^f deputy of Ā-chāi-ā, the Jews ^a made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the ⁱ judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gāl'li-ō said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But ^r if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took ^{*} Sōs-thē-nēs, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gāl'li-ō cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into ^c Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having ^d shorn his head in ^e Cēn-chrē-ā: for he ^f had a vow.

19 And he came to ^h Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself ^k entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, ² I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, ^o if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Cæsarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to ^e Ān-ti-ōch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and ^b went over all the country of Galatia and Phryg-ia in order, ^d strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ And a certain Jew named ^e Ā-pōl-lōs, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was ^h instructed ⁱ in the way of the Lord; and being ^k fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only ^m the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak ⁿ boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and ^o expounded unto him the ^p way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into ^q Ā-chāi-ā, the brethren ^s wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, ^t helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he ^u mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

CHAPTER 19

AND it came to pass, that, while ^a Ā-pōl-lōs was at ^c Corinth, Paul having passed ^a through the upper coasts came to ^b Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, ^g We have not so much as heard ⁱ whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, ⁱ Unto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, ^m saying unto the people, that they should believe on him ⁿ which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, ^b they were baptized ^a in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had ^r laid his hands upon them, the ^t Holy Ghost came on them; and ^athey spake with tongues, and ^cprophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he ^dwent into the synagogue, and ^gspake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading ^kthe things concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But ^mwhen divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of ⁿthat way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of ^stwo years; so that all they which dwelt in ^tAsia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought special ^ymiracles by the hands of Paul:

12 ^aSo that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the ^bevil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then certain of the vagabond Jews, ^cexorcists, ^dtook upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, ^fWe adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Scē^zvā, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And ^hthe evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and ^kfear fell on them all, and ^lthe name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and ^mconfessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which used ⁿcurious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 ^bSo mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul ^cpurposed in the spirit, ^fwhen he had passed through ^hMacedonia and ⁱA-chā^zā, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, ^lI must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, ^oTi-mōth^z-ē-ūs and ^pErastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time ^qthere arose no small stir about ^rthat way.

24 For a certain man named Dē-mē^ztrī-ūs, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for ^uDiana, ^xbrought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, ^zand said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, ^csaying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and ^gthe world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught ⁱGāi^z-ūs and ^jAr-is-tār^z-chūs, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the ^zchief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 ⁿSome therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander ^abeckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from ^oJupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither ^arobbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Dē-mē'-trī-ūs, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, ²the law is open, and there are ^{3s}deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAPTER 20

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into ^yMacedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had ^zgiven them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months. And when the Jews ^blaid wait for him, as he was about to sail into ^cSyria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into ^gAsia ^hSō'-pā-tēr of ⁱBē-rē-ā; and 5 These going before tarried for ^hus at ⁱTrō'ās.

6 And we sailed away from ^kPhīlip'-pī after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Trō'ās in five ^ldays; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon ^mthe first day of the week, when the disciples came together ⁿto break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the ^pupper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eū'-tý'-chūs, being fallen into a ^rdeep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and ^tembracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; ^ufor his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And ^vwe went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mīt'-ý-lē'-nē.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chī'-ōs; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trō-gýl'-lī-ūm; and the next day we came to ^aMi-lē'-tūs.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by ^cEphesus, because he ^dwould not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the ^fday of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Mi-lē'-tūs he sent to Paul's charge to the elders of Ephesus

Ephesus, and called the ^a elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, ^a from the first day that I came into Asia, ^f after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many ^k tears, and temptations, which befell me by ^m the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And ⁿ how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house,

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, ^r repentance toward God, and ^s faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that the ^{*} Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But none of these things move me, neither ^y count I my life dear unto myself, so ^z that I might finish my course with joy, and ^b the ministry, ^c which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone ^f preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that ^a I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For ⁱ I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

28 ^j Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the ⁿ flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you ²⁰ overseers, ^p to feed the church of God, which he hath ^q purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous ^s wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples ^u after them.

ber, that ^b by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, ^c I commend you to God, and to ^e the word of his grace, which is able to ^g build you up, and to give you ^h an inheritance among all ⁱ them which are sanctified.

33 ⁱ I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, that ^o these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 ^p I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought ^q to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, ^t It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ^q And when he had thus spoken, he ^u kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they ^a accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER 21

AND it came to pass, that after ^d we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a ^e straight course unto Cō'ös, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto ^h Phē-nīc'zjā, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered ^k Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into ^m Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul ^r through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all ^t brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we ^{*} kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

THE ACTS 21

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptol-ē-mā'is, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cæsarea: and we ^bentered into the house of ^dPhilip the ^e evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, ^fvirgins, which did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judæa a certain prophet, named ^hĀg'ā-būs.

11 And when he was come unto us, he ^ktook Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, ^m"Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for ^oI am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, ^pThe will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we ^atook up our ^scarriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cæsarea, and brought with them one Mnā'son of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto ^uJames; and all the ^velders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he ^bdeclared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ^dministry.

20 And when they heard it, they ^aglorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, ^cneither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have ^ea vow on them;

24 Them take, and ⁱpurify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may ^jshave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, ⁿwe have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them ^qentered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the ^rdays of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, ^tthe Jews which were of ^uAsia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: ^xThis is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath ^zpolluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city ^cTrōph'i-mūs an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and 31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the ²chief captain of the ^{3f}band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ⁱran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left ^abeating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be ^abound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And ^asome cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into ⁱthe castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 ^aFor the multitude of the people followed after, crying, ^aAway with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 ^aArt not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out ^ainto the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of ^cTarsus, a city in ^dÇi-liç-i-ä, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and ^abeckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in ^athe Hebrew tongue, saying,

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the ^cHebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in ^dTarsus, a city in ^eÇi-liç-i-ä, yet brought up in this city ^gat the feet of ^hGä-mä'li-ël, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was ^kzealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 And ⁱI persecuted ^mthis way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the ^pelders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to ^rDamascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 ^sAnd it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but ^zthey heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, ^bWhat shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one ^jAn-ä-ni'-äs, a devout man according to the law, having a ^ggood report of all the Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, ^kThe God of our fathers ^ahath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and ^bsee ^cthat Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For ^dthou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and ^ebe baptized, and ^fwash away thy sins, ^gcalling on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pass, that, ⁱwhen I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a ^ktrance;

18 And ^msaw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that ⁿI imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, ^oI also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for ^pI will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, ^qAway with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the ^rcastle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge ^sa man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

Paul is brought before the council

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also ^twas afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and ^ucommanded the chief priests and all their ^vcouncil to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER 23

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, ^wI have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the ^xhigh priest ^yĀn-ā-nī'ās commanded them that stood by him to ^zsmite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, ^{aa}thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, ^{ab}Reverilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, ^{ac}I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, ^{ad}Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were ^{ae}Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, ^{af}I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: ^{ag}I of the hope and ^{ah}resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For ^{ai}the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We 11 And the night following ^cthe Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for ^das thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at ^eRome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and ^fbound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and ^gelders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto ^hFelix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius ⁱLŷs-ĩ-ās unto the ^kmost excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: ^lthen came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that ^mhe was a Roman.

28 And ⁿwhen I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of ^oquestions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge ^pworthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and ^qgave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Ān-tip-ā-trīs.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

THE ACTS 24

33 Who, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of ^b Cī-līc'ī-ā;

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's ^{2d} judgment hall.

CHAPTER 24

AND ^s after five days ^g Ān-ā-nī'ās the high priest descended with the ^k elders, and with a certain orator named Tēr-tūl'lūs, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tēr-tūl'lūs began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that ³ very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, ^q most noble ^r Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For ^u we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the ^{*} sect of the Nazarenes:

6 Who also hath gone about to ^{pro} fane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lys'ī-ās came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge

Paul's defence of his life and doctrine unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are ^a yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 ^c Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after ^e the way which they call heresy, ^h so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are ⁱ written in the law and in the prophets:

15 And ^t have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be ^m a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and ⁿ unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, ^o to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years I came ^p to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me ^s purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 ^t Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

21 Except it be for this one voice, ^v that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of ^z that way, he deferred them, and said, When ^a Lys'ī-ās the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion ^b to keep Paul, and ^c to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drū-sil'ā, 26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Pôr^çi-üş ^f Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, ^g willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, ^h left Paul bound.

CHAPTER 25

NOW when ^k Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cæsarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cæsarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and the next day sitting on the ^o judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, ^r which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cæsar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, ^t willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cæsar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. ^e I appeal unto Cæsar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cæsar? unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days king ^h Ā-grip^çpā and Bēr-ni^çç came unto Cæsarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man ⁱ left in bonds by ^m Felix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the ⁿ elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had ^p certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of ^q one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul ^s had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cæsar.

22 Then Ā-grip^çpā said unto Festus,

THE ACTS 26

I would also hear the man myself.
^aTo morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Ä-grip-pä was come, and Bër-ni-çê, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Ä-grip-pä, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, ²crying that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that he ^hhad committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Ä-grip-pä, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER 26

THEN ^oÄ-grip-pä said unto Paul, ^pThou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Ä-grip-pä, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 ⁴My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion ²I lived a Pharisee,

Paul's defence before Agrippa

6 And now I stand and am judged ^bfor the hope of ^cthe promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise ^dour twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Ä-grip-pä, I am accused of the Jews.

8 ^eWhy should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 ^fI verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did ^hI shut up in prison, ⁱhaving received authority from the chief priests; and ^lwhen they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 ^mWhereupon as I went to ⁿDamascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were ^{all} fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying ^qin the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, ^rto make thee a ^sminister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, ^uunto whom now I send thee,

18 ^xTo open their eyes, and to turn them ^yfrom darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive ^a forgiveness of sins, and ^b inheritance among them which are ^c sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king \tilde{A} -grip'-pā, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But ^a shewed first unto them of Damascus, and ^b at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judæa, and then to the Gentiles, that they ^c should repent and ^d turn to God, and do ^e works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews ^e caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those ^e which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That ^a Christ should suffer, and that he should be the ^b first that ^c should rise from the dead, and should ^d shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, ^a thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, ^e most noble ^a Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King \tilde{A} -grip'-pā, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then \tilde{A} -grip'-pā said unto Paul, ^a Almost thou persuadest me to be a ^b Christian.

29 And Paul said, ^m I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bēr-nī'-cē, and they that sat with them:

31 And when they were gone aside,

CHAPTER 27

AND when it was ⁱ determined that ^k we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' ^{2p} band.

2 And entering into a ship of \tilde{A} d-rā-mýt'-tī-üm, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one ^q \tilde{A} r-is-tār'-chūs, a Macedonian of ^r Thëss-ä-lö-nī'-cä, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and ^e gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under ^a Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of ^b Çi-liç'-i-ä and ^c Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lyç'-i-ä.

6 And there the centurion found a ^f ship of Alexandria sailing into ^h Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cni'-dūs, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under ⁱ Crete, over against Säl-mö'-nē;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lă-sē'-ä.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because ^l the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul,

THE ACTS 27

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phē-nī-cē, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there ²arose against it a tempestuous wind, called ³Eū-rōc-ly-don.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Claudia, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they ^{4b}lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ²ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For ^fthere stood by me this night the ^gangel of God, whose I am, and ^hwhom I serve, 24 Saying, ⁱFear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sir, be of good cheer: for ^kI believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

Paul suffereth shipwreck at Melita

26 Howbeit ^awe must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms,

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for ^cthere shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and ^dgave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, ^bthey ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was ^cto kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAPTER 28

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that ^ethe island was called Melita.

2 And the ^fbarbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and ^greceived us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, ^kNo doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he ^lshook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and ^osaid that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ^aship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was ²Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Sŷr'ä-cŷse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhē'gŷ-ŷm: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Pŷ-tē'ö-li:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Äp'pŷ-i forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to ^bRome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself ⁱwith a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

18 Who, when they had examined me, ^mwould have let me go, ⁿbecause there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained ^mto appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: ^bbecause that for the hope of Israel I am ^qbound with this chain.

21 Because that, when they knew God, they ^xglorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but ^ybecame vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 ^bProfessing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And ^cchanged the glory of the ^duncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and ^ecreeping things.

24 Wherefore God also ^fgave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to ^gdishonour their own bodies between themselves:

25 Who changed the truth of God into ^aa lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, ^bwho is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things ^kwhich are not convenient;

29 ^mBeing filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, spiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 Who knowing the ³judgment of God, that they which commit such things ^sare worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAPTER 2

"THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art ^zthat judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, ^athou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of ^hhis goodness and ⁱforbearance and ^klongsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God ^aleadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart ^atreasurest up unto thyself wrath against the ^eday of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 ^fWho will render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To them who by ^hpatient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, ⁱeternal life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, and do not ^kobey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, ⁱindignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of ⁿthe Jew first, and also of the Gentile;

10 But glory, ^hhonour, and ^qpeace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

11 ^rFor ^sthere is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned ^twithout law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;

13 (For ^unot the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which shew the work of the law ^dwritten in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men ^vby Jesus Christ ^waccording to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and ^xretest in the law, and ^ymakest thy boast of God,

18 And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being ^zinstructed out of the law; teacher of babes, which hast ^bthe form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 ^dThou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not ^ecommit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou ²commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 ^mFor the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, ^oif thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore if ^rthe uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, ^ujudge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For ^vhe is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew, which is ^wone inwardly; and ^acircumcision is that of the heart, ^bin the spirit, and not in the letter; ^cwhose praise is not of men, but of God. Act 15: 4; Jer. 4: 4; Deut. 32: 6; Gal. 2: 11-12; Phil. 3: 3

CHAPTER 3

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that ^aunto them were committed the ^boracles of God.

3 For what ^cif some did not believe? ^mshall their unbelief make the ³faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, ⁿlet God be true, but ^bevery man a liar; as it is written, ^qThat thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what

No flesh is justified by the law shall we say? ^aIs God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? ^c(I speak as a man)

6 God forbid: for then how shall ^fGod judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; ^kwhy yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) ^mLet us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? ²are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both ^bJews and ^qGentiles, that they are all under sin;

10 ^rAs it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 ^uTheir throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; ^vthe poison of asps is under their lips:

14 ^zWhose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 ^bTheir feet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 ^aThere is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that ^fevery mouth may be stopped, and ^gall the world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there ⁱshall no flesh be justified in his sight: for ^kby the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now ⁿthe righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed ^oby the law and the prophets;

22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ ^bunto all and upon all them that believe: for ^dthere is no difference:

23 For ^eall have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

24 ^gBeing justified freely by ^hhis grace, ⁱthrough the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

25 Whom God hath set forth to be ^la propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness ⁿfor the remission of sins that are past, through the ^oforbearance of God;

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 ^sWhere is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 (Therefore) we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also ^tof the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing ^{3*}it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, ^uwe establish the law.

CHAPTER 4

WHAT shall we say then that ^vAbraham our father, (as pertaining to the flesh,) hath found?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? ^vAbraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now ^hto him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but ^lbelieveth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith ^mis counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

3* added by Paul

ROMANS 5

7 Saying, ^a Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And ^e he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, ⁿ that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to ^p his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For ^r if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because ^s the law worketh wrath: for ^t where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be ^u by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, I have made thee ^v a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even ^w God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth ^x those things which be not as though they were.

that which was spoken, ^b So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, ² he considered not his own body now dead, when he was ^c about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of ^d Sarah's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able ^e also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 ^f Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, ^g if we believe on him ^h that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

25 ⁱ Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER 5

THEREFORE ^k being justified ^l by faith, ^m we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: ⁿ Is. 32: 17-18

2 By whom also ^o we have access by faith into this grace ^q wherein we stand, and ^r rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but ^t we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation ^u worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 And ^v hope ^w maketh not ashamed; because ^x the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by ^y the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time ^z Christ died for the ungodly. ^a Gal. 4: 24

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But ^b God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified ^c by his blood, we shall be ^d saved from wrath through him.

10 For if, ^awhen we were enemies, ^bwe were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved ^dby his life

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the ²atonement.

12 Wherefore, as ^fby one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and ⁱso death passed upon all men, for that ^kall have sinned:

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but ^msin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned ^pafter the similitude of Adam's transgression, ^rwho is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and ^xthe gift ^yby grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if by one man's offence death ^areigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so ⁱby the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover ^lthe law ³entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, ^mgrace did much more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness ^punto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6

WHAT shall we say then? ^a Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall ^ewe, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that so many of us ^gas were baptized into Jesus Christ ^hwere baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as ^lChrist was raised up from the dead ⁿby the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk ^oin newness of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in ^qthe likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that ^sour old man ^tis crucified with him, that ^uthe body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For ^zhe that is dead is freed from sin.

8 Now ^aif we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that Christ ^bbeing raised from the dead ^cdieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin ^eonce: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but ^falive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 ^gLet not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye ^hyour members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but ^kyield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ⁿye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? ^oshall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

ROMANS 7

*Paul speaks of present state as
Xⁿ. The law of sin*

16 ¹⁶ Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be ^a thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart ^f that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

18 ¹⁸ Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness. → divine name or standard of life

19 ¹⁹ I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.

21 ²¹ What fruit had ye then in those things ^o whereof ye are now ashamed? for ^a the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become ^r servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end ^e everlasting life.

23 For ^a the wages of sin is death; but ^g the gift of God is ^e eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 7

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For ^a the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then if, while her husband liveth, ^e she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become ^a dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who ⁱ is raised from the dead, that we should ^k bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions ^{of sins}, which were by the law, ^b did work in our members to bring forth ^c fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve ^e in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, ^h I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, ^k Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For ^l without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, ⁿ which was ordained to life, ^p I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore ⁿ the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am ^b carnal, ^c sold under sin.

15 For that which I do I allow not: for ^d what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then ^f it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that ^g in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

(the innumerable selfishness of the flesh)

Christ our Victory

20 Now if I do that I would not, ^a it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For ^e I delight in the law of God after ^e the inward man:

23 But I see another law in my members, ^h warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from ⁱ the body of this death?

25 ⁿ I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8

THERE is therefore now ^t no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, ^h who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.)

2 For the law of ^z the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath ^b made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law ^d could not do, ^j in that it was weak through the flesh, ^g God sending his own Son ^h in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, ⁱ who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For ^m they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded ^o is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and ^p peace.

7 Because the carnal mind is ^q enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, ^r neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that ^u the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not ^z the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And ^b if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but ^c the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him ^d that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead ^j shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, ⁱ not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ^k ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do ^m mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are ^o led by the Spirit of God, they are the ^p sons of God.

15 For ye have not received ^q the spirit of bondage again to fear; ^r but ye have received the Spirit of ^s adoption, whereby we cry, ^u Abba, Father.

16 ^x The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the ^y children of God:

17 And if children, then ^a heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; ^c if so be that we suffer with him, that ^e we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are ^h not worthy to be compared with ^k the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the ^l creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the ⁿ creature ^o was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same ^p in hope,

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation ^s groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the ^t firstfruits of the Spirit, even ^u we ourselves groan within ourselves, ^v waiting for the adoption, to wit, ^w the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved ^aby hope: but ^chope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with ^epatience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for ^fwe know not ²what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And ⁱhe that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he ^kmaketh intercession for the saints ^laccording to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them ^othat love God, to them who are the ^pcalled according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did ^qforeknow, he also did ^rpredestinate to be conformed ^yto the image of his Son, that he might be ^athe firstborn among many ^cbrethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also ^gjustified: and whom he justified, them he also ⁱglorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? ⁱIf God be for us, who can be against us?

32 ⁿHe that spared not his own Son, but ^pdelivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's ^relect? ^sIt is God that justifieth.

34 ^uWho is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even ²at the right hand of God, ^zwho also maketh intercession for us.

35 ^bWho shall separate us from ^cthe love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, ^fFor thy sake ^hwe are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, in all these things we are

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor ^dprincipalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

^hI SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

6 ⁿNot as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For ^kthey are not all Israel, which are of Israel: ^{6d}

7 Neither, because they are the seed ⁶of ^mAbraham, are they all children: but, ⁶ⁱIn Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 ^gThat is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, ⁹At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but when ^yRebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father ^aIsaac;

God hath mercy on whom he will 14 What shall we say then? ^aIs there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, ^bI will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that will-eth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith unto Phâr-âoh, Even ^dfor this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he ^ehardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, ^hWhy doth he yet find fault? For ⁱwho hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, ⁱwho art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not ^othe potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one ^bvessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? (even the clay)

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the ^vvessels of wrath ^sfitted to destruction: ready for

23 And that he might make known ^uthe riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore ^zprepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also ^zof the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in ^ôÿ'sêe, ^bI will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And ^eit shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 ^E-sâi'as also crieth concerning Israel, ^hThough the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

9:30-10:21. The Faith of the Gentiles & the Unbelief of Israel.
ROMANS 10

28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as ^E-sâi'as said before, ^eExcept the Lord of Sâ-bâ'ôth had left us a seed, we had been as Söd'ô-mâ, and been made like unto Gô-môr-rhâ.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even ^ethe righteousness which is of faith.

31 But Israel, which ^ffollowed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at ^kthat stumblingstone;

33 As it is written, ^mBehold, I lay in Sion ⁿa stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

CHAPTER 10

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record that they have a ^ezeal of God, but not according to knowledge. cf. Rom. 11:26 for 'knowledge'

3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and ⁱgoing about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. title 13-27

4 For ^yChrist is the end of the law for righteousness to ^aevery one that believeth. Axiomatic

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness ^ewhich is of the law, That ^dthe man which doeth those things shall live by them. First. Deut. 27.

6 ^fBut ^athe righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the ²deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

Became 9 That ^bif thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that ^dGod hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. (Is. 28:16)

12 For ^hthere is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for ^kthe same Lord ^lover all is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For ^mwhosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But ^othey have not all obeyed the gospel. For E-sai'as saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

17 So then ^afaith cometh by hearing, and ^bhearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, ^ctheir sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But E-sai'as is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER 11

I SAY then, ^aHath God cast away his people? God forbid. For ^cI also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people ^ewhich he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of ^fE-li'as? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Ba'al.

5 Even so then at this present time also there is ^aa remnant according to the ^celection of grace.

6 And if ^bby grace, then ^cis it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? ^aIsrael hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the ^belection hath obtained it, and the rest were ^cblinded

8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day. Deut. 29:4; Is. 6:10

9 And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompense unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back away.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation ^ais come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am ^bthe apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and ^bmight save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be ^cthe reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if ^dthe firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches be ^ebroken off, and thou, ^fbeing a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them ^gpartakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

18 Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and ^hthou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but ⁱfear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the ^jgoodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, ^kif thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And ^lthey also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, ^mlest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that ⁿblindness in part is happened to Israel, until ^othe fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, ^pThere shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

27 For this is my covenant unto them, ^awhen I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are ^dbeloved for the fathers' sakes.

29 For the gifts and ^ecalling of God are ^fwithout repentance.

30 For as ye ^hin times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For God hath ^mconcluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the ⁿwisdom and knowledge of God! how ^ounsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34 For ^pwho hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or ^swho hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For ^tof him, and through him, and ^uto him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAPTER 12

I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye ^bpresent your bodies ^ca living sacrifice, holy, ^dacceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And ^ebe not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the ^frenewing of your mind, that ye may ^gprove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For I say, through ^hthe grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, ⁱnot to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, ^jaccording as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

4 ^kFor as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So we, ^lbeing many, are ^mone body in Christ, and every one ⁿmembers one of another.

6 ^aHaving then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether ^bprophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ^cministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on ^dteaching;

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: ^ehe that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ^fruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 ⁱLet love be without dissimulation. ^kAbhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 ^lBe kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; ^min honour preferring one another;

11 Not slothful in business; ⁿ fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 ^oRejoicing in hope; ^ppatient in tribulation; ^qcontinuing instant in prayer;

13 ^rDistributing to the necessity of saints; ^sgiven to hospitality.

14 ^tBless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 ^uRejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 ^vBe of the same mind one toward another. ^wMind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. ^xBe not wise in your own conceits.

17 ^yRecompense to no man evil for evil. ^zProvide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, ^{aa}live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, ^{ab}Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 Therefore ^{ac}if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have ^cpraise of the same:

4 For ^ehe is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also ^mfor conscience sake.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 ^sRender therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; ^xhonour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, ^zbut to love one another: for ^{aa}he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, ^{ab}Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, ^{ac}Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time ^mto awake out of sleep: for ⁿnow is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is ^bat hand: let us therefore cast off the ^qworks of darkness, and ^rlet us put on the armour of light.

13 ^sLet us walk honestly, as in the day; ^tnot in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

14 But ^uput ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and ^vmake not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER 14

HIM that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of: for so shall the weak be made strong.

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER 15

WE then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 Now the God of patience and 6 That ye may ^cwith one mind and one mouth ^dglorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore ^ereceive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God. (you)

8 Now I say that Jesus Christ ^gwas a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm ⁱthe promises made unto the fathers:

9 And that ^kthe Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, ^mFor this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, ⁿRejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, ^pPraise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again, E-sâi-âs saith, ^rThere shall be a root of Jesse, and ^the that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with ^zall joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with ^aall knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, ^cbecause of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 ^uThat I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that ^vthe offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being ^wsanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 ⁱI have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ ^kin those things which pertain to God.

18 For ^mI will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

The extensiveness of Paul's preaching

19 ^bThrough mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Il-tyr-i-cum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, ^jnot where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, ^hTo whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also ⁱI have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and ^ohaving a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, ^qI will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and ^sto be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now I go unto Jerusalem ^uto minister unto the saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of ^vMacedonia and ^zA-chai-a to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For ^bif the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

CHAPTER 16 Recommends

I COMMEND unto you Phē^cbē our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cēn-chrē^a:

2 That ye^e receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who have for my life¹ laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 Likewise greet^a the church that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved Ep-ā-nē-tūs, who is the firstfruits of A-chāi^a unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute An-drō-nī-cūs and Jū-nī^a, my kinsmen, and^z my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Am-pli^as my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stāch^cys my beloved.

10 Salute A-pēl^clēš approved in Christ. Salute them which are of A-ris-tō-bū^clūs' household.

11 Salute Hē-rō^cdi-on my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute A-syn^ccri-tūs, Phlegon, Hermas, Pāt-rō^cbās, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Phi-lōl^cō-gūs, and Julia,

Nē^crēus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

16^c Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, ^amark them which cause divisions and offences¹ contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but^h their own belly; andⁱ by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 For^m your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and^{2o} simple concerning evil.

20 And the^b God of peace shall^g bruise Satan under your feet shortly.

^s The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

21¹ Ti-mōth^c-ē-ūs my workfellow, and^a Lucius, and^e Jason, and^y Sō-sip^c-ā-tēr, my kinsmen, salute you.

22 I Tertius, ^awho wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23^b Gāi^c-ūs mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. ^cErastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quārtus a brother.

24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

25 Now^d to him that is of power to stablish you^e according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, ^faccording to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret^g since the world began,

26 But now is made manifest, and^h by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of^k the everlasting God, made known to all nations^l for the obedience of faith:

27 To God^m only wise, ⁿbe glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and ^bSōs'thē-nēs our brother, 2 Unto the church of God which is at ^cCorinth, to them that are ^fsanctified in Christ Jesus, ^gcalled to be saints, with all that in every place ⁱcall upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both their's and our's:

3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 ^lI thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are ^menriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as ^rthe testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for ^tthe coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be ^yblameless in ^athe day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 ^bGod is faithful, by whom ^cye were called unto ^dthe fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in ^hthe same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chlō'ē, ^mthat there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that ⁿevery one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of ^oĀ-pōl'lōs; and I of ^pQē'phās; and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that ^aI baptized none of you, but ^cCrispus and ^dGai'ūs;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also ^hthe household of Stēph-ā-nās: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: ^knot with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is ⁿto them that perish ^ofoolishness; but unto us ^pwhich are saved it is ^qthe power of God.

19 For it is written, ^sI will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 ^uWhere is the wise? ^vwhere is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? ^whath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom ^xknew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For ^ythe Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach ^zChrist crucified, unto the Jews ^aa stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks ^bfoolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the ^cwisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see ^dyour calling, brethren, how that ^enot many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But ^a God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen ^d the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and ^a things which are not, ^h to bring to nought things that are:

29 ⁱ That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us ⁱ wisdom, and ^m righteousness, and ⁿ sanctification, and ^o redemption:

31 That, according as it is written, ^q He that glorieth, ^r let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER 2

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, ^t came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, ^x declaring unto you the ³ testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, ^a save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And ^b I was with you ^c in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of ^f the Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in ^h the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are ⁱ perfect: yet ^m not the wisdom of this world, nor of ^o the princes of this ⁶ world, that ^p come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God ^r in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for ^u had they known it, they would not have crucified ^x the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, ^z Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for ^b them that love him.

10 But ^c God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for ^e the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, ^f save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now ^k we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, ^p not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; ² comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But ^s the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are ^u foolishness unto him: ^y neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is ^z spiritual ⁴ judgeth all things, yet he himself is ⁵ judged of no man.

16 For ^d who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But ^e we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto ^g spiritual, but as unto ⁱ carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 ^k I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ⁿ ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas ^a there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

4 For while ^s one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of ^t A-pōl-lōs; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is A-pōl-lōs, but ^y ministers by whom ye believed, ^a even as the Lord gave to every man?

6^a I have planted, ^b Ā-pōl-lōs watered; but God gave the increase.

7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now ^c he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and ^d every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For we are ^e labourers together with God: ye are ^f God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

10 ^g According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the ^h foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, ⁱ which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 ^j Every man's work shall be made manifest: for ^k the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed ^l by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; ^m yet so as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ⁿ ye are the temple of God, and that the ^o Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. ^p If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For ^q the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, ^r He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, ^s The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore ^t let no man glory in men. For ^u all things are your's;

22 Whether Paul, or Ā-pōl-lōs, or Cē-phās, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's;

23 And ^v ye are Christ's; and ^w Christ is God's.

CHAPTER 4

LET a man so account of us, as of the ^b ministers of Christ, and ^c stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's ^d judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For ^e I know nothing ^f by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 Therefore ^g judge nothing before the time, ^h until the Lord come, ⁱ who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will ^j make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and ^k then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to ^l Ā-pōl-lōs for your sakes; that ye might learn in us ^m not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and ⁿ what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, now ^o ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, ^p as it were appointed to death: for we are ^q made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ^r ye are wise in Christ; ^s we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour ^t we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

12 And labour, ^aworking with our own hands: ^dbeing reviled, we bless; being ^epersecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are ^hthe offscouring of all things unto this day.

14 ^kI write not these things to shame you, but ^mas my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus ^pI have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, ^rbe ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you ^tTi-mōth'-ē-ūs, who is ^umy beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, ^vas I teach every where in every church.

18 Now some are ^zpuffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 But ^aI will come to you shortly, ^bif the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For ^cthe kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in ^fthe spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER 5

IT is reported commonly that ^hthere is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, ^kthat one should have his father's wife.

2 And ye are ^mpuffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For I verily, ^oas absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^pwhen ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 ^bTo deliver such an one ^cunto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved ^fin the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 ^gYour glorying is not good. Know ye not that ⁱa little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 ^jPurge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even ⁿChrist our passover is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore ^olet us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with ^qthe leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle ^snot to company with fornicators:

10 Yet ^tnot altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge ^dthem also that are without? ^edo not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore ^gput away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER 6

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not ⁱbefore the saints?

2 Do ye not know that ^jthe saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall ⁿjudge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 ^qI speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. ^fWhy do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye ^hdo wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous ⁱshall not inherit the kingdom of God? ^kBe not deceived: ^lneither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And ^msuch were some of you: but ⁿye are washed, but ye are ^osanctified, but ye are ^qjustified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 ^sAll things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 ^{*}Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but ^zGod shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but ^afor the Lord; and ^bthe Lord for the body.

14 And ^dGod hath both raised up the Lord, and ^ewill also raise up us by ^ghis own power.

15 Know ye not that ^hyour bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? ^kfor two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is ^mone spirit.

18 ⁿFlee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

19 What? know ye not that your body is ^athe temple of the Holy Ghost ^bwhich is in you, which ye have of God, and ^cye are not your own?

20 For ^dye are bought with a price: therefore ^eglorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER 7

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: ^gIt is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, ^pexcept it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, ^rthat Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this ^tby permission, and not of commandment.

7 For ^uI would that all men were even as I myself. But ^vevery man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, ^cIt is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, ^flet them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, ⁱLet not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest ^lspeak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: ^b else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us ^d to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, ^a whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But ^h as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord ^k hath called every one, so let him walk. And ⁱ so ordain I ^m in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? ⁿ let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

19 ^o Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, ^b but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 ^a Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is ^r the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free; is ^s Christ's servant.

23 ^t Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, ^u let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins ^v I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as ^w one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that ^z it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, ^a the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and ^c they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not ² abusing it: for ^f the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you ^g without carefulness. ⁱ He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he becometh himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 So then he that giveth her in marriage ^a doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 ^b The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; ^a only in the Lord.

I CORINTHIANS 8, 9

40 But she is happier if she so abide, ^c after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8

NOW as touching things ^a offered unto idols, we know that we all ^h have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, ⁱ but charity edifieth.

2 And ^k if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But ⁿ if any man love God, the same ⁿ is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, ^a we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that ^r there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

6 But to us ^s there is but one God, the Father, ^a of whom are all things, and we in him; and ^b one Lord Jesus Christ, ^c by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But ^j meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.

9 But take heed lest by any means ⁱ this liberty of your's become a ^j stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And through thy knowledge ^a shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But when ^b ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

Christian liberty not to be abused

13 Wherefore, ^b if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAPTER 9

AM I not an apostle? ^d am I not free? ^f have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? ^g are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for ⁱ the seal of ^m mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

4 ^b Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as ^c the brethren of the Lord, and ^c Cē-phās?

6 Or I only and ⁿ Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

7 ^{*} Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? ^z who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 ^d Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, ^e Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? ^g For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth ^h in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 ^k If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless ⁱ we have not used this power; but suffer all things, ^m lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know that ⁿ they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even ^a so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But ^bI have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make ^cmy glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for ^fnecessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have ⁱa reward: but if against my will, a ^{3h}dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For ⁿthough I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, ^othat I might gain the more.

20 And ^qunto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, ^kthat I might gain them that are under the law;

21 To them that are without law, as ^uwithout law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 ^bTo the weak ^cbecame I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this ⁱI do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the ⁱprize? ^kSo run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that ^mstriveth ^bfor the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we ⁿan incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

CHAPTER 10

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were ^dunder the cloud, and all ^epassed through the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And ^edid all eat the same ^hspiritual meat;

4 And ⁱdid all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for ^mthey were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, ^bas they also lusted.

7 ^rNeither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, ^sThe people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 ^tNeither let us commit fornication, ^xas some of them committed, and ^yfell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 ^zNeither let us tempt Christ, ^aas some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of ^dserpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, ^eas some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of ^fthe destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and ^gthey are written for our admonition, upon whom ^hthe ends of ⁴the world are come.

12 Wherefore ⁱlet him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but ^oGod is faithful, ^bwho will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, ^qflee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 ^bThe cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? ^aThe bread which we break, is it not the communion of ^ethe body of Christ?

17 For ^gwe being many are one bread, and ^hone body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold Israel after the flesh: ^kare not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? ⁿthat the idol is any thing, or ^othat which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles ^rsacrifice, they sacrifice to ²devils, and ^snot to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 ^{*}Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of ^athe table of devils.

22 ^bDo we provoke the Lord to jealousy? ^dare we stronger than he?

23 ^fAll things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 ^hLet no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 ⁱWhatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:

26 For ^kthe earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 ^mIf any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; ^owhatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for ^qwhy is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that ^sfor which I give thanks?

CHAPTER 11

BE ye ^lfollowers of me, even ^mas I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and ^pkeep the ordinances, as I ^qdelivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that the ^thead of every man is Christ; and the ^uhead of the woman is the man; and the ^vhead of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or ^zprophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But every ^cwoman that prayeth or prophesieth ^ewith her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one ^gas if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is ^lthe image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For ⁿthe man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but ^pthe woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman ³to have power on her head because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but ^rall things of God.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear ^cthat there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For ^fthere must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, ²this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and ^oshame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 ^rFor ^sI have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed ^utook bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took ^vthe cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death ^dtill he come.

27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But ^hlet a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many ^csleep.

31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, ^dwe are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest ^hwill I set in order ⁱwhen I come.

CHAPTER 12

NOW concerning spiritual ^kgifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ^lye were Gentiles, ^mcarried away unto these ⁿdumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking ^bby the Spirit of God calleth Jesus ^{3q}accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, ¹but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now ^{*}there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And ^vthere are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God ^zwhich worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit ^ais given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of ^bwisdom; to another the word of ^cknowledge by the same Spirit;

9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the ^cgifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 To another the ^fworking of miracles; to another ^gprophecy; to another ⁱdiscerning of spirits; to another ^adivers kinds of tongues; to another the ^binterpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

12 For ^cas the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: ^dso also is Christ.

13 For ^eby one Spirit are we all ^fbaptized into one body, whether we be ^gJews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath ^hGod set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

28 And God hath set some in the church, ^efirst ^fapostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly ^gteachers, after that ^hmiracles, then ⁱgifts of healings, helps, ^jgovernments, ^kdiversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all ^linterpret?

31 But ^mcovet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER 13

THOUGH I speak ⁿwith the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of ^oprophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all ^pknowledge; and though I have all ^qfaith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And ^rthough I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 ^sCharity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, ^tis not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, ^useeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 ^vBeareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see ^{2b} through a glass, darkly; but then ^c face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also ^d I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, ^e hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER 14

^a FOLLOW after charity, and ^b desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may ⁱ prophesy.

2 For ^k he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but ⁿ rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he ^o interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by ^q revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the ^t trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a ^a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the ^f edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: ⁱ I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say ^m Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice ^b be ye children, but in understanding ^r be ³ men.

21 In the law it is written, ^e With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, ^awill they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are ^cthe secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face, he will worship God, and ^ereport that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a ^krevelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other ^sjudge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in ^aall churches of the saints.

34 ^cLet your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to ^ebe under obedience, as also saith the law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 ^hIf any man think himself to be a prophet, or ⁱspiritual, ^klet him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

CHAPTER 15

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel ^dwhich I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and ^fwherein ye stand;

2 By which also ^gye are saved, ^hif ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, ⁱunless ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all ^lthat which I also received, how that ^mChrist died for our sins ⁿaccording to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that ^ohe rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

5 And that ^phe was seen of Cē-phās, then ^qof the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen ^rof above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are ^tfallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then ^uof all the apostles.

8 And last of all he was ^xseen of me also, as of one ^yborn out of due time.

9 For ^zI am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because ^bI persecuted the church of God.

10 But ^dby the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but ^fI laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, ^ghow say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are ^kfallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the ^mfirstfruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also ⁿthe resurrection of the dead.

22 For ^oas in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward ^pthey that are Christ's ^qat his coming.

24 ^rThen cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, ^still he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 ^tThe last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For ^uhe hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, ^vwhich did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall ^zthe Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And ^awhy stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, ^eI die daily.

32 If after the manner of men ^aI have fought with beasts at ^bEphesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? ^clet us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

33 ^dBe not deceived: ^eevil communications corrupt good manners.

34 ^fAwake to righteousness, and ^gsin not; for ^hsome have not the knowledge of God: ⁱI speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, ^lexcept it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonour; ^{*}it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, ^aThe first man Adam was made a living soul; ^bthe last Adam was made a ^cquickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, ^fearthly: ^gthe second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, ^dwe shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that ^fflesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; ^hWe shall not all sleep, but ⁱwe shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for ⁿthe trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and ^rthis mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, ^{*}Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 ^yO death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and ^{*}the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us ^ethe victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, ^galways abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

5 Now ^aI will come unto you, ^bwhen I shall pass through ^cMacedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may ^ebring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, ^gif the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at ^kEphesus until ^tPentecost.

9 For a ^mgreat door and effectual is opened unto me, and ^othere are many adversaries.

10 Now if ^pTi-mōth'-ē-ūs come, see that he may be with you without fear: for ^qhe worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 ^sLet no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth ^tin peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother ^uÄ-pöl'-lös, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 ^aWatch ye, ^bstand fast in ^cthe faith, quit you like men, ^dbe strong.

14 ^fLet all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the ^hhouse of Stēph'-ä-nās, that it is the firstfruits of ⁱÄ-chāi'-ä, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)

16 ^kThat ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stēph'-ä-nās and Fōr-tū-nā-tūs and Ä-chāi'-i-cūs: for ⁿthat which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

18 For they have ^prefreshed my spirit and your's: therefore ^qacknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The churches of ^sAsia salute you. ^uAquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with ^{*}the church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you,

^aGreet ye one another with an holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Paul ^cwith mine own hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be ^dÄ-näth-ë-mä ²Mär-än-ä-thä.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and ^bTimothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at ^dCorinth, with all the saints which are in all ^aÄ-chäi-ä:

2 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ^bBlessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the ⁱGod of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For ⁿas the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And ^bwhether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that ⁿas ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of ^zour trouble which came to us in ^aAsia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God ^awhich raiseth the dead:

10 ^cWho delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 ^jYe also helping together by prayer for us, that ^gfor the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, ^kthe testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly ^lsincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, ^mwe have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and ^oI trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that ^qwe are your rejoicing, even as ^rye also are our's in ^sthe day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded ^tto come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit;

16 And to pass by you into ^uMacedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you ^vto be brought on my way toward Judæa.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as ^aGod is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For ^cthe Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and ^dSil-vā-nūs and Ti-mōth-ē-ūs, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For all ^fthe promises of God in him are yea, and in him ^gAmen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath ⁱanointed us, is God;

22 Who hath also ^jsealed us, and given ⁿthe earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover ^pI call God for a record upon my soul, that ^rto spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 ^tNot for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for ^uby faith ye stand.

CHAPTER 2

BUT I determined this with myself, ^athat I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For ^bif I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; ^fhaving confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you ^hwith many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but ^kthat ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is ^mthis punishment, which was inflicted of many.

7 So that contrariwise ^qye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, ^bwhether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ;

11 ^cLest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to ^hTrō-lās to preach Christ's gospel, and ^ka door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 ^mI had no rest in my spirit, because I found not ^aTitus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into ^qMacedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, ^swhich always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a ^tsweet savour of Christ, ^yin them that are saved, and in ^zthem that perish:

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And ^cwho is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, ^dwhich corrupt the word of God: but as of ^esincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

CHAPTER 3

DO we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, ⁱepistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 ^jYe are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but ⁿwith the Spirit of ^othe living God; not in ^ptables of stone, but in fleshy ^rtables of the heart.

4 And ^ssuch trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 ^tNot that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God; 6 Who also hath made us able ^uministers of ^vthe new ²testament; ^ynot of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, ^bbut the spirit giveth life.

7 But if ^cthe ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses ^hfor the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if ^mthe ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which ^Lremaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have ⁱsuch hope, ^zwe use great plainness of speech:

13 And not as Moses, which ^zput a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

14 But ^dtheir minds were ³blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away ^jin the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless when ^hit shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now ⁱthe Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, ⁱthere is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face ^{4m}beholding ^oas in a ⁵glass the glory of the Lord, ^qare changed ^rinto the same image from glory to glory even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER 4

THEREFORE seeing we have ^{*}this ministry, ^yas we have received mercy, we faint not;

craftiness, nor ^ahandling the word of God deceitfully; but ^cby manifestation of the truth ^dcommending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But ^jif our gospel be ²hid, it is hid to ^gthem that are lost:

4 In whom ⁱthe god of this world ^khath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, ⁱwho is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For ⁿwe preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ^oourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, ^bwho commanded the light to shine out of darkness, ^qhath shined in our hearts, to give ^rthe light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this ^mtreasure in ^searthen vessels, that the excellency of ⁿthe power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are ^ytroubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 ^aPersecuted, but ^bnot forsaken; ^ccast down, but not destroyed;

10 ^eAlways bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, ^gthat the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, ^kI believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that ⁿhe which raised up the Lord Jesus ^pshall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For ^sall things are for your sakes, ^tthat the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to ^uthe glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet ^athe inward man ^bis renewed day by day.

II CORINTHIANS 5, 6

17 For ^aour light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look ^cnot at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5

FOR we know that if our ^searthly house of this ^ttabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this ^twe groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but ^tclothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us ^uthe earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For ^swe walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be ^dpresent with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we ^llabour, that, whether present or absent, we may be ^eaccepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before ^sthe judgment seat of Christ; ^hthat every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore ^mthe terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are ^mmade manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For ^qwe commend not ourselves again unto you, but ^rgive you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye

Paul's faithfulness in the ministry may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether we be ^bbeside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For ^dthe love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if ^eone died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live should ^fnot henceforth live unto themselves, ^hbut unto him which died for them, and ^krose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be ^min Christ, he is ⁿa new creature: ^oold things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And ^pall things are of God, ^qwho hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us ^sthe ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that ^tGod was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ^uambassadors for Christ, ^vas though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For ^ahe hath made him to be sin for us, ^bwho knew no sin; ^cthat we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER 6

WE then, as ^fworkers together with him, ⁱbeseech you also ^kthat ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, ^tI have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, ^unow is the day of salvation.)

3 ^bGiving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things approving ourselves ^sas the ministers of God, ^tin much patience, (in ^a afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In ^d stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;)

6 (By pureness, by knowledge, by ^f longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by ^g love unfeigned,

7 By ^h the word of truth, by ⁱ the power of God, by ^j the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,)

8 (By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report, as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and yet well known; ^a as dying, and, behold, we live; ^b as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; ^c as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.)

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto ^u my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 ^v Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for ^w what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and ^x what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And ^y what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ^b ye are the temple of ^c the living God; as God hath said, ^d I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore ^e come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 And will be a Father unto you, and ^f ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith ^g the Lord Almighty.

of the flesh and spirit, ^b perfecting holiness ^c in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, ^e we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is ^k my boldness of speech toward you, great is ^m my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, when we were come into ⁿ Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless God, ^q that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of ^r Titus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For ^t though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that ^h our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because ^bhis spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the ^dobedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoyce therefore that I ^ehave confidence in you in all things.

CHAPTER 8

^gMOREOVER, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of ⁱMacedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto ^kthe riches of their liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we should receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Inasmuch that we desired ^pTitus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore, ^qas ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 ^rI speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, ^sthough he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, ^tthat ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward ^aa year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For if there be first ^ca willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for ^ftheir want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, ^hHe that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And ⁱwe have sent with him ^mthe brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also ⁿchosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us ^oto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 ^rProviding for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the ^tgreat confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the ^ymessengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of ^bour boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9

FOR as touching ^dthe ministering to the saints, ^eit is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, ^ffor which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that ^gÄ-chäi-ä was ready ^ha year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet ^khave I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, ^las I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 But this I say, ^rHe which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and ^she which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; ^tnot grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 And ^uGod is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 (As it is written, ^zHe hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: ¹his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that ministereth ^cseed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and ^eincrease the fruits of your righteousness;)

11 ^fBeing enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which ^gcauseth through us thanksgiving to God.

service not only supplieth ^athe want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

CHAPTER 10

NOW I Paul myself ^mbeseech you by the ⁿmeekness and gentleness of Christ, who ^oin presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, ^pthat I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (For the weapons of ^qour warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 Casting down ³imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when ^ryour obedience is fulfilled.

7 ^sDo ye look on things after the outward appearance? ^aIf any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even ^bso are we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of ^dour authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For ^hhis letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but ^ahis bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

II CORINTHIANS 11

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that ^acommend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 But ^awe will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for ^kwe are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 ^mNot boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and ⁿnot to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

17 But ^ohe that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For ^pnot he that commendeth himself is approved, but ^qwhom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER 11

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in ^bmy folly: and indeed bear with me.

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for ^cI have espoused you to one husband, that I ^emay present you ^fas a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, ^has the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds ⁱshould be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh ^jpreacheth

Paul's excuse for his selfboasting another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or ^banother gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 For I suppose ^cI was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But ^dthough I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but ^fwe have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God ^hfreely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for ⁱthat which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia ^jsupplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 ^kAs the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this ^oboasting in the regions of ^pA-chai'a.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? ^qGod knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, ^sthat I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are ^tfalse apostles, deceitful workers, ^ztransforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an ^aangel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; ^dwhose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet ^gas a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which ^hI speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

CHAPTER 12

18 Seeing that ^amany glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, ^bseeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, if a man ^cbring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? ⁱso am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) ⁱI am more; ^min labours more abundant, in ⁿstripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I ^pforty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I ^qbeaten with rods, once was I ^rstoned, thrice I ^ssuffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in ^uhunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of ^zall the churches.

29 ^aWho is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, ^cI will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^ewhich is blessed for evermore, knoweth ^gthat I lie not.

32 In ⁱDamascus the governor under Ar-ē-tās the king kept the city of the Dām-ās-cēnes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket ⁿwas I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and ^drevelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man ^ein Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether ^fout of the body, I cannot tell: ^gGod knoweth;) such an one ^hcaught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into ^kparadise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself ^aI will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, ^tthe messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord ^xthrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for ^ymy strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I ^btake pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for ^dwhen I am weak, then am I strong.

11 ^fI am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for ^hI ought to have been commended of you: for ^kin nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 ⁱTruly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you ^min all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be ^bthat I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, ^dthe third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not your's, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And ^hI will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.²

17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 ⁿI desired Titus, and with him I sent ^oa brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak ^qbefore God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, ^swhen I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: ^ulest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many ^zwhich have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and ^cfornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAPTER 13

o Or as when and being absent now I write to ^athem which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, ^cI will not spare:

3 ^eSince ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth ^fby the power of God. For ^gwe also are weak in him, but ⁱwe shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 ^kExamine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that ^lJesus Christ is in you, except ye be ^mreprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God ^pthat ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad, ^rwhen we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even ^tyour perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, ^saccording to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell, ^uBe perfect, be of good comfort, ^abe of one mind, ^blive in peace; and the ^dGod of love and peace shall be with you.

^jThe second epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, ^aan apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, ^cwho raised him from the dead;)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of ^fGalatia:

3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 ^hWho gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from ⁱthis present evil ²world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 ^jTo whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon ^oremoved from ^qhim that called you into the grace of Christ ^runto another gospel:

7 Which is not another; but there be ^ssome that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or an ^yangel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be ^{3b}accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek ^eto please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the ^eservant of Christ.

11 But ^hI certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but ^mby the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ^oye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure ^qI persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, ^bbeing more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, who ^dseparated me ^efrom my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 To reveal his Son in me, ^gthat I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but ^kI went into Arabia, and returned again unto ^mDamascus.

18 Then after three years ⁿI went up to Jerusalem to see ^pPeter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save ^sJames the Lord's ^tbrother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, ^xbefore God, I lie not.

21 ^zAfterwards I came into the regions of Syria and ^aCi-līc'i-ā;

22 And was unknown by face unto ^cthe churches of Judæa which were in Christ:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth ^dthe faith which once he destroyed.

24 And ^fthey glorified God in me.

CHAPTER 2

THEN fourteen years after ⁱI went up again to Jerusalem with ^kBarnabas, and took ^lTitus with me also.

2 And I went up by ⁿrevelation, and communicated unto them that gospel ^pwhich I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to ^rthem which were of reputation, ^slest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.

GALATIANS 3

3 ^a But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that ^b because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out ^c our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, ^d that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that ^e the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: ^f God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that ^g the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto ^h Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the ⁱ apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 And when ^j James, Cē-phās, and John, who seemed to be ^k pillars, perceived the ^l grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 ^m Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same ⁿ which I also was forward to do.

11 But ^o when Peter was come to Antī-ōch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, ^p he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing ^q them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to ^r the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

Of justification by faith

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not ^s sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing that ^t a man is not justified by the works of the law, ^u but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I through the law am ^v dead to the law, that I might ^w live unto God.

20 ^x I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but ^y Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live ^z by the faith of ^{aa} the Son of God, ^{ab} who loved me, and ^{ac} gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for ^{ad} if righteousness come by the law, then ^{ae} Christ is dead in vain.

CHAPTER 3

O FOOLISH Galatians, ^{af} who hath bewitched you, ^{ag} that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, ^{ah} Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by ^{ai} the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, ^{aj} are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 ^{ak} Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and ^{al} worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as ^{am} Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that ^{an} they which are of faith, the same are the ^bchildren of Abraham.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that ^dGod would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, ^fIn thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then ^gthey which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are ^kunder the curse: for it is written, ⁱCursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that ^mno man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, ^bThe just shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith: but, ^qThe man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ ^rhath redeemed us from the curse of the law, ^tbeing made a curse for us: for it is written, ^uCursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; ^athat we might receive ^bthe promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, ^dI speak after the manner of men; ^eThough it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now ⁱto Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And ^kto thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, ^mthe law, which was ⁿfour hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? ^tIt was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ^zordained by angels ^ain the hand of a mediator.

20 Now ^aa mediator is not a mediator of one, but ^cGod is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for ^eif there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath ^hconcluded all under sin, that the promise ⁱby faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore ⁿthe law was our schoolmaster ^oto bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ^sye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as ^xhave been baptized into Christ have ^yput on Christ.

28 There is ^zneither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ^cye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And ^eif ye be Christ's, ^fthen are ye Abraham's seed, and ^hheirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER 4

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, ^twere in bondage under the ²⁰elements of the world:

4 But ^bwhen the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, ^qmade of a woman, made under the law,

5 ^rTo redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive ^sthe adoption of sons.

6 And because ^uye are sons, God hath ^xsent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, ^yAb'ba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then ^aan heir of God through Christ.

GALATIANS 5

8 Howbeit then, ^bwhen ye knew not God, ^cye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, after that ye ^ehave known God, or rather ^fare known of God, ^hhow turn ye again to the weak and beggarly ²ⁱelements, whereunto ye desire again ^kto be in bondage?

10 Ye observe ^ldays, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, ^mlest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how ⁿthrough infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

15 Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My little children, ^aof whom I travail in birth again ^buntil Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the ⁱone by a bondmaid, the ^jmother by a freewoman.

23 ^oBut he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the ^rmount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is ^s'Agar.

The liberty of the gospel

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But ^aJerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, ^eRejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then he that was born after the flesh ⁿpersecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith the scripture? ^pCast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

CHAPTER 5

^qSTAND fast therefore ^rin the liberty wherewith ^sChrist hath made us free, and ^tbe not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that ^uif ye be circumcised, ^vChrist shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that ^whe is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 ^xChrist is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ^yye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit ^zwait ^afor the hope ^bof righteousness by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ ^cneither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which ^dworketh by love.

7 ^eYe did run well; ^fwho did hinder you that ye should not obey ^gthe truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him ^hthat calleth you.

9 ⁱA little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is ^ethe ²offence of the cross ceased.

12 I would ^fthey were even cut off which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called ^kunto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but ^lby love serve one another.

14 For ⁿall the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; ^oThou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, ^qWalk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For ^uthe flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: ^zso that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be ^aled of the Spirit, ^bye are not under the law.

22 But ⁿthe fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: ^oagainst such there is no law.

24 And ^bthey that are Christ's ^qhave crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 ^lLet us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER 6

BRETHREN, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ^bye which are spiritual, ^crestore such an one ^din the spirit of meekness; considering thyself; lest thou also be tempted.

2 ^gBear ye one another's burdens, and ^hso fulfil the law of Christ.

3 For ⁱif a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But ^mlet every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let ^phim that is taught in the word ^rcommunicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 ^sBe not deceived; ^tGod is not mocked: for ^uwhatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For ^vhe that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life ^eeverlasting.

9 And ^dlet us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall ^freap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, ^glet us do good unto all men, ^hespecially unto them who are of the household of faith.

11 Ye see ³how large a letter I have written unto you ⁱwith mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, ^kthey constrain you to be circumcised; only ^mlest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, ^rsave in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and ^sI unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus ^uneither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but ^aa new ⁴creature.

[Ep. for 15th S. day Trinity]

16 And ^aas many as walk according to this rule, ^bpeace be on them, and mercy, and upon ^cthe Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at ^cEphesus, and to the ^afaithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ^aBlessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings ^kin heavenly places in Christ:

4 According as he hath ^mchosen us in him ^obefore the foundation of the world, that we should be ^rholy and without blame before him in love:

5 ^tHaving predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 ^uTo the praise of the glory of his grace, ^vwherein he hath made us accepted in ^wthe beloved.

7 ^aIn whom we have redemption through his blood, ^bthe forgiveness of sins, according to ^cthe riches of his grace;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 ^bHaving made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself:

10 That in the dispensation of ^tthe fulness of times he might gather together in one ^tall things in Christ, ^uboth which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:

11 In whom also we have obtained an ^ainheritance, being predestinated according to the ^apurpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

12 That we should be ^bto the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard ^athe word of truth, the gospel ^fof your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ^hye were sealed with that holy Spirit of ⁱpromise, 14 Which is ⁱthe earnest of our inheritance until ⁿthe redemption of ^bthe purchased possession, ^qunto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, ^safter I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints,

16 ^uCease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, ^zmay give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

18 ^aThe eyes of your ³understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is ^ethe hope of his ^fcalling, and what ^gthe riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his ^kmighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, ^mwhen he raised him from the dead, and ^oset him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 Far above all ^bprincipality, and power, and might, and dominion, and ^aevery name that is named, not only in this ²world, but also in ^cthat which is to come:

22 And ^fhath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the ^ghead ⁱover all things to the church,

23 ⁱWhich is his body, ^mthe fulness of him ^bthat filleth all in all.

CHAPTER 2

AND you ^hhath he quickened, ^hwho were ^rdead in trespasses and sins;

2 Wherein in ⁱtime past ye walked according to ^athe ³course of this world, according to ^vthe prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in ^athe children of disobedience:

3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and ^cwere by nature the ^dchildren of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, who is ^grich in mercy, ^hfor his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath ⁱquickened us together with Christ, ^a(by grace ye are saved:)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together ^ain heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

7 That in the ages to come he might shew ^sthe exceeding riches of his grace in his ^akindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace are ye saved ^vthrough faith; and that not of yourselves: ^zit is the gift of God:

9 ^aNot of works, ^blest any man should boast.

10 For we are ^dhis workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto ^egood works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ^hye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called ^kUncircumcision by that which is called the ⁱCircumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12 That ^aat that time ye were without Christ, being ^oaliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from ^bthe covenants of promise, having ^dno hope, and ^ewithout God in the world:

13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were ^hfar off are made nigh ^kby the blood of Christ.

14 For ⁿhe is our peace, who ^ohath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 Having abolished ^qin his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ^sordinances; for to make in himself of twain one ^unew man, so making peace;

16 And that he might ^zreconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

17 And came and preached peace to you which were ^bafar off, and to them that were nigh. Jo. 57:19

18 For through him we both have ^eaccess by ^fone Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but ⁱfellow-citizens with the saints, and of ^kthe household of God;

20 And ^mare built upon the foundation of the ^oapostles and prophets, ^pJesus Christ himself being the chief ^rcorner stone;

21 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an ⁱholy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom ye also are builded together for an ^ahabitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER 3

FOR this cause I Paul, ^cthe prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles, now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

7 Whereof ^cI was made a minister, ^daccording to the gift of ^ethe grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am ⁱless than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach ^lamong the Gentiles the ^munsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the ^ffellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, ^rwho created all things by Jesus Christ:

I THEREFORE, ^fthe prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye ^gwalk worthy of the ^hvocation where-with ye are called,

2 ^kWith all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in ⁿthe bond of peace.

10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, ^hthat he might fill all things.)

11 And ^khe gave some, ^lapostles; and some, ^mprophets; and some, ⁿevangelists; and some, ^opastors and ^qteachers;

12 ^sFor the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the ^xedifying of the ^ybody of Christ:

16 ^fFrom whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself ^hin love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not ⁱas other Gentiles walk, ^kin the vanity of their mind,

18 Having the understanding darkened, being ^oalienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:

19 Who being past feeling have ^qgiven themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 ^rAs if so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye ^sput off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And ^tbe renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye put on ^uthe new man, which ^vafter God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, ^wspeak every man truth with his neighbour: for ^xwe are members one of another.

26 ^yBe ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 ^zNeither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, ^{aa}working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

29 ^{ab}Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but ^{ac}that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

6 ^aLet no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh ^cthe wrath of God upon the ^cchildren of disobedience.

7 ^fBe not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 For ^gye were sometimes darkness, but ⁱnow are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light:

9 (For ^lthe fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth);

10 ^oProving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful ^qworks of darkness, but rather reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of ^sthose things which are done of them in secret.

13 But ^uall things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

EPHESIANS 6

14 Wherefore he saith, ^aAwake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and ^bChrist shall give thee light.

15 ^cSee then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, ^d16 ^{2d}Redeeming the time, because ^ethe days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but ^funderstanding what the will of the Lord is.

18 And ^gbe not drunk with wine, wherein is ^hexcess; but be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to yourselves in ⁱpsalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 ^kGiving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

21 ^mSubmitting yourselves one to another ⁿin the fear of God.

22 ^oWives, ^psubmit yourselves unto your own husbands, ^qas unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as ^rChrist is the head of the church: and he is the ^ssaviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 ^yHusbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

26 That he might ^bsanctify and ^ccleanse it with the washing of water by the word, 27 ^dThat he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; ^ebut that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For ⁿwe are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 ^pFor this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

Duties of children, servants, &c.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAPTER 6

CHILDREN, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 ⁱHonour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but ^jbring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 ^qServants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, ^sas unto Christ;

6 Not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers; but as the ^tservants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, ^zthe same shall he receive of the Lord, ^awhether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; ^cneither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, ^ebe strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 ^hPut on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to ⁱstand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For ^kwe wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against ^lprincipalities, against powers, against the ^mrulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in ^ohigh places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may

PAUL and ^aTi-möth'-ë-ūs, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at ^dPhi-lip'pi, with the ^ebishops and ^gdeacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ⁱI thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 ⁿFor your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 ^oBeing confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you ^pwill perform it until ^qthe day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in ^smy bonds, and in ^tthe defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 For ^bGod is my record, ^chow greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that ^fyour love may abound yet more and more ^hin knowledge and in all judgment;

10 That ye may ²ⁱapprove things that are excellent; ^kthat ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

11 Being ^mfilled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds in Christ ^rare manifest ³ⁱin all the ^spalace, and in all other places;

PHILIPPIANS 2

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of ^{2c} contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the ^e defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation ^h through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, ⁱ that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all ⁿ boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, ^p whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For ^r to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire ^s to depart, and ^v to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, ^b I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That ^f your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only ^l let your conversation ^h be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye ^k stand fast in ⁱ one spirit, with one mind ^m striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them

Exhortations to unity and humility

^a an evident token of perdition; but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also ^b to suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same ^d conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any ^f bowels and mercies,

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be ^g like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through ⁱ strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind ^k let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 ^m Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 ^o Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 ^a Who, being in the form of God, ³ thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 But ^{4s} made himself of no reputation, and ⁱ took upon him the form of a servant, and ^u was made in the likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he ^z humbled himself, and became obedient ^u unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath ^c highly exalted him, and ^d given him a name which is above every name:

10 That at the name of Jesus ^e every knee should bow, of ^s things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And that every tongue ⁱ should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord; ^{to} the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation ⁿ with fear and trembling.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you ^k Ep-äph-rö-dî-tüs, my brother, and companion in labour, and ^l fellowsoldier, but ^m your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 ^u Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and ^v hold such in reputation:

CHAPTER 3

FINALLY, my brethren, ^g rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of ^m dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of ⁿ the concision.

3 For ^p we are the circumcision, which ^r worship God in the spirit, and ^s rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. ^t If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised ^x the eighth day, of the ^y stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, ^a a Pharisee;

6 Concerning zeal, ^c persecuting the church; ^d touching the righteousness which is in the law, ^f blameless.

7 But ^g what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of ⁱ the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, ⁿ which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, ^o the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 ^p That I may know him, and ^q the power of his resurrection, and ^r the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain unto ^s the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were ^t already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, ^y forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I press toward the mark for ^b the prize of the ^c high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be ^a perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be ^a otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, ^f let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, ^h be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample.

18 (For ^k many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even ^m weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 ⁿ Whose end is destruction, ^o whose God is their belly, and ^p whose glory is in their shame, ^q who mind earthly things.)

20 For ^s our ² conversation is in heaven; ^t from whence also we look for the ^u Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 ^v Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned ^v like unto his glorious body, ^a according to the working whereby he is able even ^b to subdue all things unto himself.

CHAPTER 4

THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and ^a longed for, ^s my joy and crown, so ^g stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Ēū-ō²di-ās, and beseech Sŷn⁴tŷ-chē, that they be ^h of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, ⁱ whose names are in the book of life.

4 ⁿ Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your ³ moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 ^q Be careful for nothing; ^r but in every thing by prayer and supplication ^u with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And ^a the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 ^g Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and ⁱ the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last ^t your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be ^r content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and ^z to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ ^c which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, ^d that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ⁱ ye only.

16 For even in ^k Thēss-ā-lō-nī⁴cā ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire ^m fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, ^o having received of ^p Ēp-āph-rō-dī⁴tūs the things which were sent from you, an odour of a ^s sweet smell, a sacrifice ^t acceptable, wellpleasing to God.

19 But my God ^v shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now unto God and our Father ^bbe glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and ^cTīmōth'ē-ūs our brother,

2 To the saints and ^ffaithful brethren in Christ which are at Cō-lōs'sē: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ⁱWe give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 ⁿSince we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of ^othe love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For ^rthe hope which is ^slaid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the ^tword of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, as it is ^uin all the world; and ^bbringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew ^dthe grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of ^ēEp'ā-phrās our dear ^gfellowservant, who is for you a ^hfaithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your ⁱlove in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, ⁿdo not cease to pray for you, and to desire ^pthat ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will ^qin all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 ^sThat ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, ^ubeing

3 ^cIn whom are hid all the treasures of ^ewisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, ^elest any man should ^hbeguile you with enticing words.

5 For ⁱthough I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding ⁿyour order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 ^qAs ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

8 Beware ^blest any man spoil you through ^cphilosophy and vain deceit, after ^ethe tradition of men, after the ^frudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For ^hin him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 And ⁱye are complete in him, which is ^jthe head of all ^mprincipality and power:

11 In whom also ⁿye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in ^oputting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

12 Buried with him ^rin baptism, wherein also ^tye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, ^xwho hath raised him from the dead.

18 Let no man beguile you of ^h your ² reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, ³ intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

19 And not holding ^b the Head, ^r from which all ^a the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore ^y if ye be dead with Christ from the ⁴ rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, ^a are ye subject to ordinances, 22 ^c Which all are to perish with the using;) after the ^a commandments and doctrines of men?

23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; ⁶ not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAPTER 3

^k IF ye then be risen with Christ, ¹ seek those things which are above, ^m where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your affection on things above, ^o not on things on the earth.

3 For ^a ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ, ^t who is our life, ^u shall appear, ^{*} then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

5 ^z Mortify therefore ^a your members which are upon the earth; ^b fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 For which things ^s sake the ^c wrath of God cometh on the ^e children of disobedience:

7 ^e In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

8 But now ye also put off ^f all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication ^g out of your mouth.

for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and ^alabour of love, and patience of ^bhope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren beloved, ^cyour election of God.

5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also ^a in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know ^c what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ^d ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, ^e having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in ^h Macedonia and ^h Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place ^k your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of ⁱ entering in we had unto you, and how ⁿ ye turned to God ^o from idols to serve the ^p living and ^r true God;

10 And ^t to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he ^v raised from the dead, even Jesus, ^y which delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER 2

FOR yourselves, brethren, know ^z our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at ^c Philippi, we ^e were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our ^s exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as we were allowed of God ⁱ to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; ^m not as pleasing men, but God, which ^p trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a ^r cloke of covetousness; ^s God is witness:

6 ⁿ Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, ⁿ when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even ^b as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also ^c our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for ^a labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, ⁱ how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, ^m as a father doth his children,

12 ^a That ye would walk worthy of God, ^a who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also ^a thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of ^a the churches of God ^b which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for ^d ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:

15 ^f Who both killed the Lord Jesus, ^h and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and ⁱ are contrary to all men:

16 ^h Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, ⁿ to fill up their sins alway: for ^o the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time ^q in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly ^t to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan ^y hindered us.

19 For what is our ^z hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? ^aAre not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ ^cat his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3

WHEREFORE when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good ^dto be left at Athens alone;

2 And sent ^eTi-möth-ë-üs, our brother, and minister of God, and ^hour fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed ⁱthereunto.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, ^plest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and ^qour labour be in vain.

6 But now ^swhen Ti-möth-ë-üs came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of ^uyour faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, ^zas we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye ^cstand fast in the Lord.

9 For ^dwhat thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 Night and day ^epraying exceedingly that we might ^gsee your face, and ^hmight perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord ⁱmake you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may establish your hearts ^qunblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, ^bat the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

A call to holiness

CHAPTER 4

FURTHERMORE then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have ^creceived of us ^fhow ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your ⁱsanctification, ^kthat ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 ^mNot in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles ⁿwhich know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and ^odefraud his brother in any matter: because that ^rthe Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 ^tFor God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

8 ^uHe therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, ^vwho hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love ^aye need not that I write unto you:

^bfor ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia; but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and ^fto work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That ye may ⁱwalk honestly toward ^kthem that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which ^mare asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others ⁿwhich have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and ^orose again, ^peven so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you ^a by the word of the Lord, that ^c we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For ^f the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the ^g archangel, and with ⁱ the trump of God: and ^k the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and ⁿ so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore ^q comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5

BUT of the ^{*} times and the seasons, brethren, ^y ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that ^b the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then ^d sudden destruction cometh upon them, ^f as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the ^k children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, ^o as do others; but let us ^p watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and ^u they that be drunken are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, ^y be sober, ^z putting on the ^a breastplate of faith and love; and for an ^c helmet, the ^d hope of salvation.

9 For God ^e hath not appointed us to wrath, but ^f to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, and ^aSil-vā-nūs, and ^bTi-mōth'-ē-ūs, unto the church of the ^dThessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound ^eto thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the ^hcharity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that ⁱwe ourselves glory in you ^min the churches of God for ⁿyour patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is a ^qmanifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be ^rcounted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

6 Seeing ^sit is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled rest with us, ^twhen the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven ^zwith his mighty angels,

8 ^aIn flaming fire taking vengeance on them ^bthat know not God, and ^cthat obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 ^eWho shall be punished with everlasting destruction ^ffrom the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

10 When he shall come ^gto be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also ⁱwe pray always for you, that our God would ^mcount you worthy of ⁿthis calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:

12 That ^ethe name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 2

NOW we beseech you, brethren, ^fby the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our ^ggathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither ⁱby spirit, nor ^kby word, nor ^kby letter as from us, as that the day ²of Christ ³is at hand.

3 ^oLet no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come ^pa falling away first, and ^rthat man of sin be revealed, ^sthe son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, ^xshewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the ^dmystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume ^kwith the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy ⁱwith the ⁴brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan ^kwith all power and signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in ^othem that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause ^bGod shall send them ²strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be ³damned ^ewho believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound ^gto give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God ⁱhath from the beginning chosen you ^lto salvation through ^msanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he ^acalled you by our gospel, ^bto the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

into ^athe love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye ^cwithdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after ^dthe tradition which he received of us.

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, ^abe not weary in well doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but ^dadmonish him as a brother.

16 Now ^ethe Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 ⁱThe salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of ^bGod our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is ^dour hope;

2 Unto ^fTimothy, ^gmy own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at ^mEphesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest chargesome ^othat they teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed to ^qfables and endless ^rgenealogies, which minister ^squestions, rather than godly ²edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now the end of the commandment is ^tcharity ^uout of a pure heart, and of ^va good conscience, and of ^zfaith unfeigned:

6 From which some having swerved have ^{4e}turned aside unto ^fvain jangling;

7 Desiring to be ^ateachers of the law; ⁱunderstanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that ^lthe law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing this, that ⁿthe law is not made for a righteous man, but for ^pthe lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for ^rmurderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for ^uperjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to ^vsound doctrine;

11 According to the ^zglorious gospel of ^athe blessed God, ^bwhich was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our

Tit. 1. 3

Lord, who hath enabled me, for ^athat he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;

13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a ^cpersecutor, and injurious: but I ^eobtained mercy, because I did it ^hignorantly in unbelief.

14 And ⁱthe grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant ^kwith faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 ^lThis is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world ⁿto save sinners; ^pof whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto ^vthe King eternal, ^{3a}immortal, ^binvisible, ^cthe only wise God, ^dbe honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to ^hthe prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest ^kwar a good warfare;

19 Holding faith, and ^{ma}a good conscience; which ^osome having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is ^qHÿ-mě-nă-ÿs and ^sAlexander; whom I have ⁱdelivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER 2

I EXHORT therefore, ^{*}that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of ^a God our Saviour;

4 Who will ^b have all men to be saved, and to come unto ^c the knowledge of the truth.

5 For ^d there is one God, and ^e one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 ^f Who gave himself a ransom for all, ^g to be testified ^h in due time. ¶ ^{Ch}

7 ⁱ Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, ^j (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) ^k o a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray every where, ^l lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, ^m that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with ⁿ good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence ^o with all subjection.

12 But ^p I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 ^q For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, ^r but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved ^s in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAPTER 3

^t THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a ^u bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 ^v A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, ^w given to hospitality, ^x apt to teach;

3 Not given to wine, no striker, ^y not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

4 One that ruleth well his own house, ^z having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report of ¹ them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and ² the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the ³ deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding ⁴ the mystery of the faith in ⁵ a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their ⁶ wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ⁷ ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness ⁸ in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in ⁹ the house of God, which is the church of the ¹⁰ living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: ¹¹ God was manifest ¹² in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, ¹³ received up into glory.

CHAPTER 4

NOW ¹⁴ the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in ¹⁵ the latter times some ¹⁶ shall depart from the faith, giving heed to ¹⁷ seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

2 ¹⁸ Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience ¹⁹ seared with a hot iron;

3 ^a Forbidding to marry, and commanding ^b to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received ^d with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For ^e every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 ^f If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and ^g of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' ^h fables, and ⁱ exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth ^j little: but ^k godliness is profitable unto all things, ^l having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a ^m faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in ⁿ the living God, who is the ^o Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 ^p These things command and teach.

12 ^q Let no man despise thy youth; but ^r be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 ^s Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee ^t by prophecy, with ^u the laying on of the hands of ^v the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

16 ^w Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both ^x save thyself, ^y and them that hear thee.

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 ^a Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first ^b to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and ^c continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that ^d liveth in pleasure ^e is dead while she liveth.

7 And ^f these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But ^g if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath ^h denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have ⁱ lodged strangers, if she have ^j washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And withal they learn to be idle, ^k wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and ^l busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, ^m give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the ⁿ elders that ^o rule well ^p be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, ^cThou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, ^eThe labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but ^fbefore two or three witnesses.

20 ^hThem that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

21 ⁱI charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and ^kthe elect angels, that thou observe these things ⁱwithout preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 ⁿLay hands suddenly on no man, ^oneither be partaker of other men's sins; keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER 6

LET as many ^zservants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, ^athat the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are ^cbrethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. ^hThese things teach and exhort.

3 If any man ⁱteach otherwise, and consent not to ⁿwholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine ^owhich is according to godliness;

4 He is proud, ^pknowing nothing, but doting about ^rquestions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 Perverse disputings of men of ^zcorrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, ^zsupposing that gain is godliness: ²from such withdraw thyself.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, was given us in Christ Jesus ^abefore the world began,

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of ^bour Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath ^dabolished death, and hath brought life and ²immortality to light through the gospel:

11 ^gWhereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless ^mI am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that ⁿhe is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against ^pthat day.

13 ^qHold fast ^rthe form of ^ssound words, ^twhich thou hast heard of me, ^uin faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee ^zkeep by the Holy Ghost ^awhich dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in ^cAsia be turned away from me; of whom are Phy-gēl-lūs and Hēr-mōg-ē-nēs.

16 The Lord give mercy unto ^fthe house of Ō-nēs-iph-ō-rūs; for he oft ^hrefreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 ⁿThe Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at ^rEphesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER 2

THOU therefore, ^bmy son, ^cbe strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things ^fthat thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be ^table to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore ^lendure hardness, as ^aa good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 ^oNo man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And ^rif a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not ^scrowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 The husbandman that laboureth must be first ^upartaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the ^cseed of David was ^draised from the dead ^faccording to my gospel:

9 ^hWherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even ⁱunto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore ^kI endure all things for ^mthe elect's sakes, that they may also ^pobtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 ^sIt is a faithful saying: For ^tif we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 ^{*}If we suffer, ^vwe shall also reign with him: ^aif we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 If we believe not, yet ^bhe abideth faithful: ^che cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, ^ccharging them before the Lord that they strive not ^fabout words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman ^hthat needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing ⁱthe word of truth.

16 But ^kshun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth

19 Nevertheless ^gthe foundation of God standeth sure, ^hhaving this seal, ^kThe Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ ^mdepart from iniquity.

20 But ^pin a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and ^qsome to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 ^tIf a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and ^{*}prepared unto every good work.

22 ^vFlee also youthful lusts: but follow ^zrighteousness, faith, charity, ^apeace, ^bwith them that call on the Lord ^cout of a pure heart.

THIS know also, that in ^dthe last days perilous times shall come.

2 For ^gmen shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

II TIMOTHY 4

Paul's solemn charge to Timothy

5 ^a Having a form of godliness, but ^c denying the power thereof: ^d from such turn away.

6 For of this sort are ^e they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come ^h to the knowledge of the truth.

8 ⁱ Now as Jān' nēs and Jām' brēs withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of ^j corrupt minds, ^k reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as their's also was.

10 But thou hast fully known ^l my doctrine, ^m manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, ⁿ patience, 11 ^b Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at ^a Ān' tī-ōch, at ^e Ī-cō-nī-ūm, at ^g Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but ⁱ out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus ^j shall suffer persecution.

13 ⁿ But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But ^r continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that ^s from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 ^{5b} All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

17 That the ^a man of God may be ^e perfect, thoroughly furnished ^f unto all good works.

CHAPTER 4

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's ^belect, and the ^dacknowledging of the truth ^ewhich is after godliness;

2 ^gIn hope of eternal life, which God, ⁱthat cannot lie, ^kpromised ^lbefore the world began;

3 But hath ^min due times manifested his word through preaching, ^owhich is committed unto me according to the commandment of ^qGod our Saviour;

4 To ^rTitus, ^smine own son after the ^ucommon faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in ^zCrete, that thou shouldest ^bset in order the things that are wanting, and ordain ^delders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having ^ffaithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

7 For ^ha bishop ⁱmust be blameless, as the ^lsteward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a ⁿlover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

he hath been taught, that he may be able by ^asound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and ^cvain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the ^fcircumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who ^hsubvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 ⁿOne of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The ^pCre-tians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore ^trebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in ^xthe faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish ^yfables, and commandments of men, that turn from the ^atruth.

15 ^cUnto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and ^eunbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but in works they ^gdeny him, being ^kabominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work ^mreprobate.

CHAPTER 2

BUT speak thou the things which become ^osound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in ^qpatience.

3 The ^aaged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, ^gkeepers at home, good, ^hobedient to their own husbands, ^kthat the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

7 In all things ⁿshewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; ^sthat he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort ^zservants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; ^bthat they may adorn the doctrine of ^cGod our Saviour in all things.

11 For ^{3f}the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared ^sto all men,

12 Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, ⁱwe should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present ⁵world;

13 Looking for that blessed ^khope, and the glorious ⁱappearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

14 ⁿWho gave himself for us, that he might ^oredeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a ^qpeculiar people, ^rzealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and ^srebuke with all authority. ^tLet no man despise thee.

2 ^bTo speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but ^cgentle, ^dshewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For ^ewe ourselves also ^fwere sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that ⁱthe kindness and love of ^jGod our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 ^mNot by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by ^othe ²washing of ^pregeneration, and ^qrenewing of the Holy Ghost;

6 ^rWhich he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 That being ^tjustified ^uby his grace, we should be made ^xheirs according to ^ythe hope of eternal life.

8 This is a ^afaithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But avoid ^dfoolish questions, and ^egenealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is ^{4a}an heretick ^hafter the first and second admonition reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send ^{Ar}tē-mās unto thee, or ^mTych*ch*-i-cūs, be diligent to come unto me to Ni-cōp*4*-ō-lis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer and ^pAp*p*ōl*5*ōs on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let our's also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, ^uthat they be not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON

PAUL, a ^aprisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Phī-lē-mōn our dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and ^cĀr-chīp-pūs our ^dfellowsoldier, and to ^ethe church in thy house:

3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 ^gI thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing of ⁱthy love and faith, which thou hast ^ktoward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual ^mby the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are ^orefreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient, 9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul ^athe ²aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son ^rŌ-nēs-i-mūs, ^uwhom I have begotten ^{*in my bonds}:

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have sent again: ³thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:

13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might 16 ^jNot now as a servant, but above a servant, ^ha brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE HEBREWS

CHAPTER 1

GOD, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers ^a by the prophets,

2 Hath in ^{2b} these last days ^c spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath ^d appointed ^e heir of all things, ^f by whom also he made the ³ worlds;

3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express ⁱ image of his ^j person, and ^k upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself ^m purged our sins, ⁿ sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained ^p a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, ^q Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, ^r I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 And again, when he bringeth in ^s the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, ^t And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, ^u Who maketh his angels ^v spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, ^w Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, ^x Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, ^d Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ^h ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall ^k be heirs of salvation?

CHAPTER 2

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, ⁵ lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 For if the ^o word spoken by angels was stedfast, and ^q every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 ^s How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; ^t which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was ^x confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God also bearing them witness, both ^a with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and ^{6b} gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection ^d the ⁸ world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, ^f What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For ^h in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now ⁱ we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jesus, ^a who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, ^c crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should ^e taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, ^f for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the ^{2k} captain of their salvation ^l perfect through sufferings.

11 For both ^a he that sanctifieth and ^b they who are sanctified ^q are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them ^s brethren, 12 Saying, ⁱ I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, ⁿ I will put my trust in him. And again, ^{*} Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, ^u he also himself likewise took part of the same; that ^z through death he might ^{3a} destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but ^e he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him ^g to be made like unto his brethren, ^h that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest ^k in things pertaining to God, ⁱ to make ⁴ reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he himself hath suffered ⁿ being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER 3

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly ^b calling, ^q consider the Apostle and ^r High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, ⁱ as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

some man; but ^b he that built all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, ^d as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ ^g as a son over his own house; ^h whose house are we, ⁱ if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the ^m hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore ^o (as the Holy Ghost saith, ^r To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I swear in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from ^b the living God.

13 But ^c exhort one another daily, ^d while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, ^f if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, ⁱ To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: ^h howbeit not ^m all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, ^o whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom swore he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that ^s they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER 4

LET us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem ⁿ to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: ^b but the word preached did not profit them, ² not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, ^c As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, ^d And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, ^k If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached ⁿ entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, ^p To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if ³³ Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also ^r hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any ^c twoedged ^d sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 ^a Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a ^k great high priest, ⁱ that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the ^o Son of God, ^p let us hold fast our profession.

15 For we have not an high priest ^r which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points ^a tempted like as we are, yet ^c without sin.

16 Let us therefore ^d come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5

FOR ^f every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men ^g in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 ⁱ Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is ^j compassed with infirmity.

3 And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, ^m so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, ^o as was Aaron.

5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an ^q high priest; but he that said unto him, ^r Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, ^t Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Mël-chîs'-êd-êc.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, ^u when he had offered up prayers and supplications ^v with strong crying and tears unto ^z him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;

8 ^a Though he were a Son, yet ^b learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;

9 And ^c being made perfect, he became the ^d author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God an high priest ^e after the order of Mël-chîs'-êd-êc.

11 Of whom we have ⁱ many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first ^m principles of ⁿ the oracles of God; and are become ^q such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are ^a of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses ^d exercised ^e to discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER 6

THEREFORE leaving the ^f principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on ^h unto ² perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance ⁱ from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of ^m baptisms, and of ⁿ laying on of hands, and of ^o resurrection of the dead, and of ^p eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, ^r if God permit.

4 For ^s it is impossible for those who were once ^u enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made ³ partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have ^v tasted the good word of God, and the powers of ^z the ⁴ world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing ^c they crucify to themselves the ^d Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

8 But ^g that which beareth thorns and briers is ^h rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; ⁱ whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and ⁱ labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ^m ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of ⁿ hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but ^p followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, ^b he sware by himself,

14 Saying, ^c Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and ^e an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto ^k the heirs of promise ⁱ the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which ^q it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope ⁱ set before us:

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that ^x within the veil;

20 Whither the forerunner is for us ^a entered, even Jesus, made an ^b high priest for ever after the order of Melchis'ed-ec.

CHAPTER 7

FOR ^a this Melchis'ed-ec, king of Salem, priest of the ^f most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the ^k Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment ^o to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose descent is not

counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed ^a him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Mēl-chiś-ēd-ēc met him.

11 ^e If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Mēl-chiś-ēd-ēc, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang ^b out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Mēl-chiś-ēd-ēc there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but ^s after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, ^uThou art a priest for ever after the order of Mēl-chiś-ēd-ēc.

18 ^v For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For ^z the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of ^a a better hope did; by the which ^c we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, ^eThe Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art

The Levitical priesthood abolished

a priest for ever after the order of Mēl-chiś-ēd-ēc:)

22 By so much was Jesus made a ^bsurety of ^ca better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, ^ahath an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them ^ato the uttermost that come unto God by him, ^dseeing he ever liveth ^fto make intercession for them.

26 For such an ^ghigh priest became us, who is ^hholy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and ⁱmade higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, ^kas those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, ^lfirst for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this ^mhe did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh men high priests which ⁿhave infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is ⁴⁰consecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER 8

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have ^qsuch an high priest, ^rwho is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of ^tthe true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For ^severy high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the ^bexample and ^dshadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about ^eto make the tabernacle: for, ^fSee, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the ^amediator of ^ba better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For ^cif that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, ^dBehold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now ^ethat which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9

THEN verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine ^bservice, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a ^ctabernacle made; the first, wherein was the ^dcandlestick, and the ^etable, and the ^fshewbread; which is called the sanctuary.

4 Which had the golden ⁱcenser, and ^jthe ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was ^kthe golden pot that had ^lmanna, and ^mAaron's rod that budded, ⁿand the tables of the covenant;

5 And over it the ^cchěr-ü-bîms of glory shadowing the ^dmercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, ^ethe priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the ^fhigh priest ^galone ^honce every year, not without blood, which he ⁱoffered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

8 ^mThe Holy Ghost this signifying, that ⁿthe way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, ^othat could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

10 Which stood only in ^pmeats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an ^qhigh priest of ^rgood things to come, by a greater and ^smore perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; ^trecreation

12 Neither by ^uthe blood of goats and calves, but ^vby his own blood he entered in ^wonce into the holy place, ^xhaving obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ^yashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit ^zoffered himself ^awithout spot to God, ^bpurge your conscience from ^cdead works 'to serve the living God?

15 And for this cause he is the ^dmediator of the ^enew testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they ^fwhich are called ^gmight receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

17 ^a For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, ^c he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, 20 ^f Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 ⁱ Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and ^k without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the ^l patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of ^m the true; but ⁿ into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God ^q for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in ^{2u} the end of the world ^z hath he appeared to put away sin ^z by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as ^a it is appointed unto men once to die, but ^c after this the judgment:

28 So Christ was once offered ^d to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he ^f appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER 10

FOR the law having ^h a shadow of ⁱ good things to come, and not the very image of the things, ^l can never

The perfection of Christ's sacrifice with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once ^b purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins ^d every year.

4 For it is not possible that ^e the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore ^g when he cometh into the world, he saith, ^h Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are ^o sanctified ^p through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ ^r once for all.

11 And every priest standeth ^s daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, ^t sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting ^v till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering ^b he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof ^e the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 ^g This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 ^k And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now ^awhere remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great ⁿrecompence of reward.

37 For ^s'yet a little while, and ^uhe that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to ^athe saving of the soul.

CHAPTER 11

NOW faith is the ³substance of things hoped for, the ⁴evidence of ⁵things not seen.

2 For by it the elders ^gobtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that ^kthe ⁵worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith ^mAbel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than ^oCain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

5 By faith ^rEnoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that ^yhe is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith ^bNoah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with ²fear, ^aprepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became ^eheir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, ^gwhen he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the ^kland of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with ^mIsaac and ⁿJacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for ^oa city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also ^aSara herself received strength to ^rconceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged ^thim faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and ^uhim as good as dead, so many ^vas the stars of the sky in multitude, ^wand as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died in faith, ^cnot having received the promises, but ^ehaving seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed ^fthat they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things declare plainly that ^hthey seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God ⁱis not ashamed ^mto be called their God: for he hath prepared for them ^aa city.

17 By faith Abraham, ^bwhen he was tried, ^qoffered up Isaac; and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,

18 Of whom it was said, That ^zin Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

35 ^a Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain ^e a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:

37 They were ^f stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And ⁱ these all, having obtained a good report through faith, ^j received not the promise:

40 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us ^k should not be made perfect.

CHAPTER 12

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and ^l let us run with patience the race that is ^m set before us,

2 ⁿ Looking unto Jesus the ^o author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him ^p endured the cross, despising the shame, and ^q is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For ^r consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied ^s and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, ^t My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure ^b chastening, God dealeth with you ^c as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto ^d the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, ^e that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the ^f peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore ^g lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And ^h make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but ⁱ let it rather be healed.

14 ^j Follow peace with all men, and ^k holiness, ^l without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently ^m lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any ⁿ root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as ^o Esau, ^p who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that ^q afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come ^r unto the mount that might be touched, and ^s that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And ^t the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; ^u which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And ^aif so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with ^aa dart:

21 And ^aso terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

22 But ye are come unto ^gmount Sion, and unto the ^hcity of the ⁱliving God, the ^hheavenly Jerusalem, and to an ^minnumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of the ^ofirstborn, which are ^bwritten in heaven, and to ^qGod the Judge of all, and to the ^rspirits of just men made perfect,

24 And to Jesus the ⁱmediator of the ⁱnew covenant, and to the blood of ^usprinkling, that ^xspeaketh better things than that of ^zAbel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For ^aif they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, ^cmuch more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

26 ^eWhose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, ^hYet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth ⁱthe removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving ⁿa kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

29 For ^rour God is a consuming fire.

CHAPTER 13

LET ^ubrotherly love continue.

2 ^zBe not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby ^zsome have entertained angels unawares.

3 ^bRemember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 ^eMarriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but ^fwheremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be ^bwithout covetousness; and ^cbe content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, ^eI will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, ^fThe Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 Remember them ⁱwhich have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: ⁿwhose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

8 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

9 ^sBe not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; ^ynot with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 We have an altar, ^bwhereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of those beasts, ^dwhose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the ^fhigh priest for sin, are burned ^gwithout the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, ⁱthat he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered ^kwithout the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing ^mhis reproach.

14 For here have we no continuing city, but ^owe seek one to come.

15 By him therefore let us offer the ^bsacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the ^qfruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good and ^sto communicate forget not: for ⁱwith such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 ^yObey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for ^athey watch for your souls, as they that must give account, ^cthat they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 ^dPray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JAMES

CHAPTER 1

^aJAMES, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the ^ctwelve tribes ^bwhich are ^dscattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, ^hcount it all joy when ye fall into ⁱdivers ³temptations;

3 Knowing this, that the ^ktrying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But ^llet patience have her perfect work, ^mthat ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 ⁿIf any of you lack wisdom, ^olet him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, ^snothing wavering. For ^the that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 ^uA double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But ^vthe rich, in that he is made low: because ^was the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For ^xthe sun is no sooner risen with a burning ^yheat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 ^bBlessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the ^ccrown of life, ^fwhich the Lord hath promised ^gto them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then ^hwhen lust hath conceived, it ⁱbringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 ^jDo not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is ^kfrom above, and cometh down from the ^lFather of lights, ^vwith whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own will ^abegat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of ^bfirstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be ^cswift to hear, ^fslow to speak, ^gslow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore ^klay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, ^b which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye ^c doers of the word, and ^d not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face ^f in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But whoso looketh into the perfect ^h law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and ⁱ bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, ^m To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to ^p keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^q the Lord of glory, with ^r respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, ^z Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and ^a heirs of the kingdom ^b which he hath promised to ^c them that love him?

6 But ^e ye have despised the poor. ^f Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy ^g name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according Doers of the word are blessed to the scripture, ^a Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, ^e he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, ^g Do not commit adultery, said also, ^g Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the ⁱ law of liberty.

13 For ^k he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and ⁿ have not works? can faith save him?

15 ^o If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith ^s by my works.

19 ^t Thou believest that ^u there is one God; thou doest well: ^u the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham ^x our father justified by works, when he had ^y offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, ^d Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called ^g the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also was not ⁱ Rahab

CHAPTER 3

MY brethren,^d be not many³ masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For^e in many things⁴ we offend all. ^gIf any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold,ⁱ we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold,^h how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 Andⁿ the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire⁶ the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and^s hath been tamed of mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, ^ufull of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men,^z which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

12 ^fCan the fig tree; my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

14 But^b if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, ^{2c}sensual, devilish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

17 But the wisdom that is ^ffrom above is first pure, then ^hpeaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

18 And^k the fruit of righteousness ^lis sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAPTER 4

FROM whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts ^mthat war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ^oye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

4 ^pYe adulterers and adulteresses, ^qknow ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? ^rwhosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the ^tenemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, ⁷The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth ^uto envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, ^yGod resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. ^aResist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 ^bDraw nigh to God, and ^che will draw nigh to you. ^dCleanse your hands, ye sinners; and ^epurify your hearts, ye ^gdouble minded.

12 There is ^f one lawgiver, ^g who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

13 Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ^k ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even ⁿ a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, ^q If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: ^s all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore ^t to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER 5

^u GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are ^b moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be ^d a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for ^g the last days.

4 Behold, ^h the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, ^k crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the ^m Lord of ² sabaoth.

5 ⁿ Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a ^p day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed ^r the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 ^s Be patient therefore, brethren, ^t unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for

Of patience in adversity and prosperity

the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive ^b the early and ^c latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, ^a lest ye be condemned: behold, ^h the judge standeth before the door.

10 Take, my brethren, ⁱ the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy ^j which endure. Ye have heard of ^m the patience of Job, and have seen ⁿ the end of ^p the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, ^r swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? ^u let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the ^v elders of the church; and ^w let them pray over him, ^a anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and ^c if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 ^e Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. ^f The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 ⁱ E-liz-ās was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: ^j and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

18 And ^o he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one ^q convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way, ^u shall save a soul from death, and ^x shall hide a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER

CHAPTER 1

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers ^{2b}scattered throughout ^cPontus, ^dGalatia, ^eCăp-pă-dô-çi-ă, ^fAsia, and ^gBî-thÿn-ja,

²^gElect according to the ^hforeknowledge of God the Father, through ⁱsanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and ^jsprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and ^kpeace, be multiplied.

³^bBlessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy ^lhath begotten us again unto ^ma lively hope by the ⁿresurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

⁴To an ^oinheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and ^pthat fadeth not away, ^qreserved in heaven for you, ⁵Who ^rare kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ^sready to be revealed in the last time.

⁶Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through ^tmanifest temptations:

⁷That the ^utrial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and ^vglory at the ^wappearing of Jesus Christ:

⁸^bWhom having not seen, ^xye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

⁹Receiving ^ythe end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

¹⁰Of which salvation ^zthe prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

¹¹^aSearching what, or what manner of time the ^{aa}Spirit of Christ which was in them ^{ab}did signify, when it testified beforehand ^athe sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

¹²Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with ^kthe Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; ^mwhich things the angels desire to look into.

¹³Wherefore ^ogird up the loins of your mind, ^qbe sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

¹⁴^aAs obedient children, ^{*}not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

¹⁵But ^aas he which hath called you ^cis holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

¹⁶Because it is written, ^eBe ye holy; for I am holy.

¹⁷And if ye call on the Father, ^gwho without respect of persons ^hjudgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here ^kin fear:

¹⁸Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not ^mredeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

¹⁹But with the precious blood of Christ, as of ^ra lamb without blemish and ^swithout spot:

²⁰^tWho verily was foreordained ^ubefore the foundation of the world, but ^vwas manifest in these ^zlast times for you, ²¹Who by him ^bdo believe in God, that ^craised him up from the dead, and ^dgave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

²²Seeing ye ^fhave purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye ^alove one another with a ^bpure heart fervently:

23 ^cBeing born again, ^dnot of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, ^ewhich liveth and abideth for ever.

24 For ^fall flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAPTER 2

WHEREFORE ^alaying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

2 As ^bnewborn babes, desire the ^csincere milk of the word, that ye may ^dgrow thereby:

3 If so be ye have ^etasted that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, ^fdisallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 Ye also, as lively stones, ^gare built up a spiritual house, ^han holy priesthood, to offer up ⁱspiritual sacrifices, ^jacceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, ^kBehold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7 ^lUnto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, ^mthe stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And ⁿa stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: ^owhereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are a ^pchosen generation, ^qa royal priesthood, an holy nation, ^ra peculiar people; ^sthat ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you ^tout of darkness into ^uhis marvellous light:

10 ^vWhich in time past were not a people, but are now the people of

The example of Christ's suffering

God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you ^was strangers and pilgrims, ^xabstain from fleshly lusts, ^ywhich war against the soul;

12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: ^zthat, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, ^{aa}they may by your good works, which they shall behold, ^{ab}glorify God in the ^{ac}day of visitation.

13 ^{ad}Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him ^{ae}for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that ^{af}with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 ^{ag}As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as ^{ah}the servants of God.

17 ^{ai}Honour all men. ^{aj}Love the brotherhood. ^{ak}Fear God. Honour the king.

18 ^{al}Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the forward.

19 For ^{am}this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

21 For even ^{an}whereunto were ye called: because ^{ao}Christ also suffered for us, ^{ap}leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 ^{aq}Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 Who, when he was reviled, ^{ar}reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but ^{as}committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

24 ^{at}Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, ^{au}being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: ^{av}by whose stripes ye were healed.

CHAPTER 3

LIKEWISE, ^eye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, ^fthey also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 ^gWhose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be ^hthe hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as ⁱSara obeyed Abraham, ^jcalling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, ^kye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being ^lheirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, ^mbe ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, ⁿlove as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

9 ^oNot rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but ^pcontrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are ^qthereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For ^rhe that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 But and ^eif ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and ^fbe not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ^gready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of ^hthe hope that is in you with meekness and fear:

16 ⁱHaving a good conscience; that, ^jwhereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, ^kthan for evil doing.

18 ^lFor Christ also hath ^monce suffered for sins, the ⁿjust for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death ^oin the flesh, but ^pquickened by the Spirit:

19 ^qBy which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, ^rwhen once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of ^sNoah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, ^teight souls were saved ^uby water.

21 ^vThe like figure whereunto even ^wbaptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the ^xanswer of a good conscience toward God,) by ^ythe resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who ^zis gone into heaven, and ^ais on the right hand of God; ^bangels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAPTER 4

FORASMUCH then as ^cChrist hath suffered for us in the flesh, ^darm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh ^ehath ceased from sin;

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but ^fto the will of God.

3 For ^gthe time past of our life ^hmay suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in ^alasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and ^cabominable idolatries:

I PETER 5

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, ^gspeaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ^hready to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For for this cause ⁱwas the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but ^jlive according to God in the spirit.

7 But ^mthe end of all things is at hand: ⁿbe ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things ^phave fervent charity among yourselves: ^qfor charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 ^rUse hospitality one to another without grudging.

10 ^sAs every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as ^agood stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speak, let him speak as the ^aoracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it ^eas of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, ^kto whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the ^mfiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 But ^orejoice, inasmuch as ye are ^ppartakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when ^rhis glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, ^thappy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But ^ulet none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, or as a ^vbusybody in other men's matters:

17 For the time is come that judgment ^dmust begin at ^ethe house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that ^fobey not the gospel of God?

18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ^gungodly and the sinner appear?

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God ^hcommit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAPTER 5

THE ^aelders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a ^bwitness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the ^cglory that shall be revealed:

2 ^dFeed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, ^enot by constraint, but willingly; ^fnot for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither ^gas being lords over God's heritage, but being ^hensamples to the flock.

4 And when the ⁱchief Shepherd ^jshall appear, ye shall receive a ^kcrown of glory ^lthat fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, ^mall of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for ⁿGod resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 ^oHumble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 ^pCasting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

8 ^qBe sober, be ^rvigilant; because ^syour adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, ^twalketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9 Whom resist stedfast ^uin the faith, knowing that ^vthe same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, ^wwho hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, ^bmake you perfect, ^cstablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 ^dTo him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER

CHAPTER 1

SIMON Peter, ^aa servant and ^aan apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained ^dlike precious faith with us through ^ethe righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and ^gpeace be multiplied unto you ^hthrough the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him ^kthat hath called us to glory and virtue:

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding ^mgreat and precious promises: that by these ye might be ^opartakers of the divine nature, ^phaving escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, ^qadd to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;

6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor ^uunfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things ^xis blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was ^zpurged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make ^ayour calling and ^belection sure: for if ye do these things, ^cye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly ^finto the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent ⁱto put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in ^lthis tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, ⁿeven as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised ^rfables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were ^seyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him ^tfrom the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

19 ²We have also a more sure ^vword of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto ^aa light that shineth in a dark place, until the ^b day-dawn, and the ^c day star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake ^g as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER 2

BUT there were ^h false prophets also among the people, even as ⁱ there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in ² damnable heresies, even ^m denying the Lord ⁿ that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And ^o through covetousness shall they ^p with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not the ^r angels that sinned, but cast them down to ³ hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, ⁱ to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved ^s Noah ^t the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in ³ the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And turning the cities of ^a Sodom and Gō-mōr-rhā into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And delivered just ^b Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

9 ⁵ The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly ^h them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and ^a despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid ^d to speak evil of dignities.

11 ^e Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

12 ^f But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure ^h to riot in the day time.

14 Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you;

15 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

16 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following ^g the way of Bā⁴lāam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

17 But was rebuked for his iniquity: ^s the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

18 ⁷ These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

19 For when they ^z speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

20 ^c While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

21 For ^d if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world ^e through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, ^g the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

22 For it had been better for them

CHAPTER 3

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which ^aI stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 ^hThat ye may be mindful of the words which were ⁱspoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 ^kKnowing this first, that there shall come ^min the last days scoffers, ^owalking after their own lusts,

4 And ^psaying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God ^qthe heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

6 Whereby the world that then was, being ^roverflowed with water, perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, ^sreserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and ^ba thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord ^dis not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is ^flongsuffering to us-ward, ^anot willing that any should perish, but ^bthat all should come to repentance.

10 But ^cthe day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; ^din the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, ^ewhat manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness,

12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for ^fnew heavens and a new earth, ^gwherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent ^hthat ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that ⁱthe longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as ^jour beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, ^k"speaking in them of these things; in which are some things ^lhard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, ^mbeware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 But ⁿgrow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. ^oTo him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

2 And he is ^ethe propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that ^gwe know him, ^hif we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and ⁿthe truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, ^oin him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we ^pthat we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, ^reven as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write ^sno new commandment unto you, but an old commandment ^uwhich ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.)

8 Again, ^za new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness ³is past, and ^cthe true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and ^dhateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 ^fHe that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and ^hthere is none occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and ^mwalketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness ^ohath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because ^ryour sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known ^shim that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye ^thave overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ^aye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and ^e the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 ^a Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. ^b If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And ⁿ the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but ^o he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 Little children, ^q it is the last time: and as ye have heard that ^s an-ti-christ shall come, ^t even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 ^u They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, ^v that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have ^w an unction from the ^x Holy One, and ^y ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar but ^z he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is an-ti-christ, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 ^{aa} Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, ^{ab} which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ^{ac} ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

29 ^h If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness ⁱ is born of him.

CHAPTER 3

BEHOLD, ^j what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the ^k sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because ^l it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, ^m when he shall appear, ⁿ we shall be like him; for ^o we shall see him as he is.

8 He that committeth sin ^z is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, ^{aa} that he might destroy the works of the devil.

11 For ^cthis is the message ^dthat ye heard from the beginning, ^fthat we should love one another.

12 Not as ^bCain, who was of that wicked one, and ⁱslew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? ^j'Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

14 We know that we have ^bpassed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. ^cHe that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 ^aWhosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that ^bno murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby perceive we ^bthe love of God, because ^che laid down his life for us: and ^dwe ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But ^ewhoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, ^fhow dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 (And) hereby we know that ^awe are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloved, ^aif our heart condemn us not, then have ^bwe confidence toward God.

22 And ^cwhatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we ^dkeep his commandments, and ^edo those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And ^cthis is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and ^dlove one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments ^bdwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by ⁱthe Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER 4

BELOVED, ^bbelieve not every spirit, but ^ctry the spirits whether they are of God: because many ^dfalse prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: ^kEvery spirit that confesseth that ^mJesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And every spirit that ⁿconfesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that ^aspirit of an-ti-christ, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

4 ^sYe are of God, little children, and ^uhave overcome them: ^xbecause greater is he that is in you, than ^zhe that is in the world.

5 ^aThey are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 ^eWe are of God: ^fhe that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God ^gheareth not us. Hereby know we ^hthe spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, ⁱlet us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth ^jis born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not ^mknoweth not God; for ⁿGod is love.

9 In this was manifested ^bthe love of God toward us, because that God ^csent his ^donly begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, ^snot that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be ^xthe propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 ^bNo man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and ^dhis love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we ^fthat we dwell in him, and he in us, because ^ghe hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And ⁱwe have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son ^kto be the Saviour of the world.

15 ^mWhosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us.

God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we (may) have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAPTER 5

WHOSOEVER believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

12 He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death.

There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN

^aTHE elder unto the elect lady and her children, ^cwhom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all ^ethey that have known the truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 ^hI rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, ^{*}not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, ⁱbut that which we had from the beginning, ⁿthat we love one another.

6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN

^aTHE elder unto the wellbeloved ^bGai'ūs, ^cwhom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For ^gI rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church: but Di-ōt-ré-phēs, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore, ⁱif I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JUDE

^a JUDE, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are ² sanctified by God the Father, and ^d preserved in Jesus Christ, and ^f called:

2 Mercy unto you, and ^g peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the ^m common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly ^a contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For ^a there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and ^s denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 ^z I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, ^b having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward ^e destroyed them that believed not.

6 And the ^f angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, ^k he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the ^rkingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, ^ufor the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 ^yI was in the Spirit on ^zthe Lord's day, and ^aheard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou ^bhast tried them ^cwhich say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and ^ffor my name's sake hast laboured, ^gand hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, ⁱbecause thou hast left ^jthy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else ^oI will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the ^tNic-ō-lā-i-tānes, which I also hate.

7 ^uHe that hath an ear, let him hear ^vwhat the Spirit saith unto the churches; ^wTo him that overcometh will I give to eat of ^xthe tree of life, which is in the midst of the ^yparadise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the ¹first and the last, ²which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but ⁿthou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of ^pthem which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ¹ten days: ²be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a ^xcrown of life.

11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of ^zthe second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pēr-gā-mōs write; These things saith he which hath the ^asharp sword with two edges;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of ^bBā-lāām, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, ^cto eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the ^eNīc-ō-lā-i-tānes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else ^hI will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of ^kthe hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone ^la new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in ^pThy-ā-ti-rā write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of ^sfire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 ^uI know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman ^vJēz-ē-bēl, which calleth herself a ^zprophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which ^esearcheth the reins and hearts: and ^hI will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thy-ā-ti-rā, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have

What John was commanded to write not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; ^aI will put upon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye have already ^chold fast ^dtill I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 And ^fhe shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him ⁱthe morning star.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER 3

AND unto the angel of the church ⁷in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the ^mseven Spirits of God, and the ⁿseven stars; ^oI know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and ^qart dead. 2 ^rBe watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, ^sI will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not ^adefiled their garments; and they shall walk with me ^bin white: for they are worthy.

5 ^cHe that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the ^dbook of life, but ^eI will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 ^fHe that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith ^hhe that is holy, ^khe that is true, he that hath the ^lkey of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

CHAPTER 4

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was ^bopened in heaven: and ^athe first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, ^sCome up hither, and ^uI will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately ^yI was in the spirit; and, behold, ^za throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon ^blike a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a ^crainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were ^gfour and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed ^kin white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded ^llightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the ⁿseven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a ^asea of glass like unto ^bcrystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were ^qfour beasts ^rfull of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first beast was ^slike a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them ^ysix wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, ^bsaying, ^dHoly, holy, holy, ^eLord God Almighty, ^gwhich was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, ^kwho liveth for ever and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders ^mfall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

AND I saw in the right hand of ^rhim that sat on the throne a book ^swritten within and on the backside, ^tsealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw ^ua strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, ^vthe Lion of ^wthe tribe of Juda, ^xthe Root of David, ^yhath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the ^zfour beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a ^{aa}Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and ^{ab}seven eyes, which are the ^{ac}seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAPTER 6 sin seals opened

AND I saw when ^zthe Lamb opened ^{aa}one of the ^{ab}seals, and I heard, as it were ^{ac}the noise of thunder, one of the ^{ad}four beasts saying, Come and see. I

2 And I saw, and behold a ^{ae}white horse: and he that sat on him had ^{af}a bow; and ^{ag}a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer. whi

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was ^{ah}red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword. Red

III 5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a ^bblack horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and ^dthree measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

IV 7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse; and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, ^hto kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

I 9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under ⁱthe altar ^mthe souls of them that were slain ⁿfor the word of God, and ^vfor the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, ^qHow long, O Lord, ^rholy and ^strue, dost thou not judge and ^uavenge our blood on ^xthem that dwell on the earth?

11 And ^ywhite robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, ^zthat they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

13 And ^cthe stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

CHAPTER 7 Interlude

AND after these things I saw four angels standing on ^gthe four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending ⁱfrom the east, having ^kthe seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, ^kHurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have ^psealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard ^tthe number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Něp-thă-līm were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Mă-nă-s-sēs were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Is-să-chăr were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Ză-bŭ-lon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a ^jgreat multitude, which no man

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, ^e Salvation to our God which ^f sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the ⁱ four beasts, and ^k fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 Saying, Amen: ^m Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of ^{2b} great tribulation, and have ^q washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and ^r serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne ^s shall dwell among them.

16 ^t They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne ^u shall feed them, and shall lead them unto ^v living fountains of waters: and ^z God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAPTER 8

VII AND when he had opened ^b the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels ^c which stood before God; and to them were given seven ^e trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the ^a altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the ^b prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and ^g cast it into the earth: and there were ^h voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an ⁱ earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed ⁿ hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were ^a a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and ^s there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the ^u fountains of waters;

11 And the name of the star is called ^x Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of ^a the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel ^d flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, ^f Woe, woe, woe, to the ^g inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

AND the fifth angel sounded, and I saw ^aa star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given ^cthe key of the ²bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke ^flocusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them that they ^gshould not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; ^hbut only those men which have not the ⁱseal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days shall ^kmen seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the ^lshapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the ^pteeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the ^qsound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is ^rAbaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name ³Ā-pōl'-lŷ-on.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of ^athe golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the ^dfour angels which are bound in ^ethe great river Eû-phrâ'tēs.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet ^mrepented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship ⁿdevils, and ^oidols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth ⁱlifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, ^kwho created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be ²time no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, ^othe mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and ^seat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth ^usweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy ^ea thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the ²two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, ^hfire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These have power ⁱto shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters ^mto turn them to blood, and ⁿto smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, ^bthe beast that ascendeth out of ³⁹the bottomless pit shall ^rmake war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And ^tthey that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall ^xsend gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three days and an half the ^yspirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, ^zCome up hither. And ^bthey ascended up to heaven ^cin a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great ^dearthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand:

and the remnant were affrighted, and ^agave glory to the God of heaven.

14 ^cThe second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the ^dseventh angel sounded; and there were ^egreat voices in heaven, saying, ^fThe kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of ^hhis Christ; and ⁱhe shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And ^kthe four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, ⁿfell upon their faces, and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O ^oLord God Almighty, ^bwhich art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and ^lhast reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and ^sthe time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou ^vshouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and ^bthem that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.

19 And ^dthe temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and ^hthere were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great ^khail.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great ^qred dragon, having seven heads and ^rten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, ^zNow is come salvation, and strength, and the ^akingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, ^cwhich accused them before our God day and night.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and ^qall the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him ^sa mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue ^uforty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he ^gdoeth great wonders, so that he ⁱmaketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And ^ldeceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast; that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not ^rworship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive ^ta mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, ^bBlessed are the dead ^dwhich die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, ^ethat they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat ^glike unto the Son of man, ^hhaving on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of ⁱthe temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, ⁿThrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from ^tthe altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle unto the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great ^cwinepress of the wrath of God.

20 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER 15

AND ^fI saw another sign in heaven, a great and marvellous, ^gseven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a ⁱsea of glass mingled with fire: and them that ^khad gotten the victory over ^lthe beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over ^othe number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the ^pharpes of God.

REVELATION 16

The vials of wrath poured out

3 And they sing ^a the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of ^d the Lamb, saying, ^e Great and marvellous are thy works, ^f Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou ^g King of saints.

4 ⁱ Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art ^h holy: for ^m all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, ⁿ the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having ^q their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of ^r the four beasts gave unto the seven angels ^t seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, ^u who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the temple ^v was filled with smoke from the ^z glory of God, and from his power; and ^a no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER 16

AND I heard a great voice out of the ^f temple saying to the ^g seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of ^m the beast, and upon them which ^o worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and ^s it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and ^u fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art ^x righteous, O Lord, ^y which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For ^b they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and ^c thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of ^g the altar say, Even so, ^h Lord God Almighty, ^k true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they ^o repented not ^p to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon ^r the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed ^s the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river ^b Euphrātes; and the water thereof ^c was dried up, that the way of the kings of the ^d east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like ^e frogs come out of the mouth of ^h the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the ⁱ false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, ^k working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, ^t to gather them to the battle of ⁿ that great day of God Almighty.

15 Behold, ^b I come as a thief. ^q Blessed is he that ^r watcheth, and keepeth his garments, ^t lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue ³ Ār-mā-gēd-dōn.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, ^z It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and ^alightnings; and there was a great ^bearthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And ^cthe great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great ^eBabylon ^gcame in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And ⁱevery island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great ⁿhail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAPTER 17

AND there came one of the ^oseven Angels which had the ^bseven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of ^rthe great whore that sitteth upon ^smany waters:

2 With whom ^tthe kings of the earth have committed fornication, and ^uthe inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with ^vthe wine of her fornication.

3 So ^zhe carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a ^bscarlet coloured ^abeast, full of ^enames of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in ^hpurple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a ^kgolden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, ⁱMYSTERY, ^mBABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with ⁿthe blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of ^dthe bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and ^fthey that dwell on the earth ^hshall wonder, whose names were not written in ⁱthe book of life ^kfrom the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And ^mhere is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ^qten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and ^sshall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make war with ^athe Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is ^cLord of lords, and ^fKing of kings: and they that are with him are ^gcalled, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, ⁱThe waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER 18

AND after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and ^athe earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, ^dBabylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the ^fhabitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations ⁱhave drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the ⁱkings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, ⁱCome out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For ^mher sins have reached unto heaven, and ⁿGod hath remembered her iniquities.

6 ^oReward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her ^bdouble.

7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for ^rshe saith in her heart, ^sI sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for ^xstrong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall ^ybewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see ^athe smoke of her burning,

10 ^bStanding afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and ^bpurple, and silk, and ^cscarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ^eivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And ^gcinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and ^hfrankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and ^ksouls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And ^qevery shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, ^tWhat city is like unto this great city!

19 And ^uthey cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 ^zRejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

21 And ^ca mighty angel took up a stone like a great ^dmillstone, and ^ecast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

CHAPTER 19

AND after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; ^qSalvation, and ^sglory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For ^utrue and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged ^{*}the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and ^uhath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia. And her ^bsmoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And the ^dfour and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God ^fthat sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, ⁱPraise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the ⁱvoice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent ^rreigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for ^othe marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And to her was granted that ^qshe should be arrayed in fine linen, ^rclean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER 21

AND I saw ^ga new heaven and a new earth: for ⁱthe first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw ^lthe holy city, ⁿnew Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared ^pas a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, ^qthe tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall ^awipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be ^bno more death, ^cneither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the ^aformer things are passed away.

5 And ^fhe that sat upon the throne said, Behold, ^gI make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for ^hthese words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, ⁱIt is done. I am ^jAlpha and ^kΩ-mēg-ā, the beginning and the end. ^mI will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 ⁿHe that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and ^phe shall be my son.

8 ^qBut the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in ^sthe lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the ^tsecond death.

9 And there came unto me one of the ^useven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, ^vthe Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in ^zthe spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having ^athe glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a ^cjasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had ^htwelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the ⁱtwelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve ⁿfoundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had a ^qgolden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth ^dfoursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure ^kof a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the ^ofoundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, ^rsapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an ^remerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, ^rsardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, ^rberyl; the ninth, a ^rtopaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an ^aamethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for ^athe Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And the city had ^bno need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the ^dglory of God ^fdid lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 And the ^gnations ^hof them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And ^kthe gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for ^lthere shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And ^mthere shall in no wise enter into it ^oany thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in ^pthe Lamb's book of life.

CHAPTER 22

AND he shewed me a pure ^ariver of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the ^bLamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the ^ctree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there shall be ^hno more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and ⁱhis servants shall serve him:

4 And ^mthey shall see his face; and ⁿhis name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be ^ono night there; and they need no candle, ^pneither light of the sun; for ^qthe Lord God giveth them light: and ^rthey shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, ^s"These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God ³of the holy prophets sent his angel ^ato shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 ^cBehold, I come quickly: ^dblessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And ^fI John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, ^gI fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, ^e"See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

PREFACE

This concise Bible dictionary is designed to be used with the King James Version, the British Revised Version (readings often the same in the American Standard Version), and the Revised Standard Version. Cross references facilitate unified treatment of the readings of these versions. It may in a more limited way be used with independent translations. The listing of variants is also helpful for insights into meanings of concepts and names.

The number of entries was made as complete as feasible; hence, variants and material from the Apocrypha (frequently related to canonical material) are included. Articles, possessive pronouns, copulatives, etc., are often omitted in the abbreviated style.

The meaning of proper names is given after the pronunciation when such meaning has been established by scholars as certain or probable. In some instances a different meaning was urged by some scholars with almost equal plausibility.

The preparation of even a concise dictionary increases appreciation of the time devoted by scholars to the study and elucidation of the Sacred Scriptures. Lexicons, concordances, translations, commentaries, reference works, and articles in journals by American, British, German, French, and other European scholars were continually consulted. This applies also to such dictionaries as Wm. Smith, Dictionary of the Bible (Hurd and Houghton); J. D. Davis, A Dictionary of the Bible (Westminster); Miller-Miller, Harper's Bible Dictionary (Harper); M. F. Unger, Bible Dictionary (Moody); J. Hastings, A Dictionary of the Bible (Scribner's); J. Orr, The International Standard Bible Encyclopaedia (Howard-Severance), revised by Kyle (Eerdmans); F. Rienecker, Lexikon zur Bibel (Brockhaus); T. Schlatter, Calwer Bibellexikon (Calwer).

Several entries are revised summaries made by the author on the basis of material published by the late A. W. Klinck. This is indicated at the end of the article.

On the basis of a sample printing, colleagues at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, and Concordia Seminary, Springfield, gave the author helpful suggestions. Such suggestions were also received from professors at divinity schools, seminaries, and colleges in the United States and from executives, pastors, and teachers. Luther A. Weigle sent lists of comparative readings to the author.

The dictionary was prepared under the auspices of the Literature Board of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. Otto A. Dorn and Elmer E. Foelber gave the author suggestions regarding form and content.

Erich B. Allwardt critically read the entire manuscript, indicated necessary corrections and additions, suggested changes in form, and assisted in the collation of variants.

Abraham (â'brâ-hâm, father of a multitude), Abram (â'brâm, exalted father. Name in vogue in Babylonia). Founder of Hebrew nation. Son of Terah; brother of Nahor and Haran. His family, descendants of Shem, lived in Ur of Chaldees. After Haran's death, Terah emigrated to Haran in Mesopotamia with Abram, Abram's wife Sarai, and Haran's son Lot (Gn 11).

In Haran God told Abram to leave his country, kindred, and paternal home for land God would show him; promised to make of him great nation and bless all families of earth in him. Abram, then 75 yrs old, went to Canaan with Sarai and Lot. Abram pitched tent at oak (KJ; plain) of Moreh, where God promised him land and Abram built altar E of Bethel. Famine drove him to Egypt, where Pharaoh took beautiful Sarai into his house after Abram caused her to say she was Abram's sister. Plagues caused Pharaoh to discover deception and dismiss Abram (Gn 12).

Abram with great possessions left Egypt together with Lot and returned to altar near Bethel. Strife between herdsmen of Abram and Lot led to separation; Abram gave Lot choice of land, and Lot chose Jordan plain and pitched tent as far as Sodom. God repeated promise to Abram, who moved to Mamre (Gn 13).

for Isaac (Gn 24). Abraham d at 175, buried in cave of Machpelah (Gn 25).

God called Abraham, who later is called friend of God, from a family that served idols (Jos 24:2). God took initiative in covenants in which God binds Himself to give without receiving anything in return. Circumcision (Ro 4:11) is sign of covenant.

By faith Abraham was just, as God wanted him to be, thus becoming the father of believers (Ro 4; Gl 3). This faith showed itself in works (Ja 2:21). In Christ, Abraham's seed, all nations of earth are blessed (Gl 3:16). Believers are spiritual heirs and sons of Abraham (Ro 4:13, 14; Gl 3:29). Covenant with Abraham not disannulled by that of Sinai (by which men are obligated) but remains steadfast for all ages (Gl 3:17, 18).

2. After first fall rain, ground was cultivated by hand with shovel and mattock, or plow drawn by donkey, cow, or ox. Plow was heavy forked branch of tree or branches bound and pegged together so that one long end became the tongue, a shorter one the plowshare (which might be shod with stone or iron), and another the guiding handle. After plow had torn up ground, large lumps were broken up with mattock and raked fine with harrow (bundle of brushwood, or wooden platform shod with stones or iron spikes).
3. Farmer sowed grain by hand, taking it from basket or from fold of his garment. After sowing ground he harrowed it again or drove his animals back and forth to trample seed in.

of ass or cow. Parallel with these primitive instruments, and crowding them out, were modern-looking sickles of bronze or iron set in wooden handles.

5. After reaper cut grain, he raked it up, tied it into bundles with its own straw. Fallen or missed grain he left for poor gleaners (Ru 2:2, 3). From field to threshing floor he transported grain on rack fixed to cart or bound on back of donkey, or even carried on litterlike frame by two men.

6. Threshing floor was roughly circular plot of clay or limestone rock carefully patched and leveled. Workers opened bundles and spread them about a foot deep over this area. Unmuzzled (Dt 25:4) cows, calves, sheep, and donkeys trampled grain out of straw. Primitive threshing sled or wooden flails also used. Grain was winnowed by tossing straw and grain into the air with wooden shovel or fork and cleansed with sieve. Grain was then washed, dried, stored in vermin-proof jars.

Processes of agriculture are applied to spiritual realm (e.g., Mt 3:12; 9:37, 38; 13:18, 39; Jn 4:35; Gal 6:7). (Klinck)

Jesus Christ (jê'zus krist. Jesus is G for H y:hoshu'a: savior. Christ is G for H Mashiah: the anointed). Jesus signifies Savior (Mt 1:21, 25; Lk 1:31). Christ signifies Anointed One (Acts 10:38), the promised Messiah (Mt 16:13-23; Lk 2:25, 26; Jn 1:35-41). See also Messiah.

Logos. Jesus is called Logos (Word; Jn 1:1-14; 1 Jn 1:1; Rv 19:13); shows Messiah as pre-existing Person before incarnation. Logos is Himself living and gives life; creative (Jn 1:3; Ps 147:15-18; Mt 8:24-27; 9:1-8; Cl 1:15-20); preservative (Cl 1:17). Spirit of Word inspired prophets (1 Ptr 1:10, 11).

Son of God. Applied to Jesus in unique sense (Mt 11:27; 16:16; 21:33-41; Mk 12:6, 7; 13:32; Jn 1:14, 18; 3:16-18) which makes Father and Son equal (Jn 10:30; 12:45; 14:8-11; 17). Jesus is distinct Person, eternal Son, begotten by eternal Father (Jn 3:16; Ro 8:3), yet of one substance with Father (Cl 1:19; 1 Jn 5:20); hence He has same attributes (Jn 5:21; 21:17), works (Mt 9:1-8; Jn 5:17, 21, 25; Cl 1:15-20), honor (Jn 5:23).

Son of Man. Jesus used this expression to emphasize His humanity especially in connection with His ministry (Lk 9:56; 19:10), power (Mt 9:6; 12:8), death (Mk 14:21; Lk 22:48; Jn 3:14), resurrection (Mt 17:9; Mk 9:9), ascension (Jn 6:62), 2d coming and judgment (Mt 25:31). He is prophesied man (Gn 3:15; Is 7:14; Gl 4:1-7), New Man, New Adam (Ro 5:12-21; 1 Co 15:22; Ph 2:5-11), who brought in new humanity. Shared in flesh and blood as children do (Ro 9:5; Heb 2:14). Thus Christ is God and man in one person (Jn 1:14; 1 Ti 2:5; Cl 2:9).

Earthly Life. Conceived by Holy Ghost; born of virgin Mary at Bethlehem; circumcised; presented at temple; taken to Egypt; lived at Nazareth (Lk 2:39); visited temple when 12 yrs old (Lk 2:40-52); when about 30 yrs old, baptized by John (Mt 3:13-17; Mk 1:9-11; Lk 3:21-23); tempted by Satan (Mt 4:1-11); began public ministry. Major portion of ministry in Galilee with Capernaum as headquarters; also included Judea, Samaria, even distant regions as that of Tyre and Sidon. Announced and taught kingdom of God, did good, performed miracles, was opposed by Jewish leaders (lawyers, scribes, Pharisees). Taken captive by Jewish leaders in Gethsemane; condemned by judges gathered by high priest; crucified by Pilate on Golgotha; buried in nearby garden; rose from dead on 3d day; appeared to disciples; ascended to heaven. Gospels present facts of Christ's life that fit their objectives (see Jn 20:30, 31).

Servant of God. Jesus is Servant of God (Mt 12:18; Acts 3:13, 26) because He did that which God willed (Mk 14:32-42; Jn 1:29; 4:34; 5:30); served God by saving men (Acts 3:26) in spite of human opposition (Acts 4:27). Thus ultimate fulfillment of Is 53 is seen in Christ (Mk 8:31; 10:33; Ro 4:25).

Savior. Jesus is promised Savior (Lk 2:11, 22-32), who by His life, death, resurrection, and proclamation saves (Mt 1:21; Lk 19:10; Jn 4:42; Acts 4:12; 11:14; 16:31; Ro 5:10; 10:9, 10) those who believe (Acts 16:31) from sin, wrath, and death (Mt 1:21; 1 Ti 1:1; 2; Eph 5:23).

Mediator. Jesus is Mediator between God and man (Gl 3:19, 1 Ti 2:5; Heb 8:6; 9:15; 12:24) by bringing men to God as Prophet, Priest, King. See Offices (below).

Lamb of God. Jesus is Lamb of God in sense that He is sacrificed for sins of world (Jn 1:29, 36; Acts 8:32; 1 Co 5:7; 1 Ptr 1:19; Heb 7:27. See Ex 12; Is 53:7).

Offices. Christ as Prophet announces kingdom of God; reveals to man God in His holiness, mercy, love; performed signs of Kingdom; forgives sins; and through apostles and church proclaims Gospel (Gospels). Christ as Priest fulfilled all righteousness and atoned for all sin in place of mankind by His vicarious life, death, and resurrection (Ro 4:25; 2 Co 5:19; Heb 7). Christ is King in sense that He rules men with truth of God (Jn 18:33-38), namely, New Covenant (Jer 31:31-34; 32:40, 41). He is Son of David, through whom God had covenanted with Israel (2 Sm 7; 23:1-7). Jesus is King of kings and Lord of lords (Mt 28:18). See Lord (below).

States. To perform work of redemption, Christ according to human nature did not use prerogatives He might rightfully claim (humiliation. Ph 2:6-8). Resumption of full and constant use is exaltation (Eph 4:8; Ph 2:9-11).

Lord. God made Jesus Lord (in sense that kurios translates JHVH [Lorn, Jehovah], Mk 1:3—Is 40:3) by resurrection from dead (Acts 2:31-36; Ro 1:4; Eph 4:5; Ph 2:5-11; 1 Ti 6:15; Rv 11:15). Authority of Jesus-Lorn is authority of God (Mt 28:18; 1 Co 8:4-6). Jesus' lordship is won (Eph 1:21; Ph 2:5-11; Cl 2:6-15) and will be fully revealed at Parousia (Mt 25:31; 1 Co 15:26-28). He is Lorn of individual by faith (Lk 23:42; Acts 5:14; 11:17; 1 Co 12:3; 2 Co 3:17; Eph 1:3), and believers live for Him (Ro 14:6-8; 1 Co 15:58; 16:10; Eph 2:21; 5:8-10; 6:4; Cl 1:10). As Lorn, Jesus is Head of church, both as supreme authority and as goal (Eph 1:22, 23; 4:15, 16; 5:23, 24; Cl 1:18; 2:10, 19).

Judgment. OT: Occasionally administration of justice (2 Sm 15:4; 1 K 3); usually keeping people in right relation to covenant (Is 11; 61). God's judgments are salvation, victory, deliverance of covenant God (Dt 32:36; Ju 5:11; Is 30:18; Jer 30:11). Judgment, however, is not on purely national line but based on relationship to Jehovah (Is 2:12; Am 5:18). Judgment preserves remnant (Is 6:13). Judgments point to final judgment, Day of Jehovah, which centers in God's self-expression (Is 25; Zch 14). NT: Sometimes administration of law (Jn 18:31; Acts 23:3); usually judgment of God and includes salvation of believers (Lk 18:1-8; 2 Th 1:5-10; Ro 1:18-32; 1 Co 11:29-32), culminates in Final Judgment (Mt 11:20-24; 25:31-46; Jn 16:11; 1 Th 4:13-18). Final judgment belongs to God (Mt 18:35; Ro 14:10) and administered by Christ (Mt 25:31-46). Angels (Mk 8:38), believers collaborate (1 Co 6:2, 3). Judgment is salvation to believers, condemnation to unbelievers (Mt 25:31-46). Criterion of judgment is Law (Mt 25); since Law has been fulfilled by Christ, relationship to Him is decisive factor (Mt 10:32, 33; Ro 8:1-17; Gl 5:13-25).
